New York Yankees Hit Rock Bottom

Bronx Bombers Knocked Into Cellar First Time In 19 Years; Tigers Rise

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
You think the Yankees got troubles?
Step in a little closer, Buster, and get a load of some real misery among baseball's other unfortunates.
Like the fizzling Phillies, for example, now suffering through their worst losing streak in three years.
Or bewildered Bob Friend of Pittsburgh, with his 0-7 record. He isn't exactly cheering over that showing. Neither is Jack Harshman about his woeful 0-6 slate with Baltimore.

To quote Casey Stengel: "It sure is a sad situation." Not for everyone, though. The Cleveland Indians are clinging to their half-game lead in the American league with a 5-3 victory over Washington Wednesday night. The second-place White Sox stayed close to the Tribe with a 5-2 win over Baltimore; Detroit climbed out of the cellar for the first time this season and dumped the Yankees into it for the first time in 19 years by beating them, 13-6, and Kansas City moved into the first division with an 8-2 decision over Boston.

Lose Eight Straight
In the National league, the Cubs handed the Phillies their eighth straight loss, 7-5, the Cardinals knocked Friend out in the second inning while beating the Pirates, 11-1; the Giants snapped the Braves' six-game winning streak, 6-3, and the Reds won the second game of a two-night doubleheader, 7-5, after the Dodgers took the opener, 8-4.

Rocky Colavito and Vic Power each drove in a pair of runs to help the Indians hand the Senators their fourth straight loss.
Dick Donovan's four-hit pitching for the White Sox cooled off the Orioles, who suffered only their second loss in the last seven games.

The big story of the day, of course, was the Yankees' hitting rock bottom for the first time at this stage of the pennant race since May 25, 1940. Detroit's Frank Lary, a longtime nemesis who has beaten the Yankees 18 times in 23 tries yielded a first-inning homer to Yogi Berra and then held the world champs off until the ninth when Mickey Mantle homered and Berra connected for his second of the game.

The Tigers did a little hitting, too. They raked loser Bobby Schantz and four relievers for 19 hits, including a pair of homers by Eddie Yost, who drove in six runs.

Comets, Tornadoes Slate Single Game Friday Afternoon

Only a single game will be played Friday between the Medford and Crater High school baseball teams.
The tussle will be at 4:15 p.m. at Cheney stadium at the south edge of Medford and will be Crater's home game. A doubleheader originally was planned.
Medford already has clinched the Southern Oregon conference championship. Crater will scrap to get out of the cellar while the Black Tornado will aim to keep an un-

Girls' Golf Day Cancelled Here

The even had been slated for Rogue Valley Country club here Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23. It was to have been for girls in high schools south of Highway 20.

Unknown Leads Memphis Golf

Memphis, Tenn. — (UPI) — A star-studded field of 99 pros and 20 amateurs, led by "unknown" Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., teed off at the Colonial Country Club today in the $25,000 Memphis Open golf tournament.
Whitt, 28, who never has won a major PGA tournament, set a competitive course record in the pro-am event Wednesday with his seven-under-par 63.

NY Pitchers Threatened By Stengel

By FRED DOWN
New York — (UPI) — Casey Stengel looked up at his seven American league rivals today and reminded them: "He who laughs last, laughs the most."
A last-place manager for the first time in 19 years, Stengel also warned his battered New York Yankee pitchers, "Some of you guys better start doin' better or you won't be around here very long."

The Yankees had just tumbled into last place by a fearful, 13-6 shelling at the hands of the Detroit Tigers but there was no sign of panic by Stengel or his world champions. In fact, Stengel was as calm and collected as if he had just signed another two-year contract at $100,000 per.
"I've been there, before," he quipped when reminded the Yankees' seventh defeat in 10 games and 16th in 22 had dropped them into the cellar. "I've been fifth and I've been sixth, too."
This marked the first time since May 25, 1940, that a Yankee team was in last place and it was also the first time since Aug. 3, 1940, that any team managed by Stengel were in last place on the latter date.

