

Delegates Elected By League

Eight women of the Medford League of Women Voters were elected recently to attend the state convention of the Oregon League of Women Voters to be held in Eugene May 18-20.

Representing the local League will be the Mesdames Dunbar Carpenter, local president; John Ousterhout, Robert Boyer, Ben Day, Kenneth Baker, Ron James, Thomas Rutter and Richard Hogan.

A total of 100 delegates from Oregon's 17 Leagues will vote on state officers and select items to be included in the state program of activities for the coming biennium.

Recommended by the state board of adoption by the membership are the study of the revision of the judicial branch of the state constitution and the study of the state's role in the problem of government for metropolitan areas.

Both state board recommendations and those made by local Leagues will be presented.

Mrs. Paul Holmer, Kentfield, Calif., a member of the national board, will speak. She is a charter member of the Berks County, Pa., League, founded in 1940, and has held many positions of leadership there and in California.

A change of date for the morning study unit of the Medford League of Women Voters has been announced.

"Administration of justice in Jackson county" will be the topic of the meeting Wednesday, May 27, at 9:45 a.m. at the home of Mrs. David Boals, 34 Glen Oak court. Mrs. Ben Day, chairman of that section of the League's Know Your County study, will be in charge of the discussion.

The same topic will be presented at the regular meeting of the evening study unit Monday, May 25, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Rutter, 1033 Queen Anne avenue.

All women interested are cordially invited to either unit, League officers stressed.

Weavers' Guild

VFW Auxiliary Announces Robert Allen Essay Winner

Robert Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 981 South Stage road, has received a $25 award as top winner in the local essay contest sponsored by the Crater Lake auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The contest topic was "The Space Age—Challenge to America."

Other Medford school students winning in the essay contest were Miss Sharon Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aetna Carr, 124 Highland drive, and Mike Hartley, son of Mrs. J. M. Hartley, 59 Rose avenue, who tied for the $15 second prize; and Miss Marlene Miller, daughter of Mrs. Norma Broyles, 2642 Bidle road, who won the third prize of $10.

Mrs. Ben Allison made the first place award at a recent auxiliary meeting. Mrs. Fred Lawrence, essay chairman for the auxiliary, district and department, presented the other awards.

Each winner was accompanied by his parents and received a corsage or boutonniere of Buddy poppies. Robert Allen also received a bronze essay medal.

Judges were Mrs. Marie Dizney, Mrs. Bernice Kunzman and Mrs. I. D. Murray, all members of the Jackson County Retired Teachers association. They invited the two second place winners to read their essays to the association's next meeting. Young Allen's essay will be sent to national VFW headquarters for national competition.

Mrs. Randle announced that Mrs. Cecil Bell will be chairman of the membership committee; Mrs. Ivan Lusk and Ben Allison, delinquent; Mrs. Dora Stanton and E. G. Heim, refreshment; Mrs. Louis Kula, civil defense; Mrs. Russell Zundel, corsage, publicity and poppy; Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, legislature; Mrs. Ira Canfield, cancer, Oregon cottage and national home funds; Mrs. Fred Lawrence, essay and Americanism; Mrs. E. G. Heim, historian and sewing club; Mrs. Jack Brummond and Mrs. B. B. Ramsey, ways and means and entertainment; Mrs. Bell, community service; Mrs. Ivan Lusk, hospital chairman for Camp White domiciliary; and all past presidents of the auxiliary, hospitality.

Elected as delegates to the state convention in Eugene June 27-July 2 were Mrs. DeBerry, Mrs. Ben Allison, Mrs. B. B. Ramsey and Mrs. Zundel. Alternates are Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Lusk, Mrs. Canfield, and Mrs. Etha Wall. The auxiliary will meet next on May 19 at 8 p.m. at 42 North Front street.

Oregon Mother On KYJC Today
An interview with Oregon's Mother of the Year, Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr., and her son, David, of Medford will be heard on radio station KYJC at 1:05 p.m. today.

Senator and Mrs. Richard L. Neuberger will conduct the interview on their radio report from Washington.

Mrs. Bosworth will tell of being entertained with other mothers representing the 48 states at special luncheons and events in New York City. Oregon's "Mother," who is active in the United Nations association and the League of Women Voters in Medford, also discusses the role of women in government with Mrs. Neuberger.

David Bosworth, a junior in political science at the University of Oregon will relate his impressions of Washington.

The population of Singapore today slightly exceeds 1,500,000.

