

White Sox Move Into First; Braves Lead By 3 1/2 Games

United Press International
It's no idle chatter when Early Wynn and Warren Spahn say they may wind up their careers in the charmed circle of 300-game winners. Only six modern pitchers have reached that majestic total but the seemingly indestructible Wynn and Spahn just keep rolling along toward the goal. Wynn, 39, is pitching his best ball in three years this season and Spahn, 38, is rolling again after a slightly faltering start. Wynn pitched the Chicago White Sox into first place in the American league for the first time since June 27, 1957, Monday night when he beat the Washington Senators, 9-2.

and Spahn topped the San Francisco Giants, 4-2, to help the Milwaukee Braves stretch their National league lead to 3 1/2 games.

Loses Shutout Bid
It was the 25th victory of Wynn's 20-year career while Spahn registered the 251st triumph of a 15-year career. Cy Young, Walter Johnson, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Eddie Plank and Lefty Grove and Christy Mathewson are the only modern pitchers who have reached the 300-mark for their careers.

The White Sox tagged Chuck Stobbs for three runs in the first inning and kept drawing further and further away. Wynn, whose record is 6-2, lost a bid for the 40th shutout of his career when Reno Bertoia hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning.

The victory coupled with the Baltimore Oriole's 3-0 decision over the Cleveland Indians, gave the White Sox a three-point hold on first place. They shared the key spot the first four days of this season but this is the first time they had sole occupancy since 1957.

Spahn struck out six and scattered nine hits in posting his fifth win of the year for the Braves. The veteran pitcher also singled to touch off the Braves' decisive sixth-inning rally—a rally capped when Hank Aaron bombed a double off the center field fence in San Francisco.

Skinny Brown and Billy Loes combined in the six-hit shutout of the Indians. Don Ferrarese walked in the first Baltimore run and three singles, a sacrifice and an infield out produced the other two Oriole tallies in the fifth.

The Detroit Tigers crushed the Boston Red Sox, 14-2, in an American league day game and the Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-7, in the other N.L. game. The other teams were not scheduled.

Pitcher Jim Bunning drove in five runs with a homer, triple and two singles as the Tigers battered four Boston pitchers for 16 hits.

Vada Pinson doubled home two runs in the eighth inning after Johnny Temple and Gus Bell homered in the fifth for the big blow of Cincinnati's victory over the Dodgers.

Sacs Shade Bees, Perry Hits Homer

United Press International
It may be too early to start a "stop Sacramento" campaign in the Pacific Coast league, but the Solons are doing their best to make just such a movement necessary.

The Sacs did it the hard way Monday night, shading Salt Lake City 4-3, on the strength of a two-run homer by Bob Perry in the eighth inning. Perry's 420-foot blast capped a three-run Sacramento rally to give Perry Fox his third straight win in relief.

The Bees had taken a 3-1 lead in their half of the eighth on two walks, a fielder's choice and a double by Jim Baumer. Bob Anderson, who came on for starter Don Rowe in the fatal inning, was charged with the loss.

Lead By Four Games
The victory gave Sacramento a four-game lead over the second-place San Diego Padres, who had taken the night off. The Solons won the series, five games to two. Portland took both ends of a day-night twin-bill from Vancouver in the only other games played. Veteran right-hander Art Houtteman gave up only three hits in the second game, won by Portland 7-0, after Marty Kutyna had three-hitted the Mounties in the afternoon tilt for a 1-0 Beaver triumph.

The Canadians committed six errors to go with their anemic hitting attack in the nightcap to send ace left-hander Fred Besana down to his first defeat. Only two of the seven Portland runs were earned.

In the Opener, the Beavers pushed across the only run of the game on two singles and a fielder's choice in the third inning. The win was Kutyna's second of the year.

Colored Ghosts Oppose Camp White on Thursday

Iowa Colored Ghosts, the touring Negro laughmakers, are traveling again this season to entertain the fans with their skill in softball.

They oppose the Camp White semi-pro baseball nine at 8 p.m. on Thursday at the Veterans administration domiciliary stadium.

The Ghosts, while not as famous as their counterparts, the Harlem Globe Trotters, are a talented band of fun-makers who can turn on the steam or tickle the fancy of the most staid fan, all within minutes.

They are managed by Rip Collins, one of the finest hitters in the game today and have added some new players this year to help balance their team.

Sleepy Edward and Showboat Buckner, two distinguished gentlemen, are the leading trouble makers for the Ghosts softball team.

Ball Circus
The Ghosts are billed as a Ball Circus, America's greatest summer sports show. They have a carload of tricks.

