Jackson county young Republicans paid tribute Saturday night to Dr. Edwin R. Durno, state senator from Jackson county, and Mrs. Eve Nye, state representative from the county, for their "outstanding service during the past legislative session."

The legislators expressed satisfaction in the Republican achievements they gained despite being in a minority position at a dinner in their honor at the Mon Desir Dining Inn, Central Point.

Mrs. Nye cited the unemployment bill, wage and hours bill, and the county home rule as examples of constructive legislation. In discussing the program of the educational program, she pointed to the aim of developing the highest potential of each child.

Dr. Durno acclaimed Mark Hatfield as a governor who was extremely effective in spite of the obstacles he faced against a predominantly Democratic legislature. He discussed the sales tax as a possible solution to the financial dilemma Oregon will face in 1960.

Jim Ragland, chairman of the Jackson County Young Republicans, read telegrams commending the legislators for their work in the past session from Governor Hatfield, Secretary of State Howell Appaling, State Treasurer Sig Unander and State Central Committee Chairman Peter M. Gunnar.

John Merrifield, state chairman of the candidates assistance committee, represented the state Republican Central committee. He commented on constructive steps in electing Republican candidates.

Medford High School

Edited by Barbara Nulton, Reporters, Connie Hinesly, B. J. Hale, Margie Good, Peggy Fisch, Nora-leen Schell, and Deanna Russell.

As the school year of 1958-59 rapidly draws to a close, preparations are made for 1959-60 classes so that, even with the new school consolidation, clubs and various school organizations, vital parts of modern school life, will be able to function effectively.

In the past week those clubs who had not previously done so elected and installed their officers.

Officers elected for Spanish club are president, David Ryn; vice president, Denny Pugmire; secretary-treasurer, Suzi Thompson; and social chairman, Mildred Boyd.

Future Nurses of America here at MHS have chosen as their officers president, Micky Darras; vice president, Donna Dell; secretary, Susan Fontaine; treasurer, Sherry Funk; and historian, Janet Young.

Those elected to offices in the Shutterbug club are president, Marilyn Jo Conner; vice president, Barbara Gordon; secretary-treasurer, Sharon Knight.

Choir officers are president, Paul Moore; vice president, Rosiland Randles; secretary, Clinton Stiger; treasurer, Kathy McCoy; and robarians, Judy Bash and John Lacy.

Installation for the new Girls' Athletic association officers will take place May 20 after a swimming party and picnic.

Ruby Rowan, Medford High school senior, was chosen as one of three finalists in the state to win a $600 scholarship. The other three finalists won $150 scholarships.

The AFL-CIO labor scholarship was awarded as a result of a written test on labor, and an interview. Ruby was interviewed in Portland on May 8.

She hopes to attend College of Emporia in Emporia, Kans., and take medical technology.

Senior class announcements arrived last week and are on sale before and after school in window D in front of the auditorium. Because of their arrival senior classes have been "upset" by students eager to exchange cards with their friends much to the horror of teachers who are trying to cram the last little bit of knowledge into the craniums of their students in the short school time left.

The Hi-Times staff held its award banquet at the Medford hotel May 13. Nineteen staff members, Adviser Vern Wothoff, and four guests attended. Awards ranging from editors' keys to two-year and one-year pins were given.

Medford high's band participated in the Boy Scout circus at the high school stadium May 16. Many musical numbers were played to evolve the themes.

The band also played at the dedication of the Centennial from 3 to 4 p.m. yesterday.

Annual Mathews, Lindaglen Miller, and Howard Kennett, juniors, have been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English. The winners will be chosen according to writing ability and literary awareness. The winners, to be announced in January, 1960, will receive recommendations for scholarship assistance.

When Hedrick Junior High starts next year, it will have new time schedules. Students may attend from 8:10 or 9:02 until 2:25 or 3:20, respectively. For the academically inclined students, seven courses will be offered. The new schedule will allow more subjects to be offered because of scheduling flexibility.

A number of Girl Scouts were excused Friday, May 8, for a camping trip. They were Gay Howe, Linda McCann, Anita Brenner, Patti Lindsay, Christy Finch, Christine Bartels, Sandra Irving, Susan Root, Catherine Brown, Carolyn Poulos, Betty dePlace, Beverly Bush, Jill Crawford, Mary Betty Lockington, Susan Higgins, Vicki Nissen, Ann Parsons, Sandra Joyce, Patricia Selby, Nancy Atwood and Judy Woods.

Vicky Enders and Chuck McNair were elected queen and king of the ninth grade dance Saturday, May 9. Princesses were Mike Wickersham, Scott Eaton, Charles Allen, Nick Gier, Jack Richardson, Bonnie Lowry, Sandra Bates, Mary Milne, and DeEtta Lawson.

The class of '59 is planning its annual picnic and swim May 22, at Twin Plunges and Lithia park in Ashland. Mike McCullough is the general chairman. Fifty cents will provide each student with ample servings of picnic fare.

At 1 p.m. Thursday, May 14, the fifth period music class and part of the fourth fulfilled a singing engagement at Howard school. They sang a number of songs including "Poor Man Lazarus," "We the People," "I Could Have Danced all Night," and "Let Us Break Bread." Robert Heide played a trumpet solo and then teamed with Bob Hogenson and Jim Gault in a trio.

Boasting the theme "memories are made of this" the annual Mother's Day tea was held May 11. It is sponsored every year by the Girls' League.

At the tea, Doris Owens was named Girl of the Month, and Sandra Gheldari was given her disk for being last month's Girl of the Month.

Entertainment was provided by the school choir, which sang "All in the April Evening" and "A Round the World"; Dayle Nesheim, who did a Charleston; and Lea Padgett and her accordion.

Doris Owens provided background music for the style show.