"I guess this makes pretty good reading around the country," conceded Casey with a grin. "A lot of people are having a lotta fun but they better remember the fella who laughs last laughs the mostest."

Duck Trackmen Head for PCC Tiff at Seattle

Eugene — (UPI) — An 18-man University of Oregon track and field squad left here today for Seattle and the Pacific Coast conference meet Friday and Saturday where the Webfoots have some hopes of defeating mighty Southern California.

Coach Bill Bowerman said javelin thrower D. C. Mills and versatile Steve Anderson, who missed the Northern Division meet here last weekend, would be able to compete in the PCC meet. However, pole vaulter Phil Paquin is still out with an injury.

"Where we finish depends in great part on what the other teams do to split up points. We would land almost anywhere among the top group of teams," Bowerman said.
California, UCLA and Stanford are expected to give Oregon a run for the money for second place.

Oregon lost a dual meet to the Trojans earlier this season by a close margin and some observers give the Ducks a chance to pull a major upset.

Yank 9 Hears About It Early

New York — (UPI) — The Yankees began to hear about it even before they officially tumbled into the American league cellar after Thursday's 13-6 loss to the Detroit Tigers.
One wire addressed to Yankee radio and TV announcer Mel Allen arrived at Yankee Stadium during the seventh inning and read:
"How hard I rooted in the past."
"And now it's true, the Yanks are last."

Beech wood decays rapidly when exposed to air but lasts well under water. It is used extensively for piling and in the construction of dams.

Baseball Video Study Continues

Columbus, Ohio — (UPI) — Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick met here today with officials from all 16 major league clubs to discuss several items of business including the question of a policy of major league television.
It also was indicated that the proposal for a third major league would be discussed.
Frick called the meeting following Wednesday's conclusion of the two-day Major League Television Committee meeting at which "very satisfactory" progress was reported.
Although no final agreement was reached on a television policy Frick and minor league czar George M. Trautman announced jointly that considerable progress was made and a study of the situation will continue.

Colored Ghosts Play Camp White Team

An evening of mirth is anticipated tonight at the Veterans Administration domiciliary stadium at Camp White.

The Camp White semi-professional baseball team will oppose the traveling Iowa Colored Ghosts softball contingent. It will be a softball "game." Play ball time will be 8 p.m.

Ghost players have the ability to beat just about all opposition but they don't stick to straight softball too much in their barnstorming appearances. They are regarded as a talented band of funmakers "who can turn on the steam or tickle the fancy of the most staid fans."

Manager of the Ghosts is Rip Collins, one of the finest hitters in the game. Sleepy Edward and Showboat Buckner are called the "leading

Ed Machen Bout Victor

San Francisco — (UPI) — The only thing on tap today for heavyweight prospects Eddie Machen and Reuben Vargas was a rematch.
No hollering for a shot at Floyd Patterson's world crown; nobody even asking for Pete Rademacher.

Machen, 197½, won a 10-round decision over Vargas, 189½, in a nationally televised bout Wednesday night that was supposed to send one man or the other climbing up the fistic ladder. Machen had entered the bout as the fifth-ranked challenger. Vargas was unranked, but in his last bout he decimated Tony Anthony in New York.

When Wednesday night's bout was over, neither man had covered himself with glory — although there was quite a blood letting.
Referee Verne Bybee had it 98-95; judge Jack Downey, 96-94; judge Matt Zickoff, 97-95 — all for Machen. The United Press International had it for Machen 97-96.

Gene Calter Hurls Ems To Victory

United Press International
Chalk up another good pitching job in the Northwest league and this time credit it to Gene Calter of the Eugene Emeralds.

Calter twirled a nifty four-hitter Wednesday as Eugene blanked Wenatchee 5-0 to stay within 2½ games of league-leading Salem.

Eugene got all the runs it needed with a single marker in the first but added another run in the second and three more in the fifth.
Joe Sparks led the winners with three hits and two runs batted in.

Bailey Brem pitched a four-hitter Wednesday as Eugene blanked Wenatchee 5-0 to stay within 2½ games of league-leading Salem.