A talent-plus comedy routine equivalent to that of the famed Harlem Globe Trotters in basketball, the Iowans put a few added wrinkles into ball play. The Ghosts are capable of beating most opposition with straight ball but use unorthodox ball handling, contortion and wisecracks to entertain the fans.

In the most hilarious thing since Abbott and Costello, the Iowa Ghosts are expected to keep the crowd in an uproar throughout the game with their remarks and comical, but professional-like plays.

During the game the Ghosts will give an exhibition of pepperball, and rowboat acts. After the game the Ghosts will give an exhibition of shadowball, which takes place without a ball, but with all the motion of a real game.

Scott, Pauly Choose Oregon
Eugene—UPI—Two ace Oregon high school athletes have picked the University of Oregon to attend next fall, school officials said today.

Gordon Scott, Astoria basketball and football ace, and Steve Pauly, Beaverton basketball and track star, said they would enroll at Oregon.

Cleveland Options Two

Baltimore, Md.—UPI—The Cleveland Indians today announced they were optioning two rookies, third basemen Gene Leek and outfielder Don Dillard, to San Diego on a 24-hour recall basis.

Cleveland, in turn, called pitcher Bud Podbielan up from San Diego where the 35-year-old hurler has a 5-0 record and a 0.82 earned run average this year.

Leek is a collegian signed off the University of Arizona campus for a reported $35,000 bonus in March.

Dillard was called up by the Indians this spring from Mobile of the Southern Association.

PROMOTES NEGRO BALL
New York—UPI—Sid Gordon, a former National league pitcher with the Giants, Pirates and Braves, will help promote Negro National league baseball at Yankee Stadium this summer. The first game will be a doubleheader between the Kansas City Monarchs and the Memphis Red Sox June 7.

Cal Dean Leads Tornado Batters With .377 Mark

Cal Dean, Ray Konopasek, George Ice, Lowell Dean and Jerry Anderson are the slugging leaders among the Medford high baseballers who have seen most duty this season over the Black Tornado's 22 games played through last Friday.

Cal Dean is the percentage leader with .377 while Konopasek follows with .365. Ice sports a .363 average. Lowell Dean is hitting .333 and Anderson .294.

Lowell and Cal share honors in runs batted in with 16 each. Konopasek heads in doubles with five and Anderson and Cal Dean each have four two-basers while Lowell has slapped four three-baggers. Anderson and Cal Dean each have two home runs.

Cal has 20 hits and Konopasek 19 to pace in that department. In individual runs scored Cal has 18 and Lowell 17.

Ken Jensen ranks third in RBIs with 11 and Anderson has 10.

Stolen bases leader is Ken Durkee with six. Dennis Barr is tops in sacrifices with five. Bob Pond has drawn the most bases on balls, 16, and Durkee has the most strikeouts, 16.

As a team the Black Tornado is batting .259. Of the 137 hits, 40 have been for extra bases with 19 doubles, 15 triples and six home runs.

Barr heads the Tornado pitching department with an 8-2 record in major games and a fine 0.834 earned run average. Seventeen runs have been charged to him for 50 1/3 innings on the hill but only six have been earned. Barr has 58 strikeouts for the season.

Medford pitchers have a combined ERA of 2.28. The Black Tornado defense has 12 double plays in the record book.

RV Golf Sweepstakes Benefits American Cancer Fund Drive

Lee Flink and Dr. Ralph Odell, Tom MacLeod, Mrs. Lou McLaughlin and Jerry Olson and Mrs. Maxine Hammond and Stoy Elliott took the honors in week end golfing activities at Rogue Valley Country club.

Flink and Odell with 755 were low gross in the Saturday and Sunday Cancer sweepstakes and MacLeod had a 68 low net.

Mrs. McLaughlin and Olson were low net with 33 and Mrs. Hammond and Elliott low gross with 41 in the Sunday three-ball six-some.

Women served as caddies for the men in the sweepstakes and for a Friday optometrist tourney and reported raising about $200 through this means and from sweepstakes entry fees for the American Cancer society fund drive. A total of 106 men took part in the ball sweepstakes.

Boals, Miller Tie
Dr. Dave Boals and Dr. William Miller knotted for second low gross score in the sweepstakes with 77s. Lloyd Pope was second low net with a 70 and Bob Hart and Jack Featherston tied with 71s. Al Williams actually had low gross with a 72 during the sweepstakes but was not competing for a prize.

Mrs. William Brooks and Bill Walker were second low net in the three-ball with 34 and Mrs. Ken McHugh and Tom MacLeod were next with 34 1/2. Mrs. Elliott and Fred Conrad had 35 1/2 and Mrs. Galen Sanner and Mahr Reymers 36.

