

Modes, Models Matched

Modes and models are being matched up and final arrangements perfected for "Fashion's Centennial Review," to be sponsored by the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club held in Medford this week end.

An Oregon Centennial dinner was held at Hedrick Junior High school. Delegates and visitors from throughout the state attended in Centennial attire, many dressed as pioneer women, Indians, and Chinese laborers as well as other costumes appropriate to the 1850s.

Following the dinner Leon-ard Grover, manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Grants Pass and Josephine County, welcomed the women to southern Oregon. He represented the mayor of Grants Pass who was unable to attend.

The Grants Pass BPW club was in charge of the evening; Mrs. Bonnie Borie was program chairman and mistress of ceremonies.

Theme for the convention, "Onward Women-Grow with Oregon," was chosen from several submitted by various clubs, the winning one sent in by the Grants Pass club.

Candidates for state office were presented during a fashion show of old-fashioned attire.

Wagon trains, log chains, and plots for placer claims decorated the tables for the event. The speaker's table was decorated with a miniature log cabin village.

Also speaking at the meeting were Mrs. Elsie (William) Downing, Myrtle Point, state president, and Miss Laura York, Medford, general chairman for the convention.

Saturday's session started at 7 a.m. with a breakfast at the Medford hotel for incoming club presidents with the business session convening at 9 a.m. at the Medford High school. The afternoon session started at 1:30 p.m. when annual reports were given and state officers elected.

A formal banquet was held Saturday evening at the Hedrick school with the installation of officers. The convention will close at noon today.

Even high school students are growing Centennial whippers, and Jack Young attended the annual Junior-Senior Prom of Medford High school January 9 wearing a Lincoln-esque beard. His date for the formal party, most important social function of the year for the school, was Miss Maxine Cook of Redding, Calif.

Lady Elks Plan Guest Luncheon

Medford Lady Elks will entertain the Grants Pass Lady Elks at a 12:30 p.m. luncheon Tuesday, May 19, in the Elks club party lounge.

A social half-hour will precede luncheon and cards will be played during the remainder of the afternoon. There will be tables of bridge, canasta and pinchle.

Each Medford woman attending is to bring a salad. The lodge will provide the remainder of the lunch.

Wives and widows of all Elks members are invited. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Alva Perkins, Spring 2-8633, or Mrs. Ross Gilkison, Spring 2-4358.

Bethel To Hold Formal Dinner

Medford Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, will hold a formal dinner May 20 at 5:45 p.m. at the Masonic temple.

"Secret dads" will be honored and a business meeting will follow. The new guardian council will be installed.

Electa Social Club Announces Luncheon

Electa Social club will meet for a salad luncheon at the Girls Community club Friday, May 22, at 1 p.m.

Visiting members of the Order of the Eastern Star and members not affiliated with valley groups are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Sissel Frogner, exchange student from Norway who is enrolled at Medford High school this year, attended the Junior Senior Prom held last Saturday evening at the school. Her escort was Robert Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, who is president-elect of the Medford High School Student Body.

Poppy Day Announced

Saturday, May 23, will be the annual American Legion Poppy Day to benefit disabled veterans. Women of the auxiliary will sell the red paper poppies in downtown Medford that day.

Sale of the flowers will give disabled veterans employment and financial benefit, and aid their recovery through use of hands and minds, according to the auxiliary.

Women who distribute the poppies receive none of the proceeds, except "the satisfaction of having helped brighten the memory of the dead and of having contributed to the welfare of the living," it was stated.

Funds go entirely to the welfare activities of the American Legion and auxiliary, supporting work for the disabled veterans and their families, and families left in need by the death of veterans.

Couple Married In Reno Service

Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Cody Jr., are making their home at 323 Division street, Klamath Falls, following their wedding April 20 at Park Wedding chapel in Reno, Nev.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo H. Hardie, 1415 Gary street, Klamath Falls, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cody Sr., 23 Newtown street.

The Rev. Raymond Walters performed the double ring ceremony.

Following their marriage, the couple visited Virginia City, Lake Tahoe and Sacramento, visiting in the latter city with the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cody.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford high school, is an agent for Western Greyhound Lines in Klamath Falls. He was formerly a ticket dispatcher with Greyhound in Medford and Los Angeles.

Guest Here

A recent houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gordon, 915 South Holly street, was their son-in-law, Wayne Mayo, Santa Clara, Calif. Mr. Mayo spent 10 days in the valley, leaving for his home Thursday.

Philharmonic Guild Meets

Plans for the coming year's activities were discussed by members of the Philharmonic guild at a meeting held last Tuesday at the studio of the Richard Werners, Mr. Werner is director of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon orchestra, and the guild is a supporting organization.

First meeting of the fall will be September 15, and at that time further plans will be made for benefit project discussed at Tuesday's session. The event will be a sale and display of rare and interesting books, glass, china and music. Mrs. J. C. Collins will be chairman of the project, with Mrs. Henry DeVoss as her assistant.

New members were introduced at Tuesday's session, and others are to join the group in the fall. All valley women interested in music and in supporting the Philharmonic orchestra are welcome to work with the guild, it is stated.

Tuesday's meeting followed luncheon.

Informal Dance Planned by Club

Lively Rogues Dance club will hold its last dance of the season, May 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Rogue Valley Country club. Dress for the sports affair will be cottons for the women and sports clothes for men. The host couples, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mosher and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Milne, will be in charge of decorations.

Churches Give Senior Banquet

About 90 high school juniors and seniors and their advisors attended an annual banquet given Saturday, May 9, at the Medford hotel in honor of graduating seniors. The event is sponsored each year by churches of the area.

"Enchanted Evening" was the theme, and guests entered the dining room through an arch of flowers.

Following dinner a film was shown and Dick Merriman spoke. Music was provided by The Fishermen, a male quartet.

Aiding the students with the party were Russell Carr, First Baptist church member Hill, and Fred Buehling, who teaches school in Gold Jacksonville teacher, served as master of ceremonies.
