

4-H Club News

Phoenix 4-H Club
During recent meetings of the Phoenix 4-H club, two cake-walks were held as a money making project.

The fund raising committee suggested future money-raising projects such as a pie social and a dance. All clubs would be invited to the dance. The treasurer's report was given by the treasurer, Jonathan Johnson. A motion was made and seconded instructing the treasurer to pay for the secretary's cards sent to announce meetings.

Club members voted to have a float in the Phoenix Fall Festival. Allen Harris was put in charge of erecting the float with the help of Ronald Willock, Spencer Buffington and Jonathan Johnson. Charles Swingle, was named chairman of a committee to select a game for the festival 4-H booth. Assisting him will be Fred Swingle, Jim Martin and James Scott. Mrs. Ed Daugherty, Mrs. Cecil Redding and Nedra Harris are to make out a working schedule. Judy Campbell, Dorothy James and Penny Simmonds were chosen to select prizes. Cooking and horse clubs presented part of the last two meetings.

Georgia-Pacific To Double Plant

Portland—UPI—Georgia-Pacific Corporation said Wednesday it planned to double its pulp and paper operation at Toledo, Ore., and also announced plans for a new pulp and paper plant at Samoa, Calif., near Eureka. President of Georgia-Pacific Paper company, H. Stuart Daniels, said work would begin at Toledo within one month. He said engineering work already is under way for the Samoa plant, which is expected to be in production early in 1962. Daniels said a second paper machine at Toledo would be in production by mid-1960. Both the new additional Toledo and the Samoa plant will utilize wood chips made from leftovers at Georgia-Pacific's plywood and lumber mills in the two areas.

Paralytic Polio Said on Upswing

Washington—UPI—The Public Health Service has warned that paralytic polio is on the upswing. The number of cases during the first four months of this year were nearly double the same period last year.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, acting surgeon general, appealed to the public to get polio shots. He pointed out that last year polio increased 45 per cent over 1957.

Dark House Not New in Florida

Tallahassee, Fla.—UPI—When the lights went out during debate in the Florida House of Representatives, Rep. Cliff Herrell asked for and received the floor.

"This isn't the first time the House has been in the dark this session," Herrell said.
