GET UP, FEET

Newark, N. J.—(UP)—Patrolman John Eames, testifying in the trial of Joseph Rinaldi, 27, charged with burglarizing a tavern, said he searched the place after the robbery and found a pair of feet protruding through boards in the cellar. "I said to the feet, 'Ge' up,'" Eames testified. "Did the feet answer?" asked Deputy Attorney General Martin J. Loftus. Through a sale of courtroom laughter, Eames replied that the feet didn't, but Rinaldi shouted: "Don't shoot, I give up."