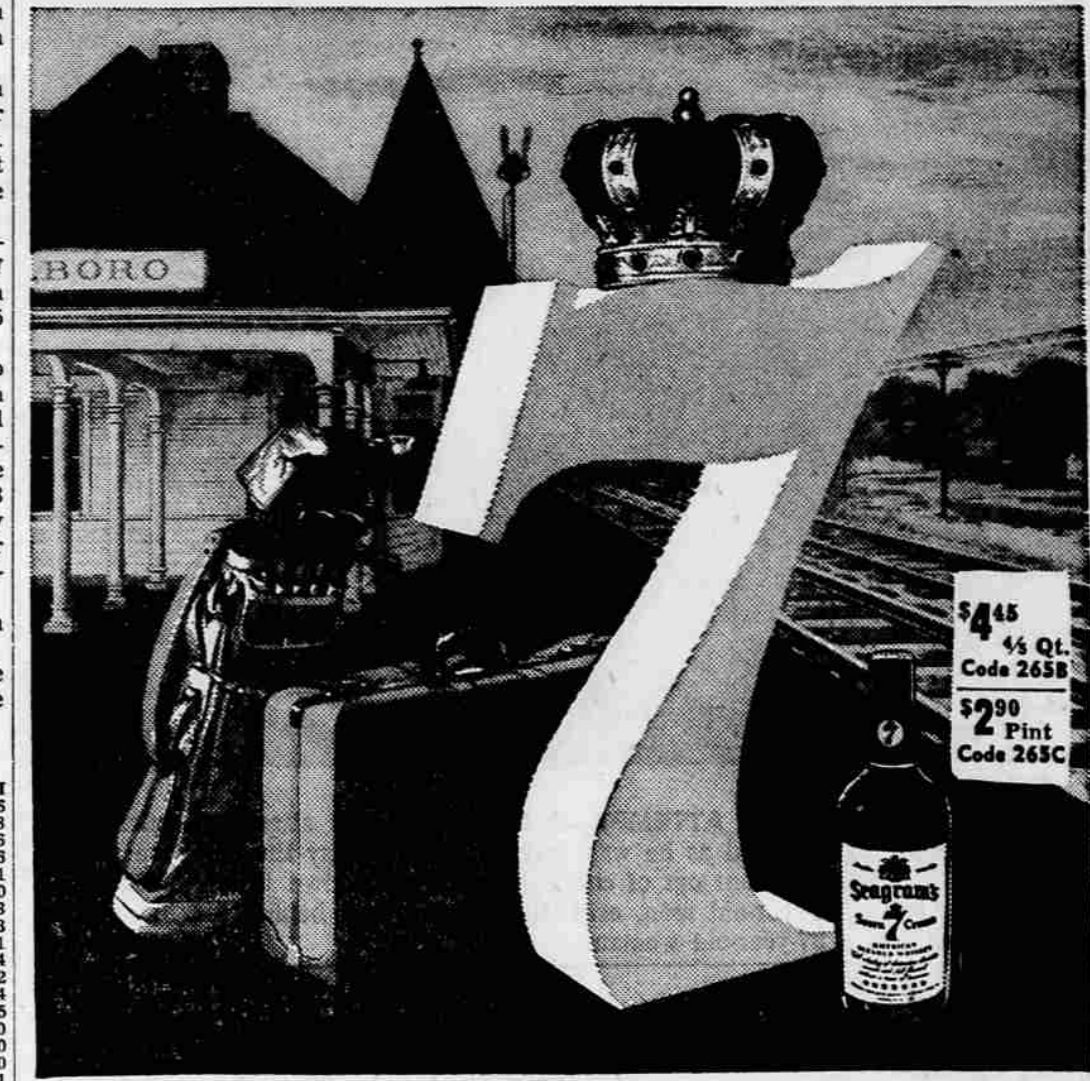

Mrs. Helen Davies and George Pearson had second gross count with 43 and Mrs. Les Schneider and Bill Cowning shot a 44.

Long drive laurels were taken by Mrs. Davies and Flink for low handicappers.

Hearn Gets His Release
Chicago—UPI—Jim Hearn, a key pitcher in the New York Giants' "miracle pennant victory" in 1951, has been given his unconditional release by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals via the $10,000 waiver route in mid-season of 1950, Hearn finished the campaign with an 11-4 record and a National League leading 2.49 earned run average. He had a 17-9 mark for the miracle Giants' the next season and won the first game of their historic playoff with the Dodgers.