Sigma Kappas Hear Talk By Committee Head

Mrs. Fred Rankin spoke for a meeting of Sigma Kappa alumni Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. R. F. Rickman, 1150 Chestnut street. Mrs. R. A. Schuchard, chairman of the local alumni group, presided at the meeting and introduced Mrs. Rankin, state chairman of community services on the Oregon State Council on Aging.

Mrs. Rankin discussed the local program for senior citizens and pointed out various ways in which the group might participate. The field of gerontology has been for several years one of the main philanthropies of Sigma Kappa for both college and alumni chapters.

Mrs. Edgar A. Kupillas, Mrs. Ronald E. Cordon and Mrs. J. E. Barrett were appointed rushing co-ordinators for this area and Mrs. R. P. Knights as publicity chairman. Co-chairmen for observance of Founders Day are Mrs. J. A. Dickey and Mrs. Fred W. Conrad.

Sigma Kappa alumni living in the area who have not been contacted formerly and who wish to have their names appear in the local alumni directory now in the process of being compiled are asked to contact Mrs. Barrett, SP 2-7338.

Hostesses for the evening, in addition to Mrs. Rickman, were Mrs. Kupillas and Mrs. Barrett.

Mrs. Henry Lathrop, St. Albans, W.V., national vice president in charge of alumni, visited the local alumni group in April at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul McPuffee.

Valley Navy Mothers Announce Meeting

Rogue Valley Navy Mothers club will meet Tuesday, May 19, at 10 a.m. for an all day session at the home of Mrs. Warren Boe, 2198 Buckshot road.

Sewing will be held during the morning with a potluck luncheon served at noon. Memorial services will be held for Navy Mothers who have died.

Election of officers was held at the last meeting of the club and installation ceremonies will be held at the June 2 meeting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Alexander.

All mothers of Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel are invited to attend.

Festival Planned

Several valley extension units were busy last week completing their plans for a May festival to be held at Phoenix Presbyterian church May 20. Registration of cooperating members and their guests will be held from 12:30 p.m. until 1 p.m. under the direction of the new Willamette unit.

At 1 p.m. a program will be presented, including a brief talk on Extension in Oregon; "Songs of Yesterday" presented by the members of Griffin Creek unit; a skit "A Visit to the Druggist, Fifty Years Ago and Now" given by the Oak Grove Extension unit; and a fashion show, presented by the combined members of Phoenix and Medford units.

Tea will be served and each unit will also have on display demonstrations of various projects they have studied through the extension program. Medford's display will be concerned with foods and nutrition; Phoenix will show arts related to sewing and pattern fitting; Griffin Creek will show various arts and crafts learned through the unit; and Oak Grove will display how members have used their knowledge to improve their homes through reupholstering furniture, making draperies, pillows, lamp shades, rearranging cupboards and in other ways.

Pastor to Speak For DAR Chapter

The Rev. John Reynolds will speak for a meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at Girls Community club Saturday, May 23, at 2 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Reynolds is pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church.

Hostesses will be Mrs. O. C. Rawlings, Mrs. O. E. G. Meyers, Mrs. H. E. Marsh, and Mrs. Alton M. Anderson.

Centennial Luncheon Held By Past Matrons of OES

Past Matrons of Ashland, Jacksonville, Central Point and Medford Eastern Star chapters attended a Centennial party in the Jacksonville Masonic temple May 12. Luncheon, prepared by Adare Social club, was served by Mrs. F. H. Everham, Mrs. Lyle Thurman, Mrs. Ernest Kessler, Mrs. L. J. Conley and Mrs. Don Shores. Old-fashioned flowers and lamps decorated the tables.

Mrs. E. G. Randolph, president of Reames club, introduced Mrs. Anna Cater, Mrs. Mary Ann Langley and Mrs. Vivian Wilson, who wore authentic Centennial costumes. She also introduced each past matron, including Mrs. R. G. Fowler who served a chapter in Wisconsin in 1908.

Mrs. William Wingham read a poem, "The Logtown Rose," by Fred Lowe, which told the history of the yellow rose planted in 1863 by Mrs. John McKee and which is still growing by Highway 238 near Ruch at the former sight of Logtown.

Military Orders To Take Part In Coming Events

Roguette circle, Military Order of Lady Bugs, and Coettes, will participate in memorial services in Medford and Camp White beginning at 1:30 p.m. Memorial day.

The circle recently elected Mrs. Russell Zundel, Mrs. Fred Lawrence and Mrs. Ben Allison to attend the royal convention in Eugene June 28. Alternates are Mrs. O. DeBerry, Mrs. Amy Randle and Mrs. Dora Stanton.

Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Harold Sutherland and Mrs. Mabel Cox were initiated.
