

Extended Geneva Sessions Seen in Russian Hints

By K. C. THALER
Geneva —UPI— The Russians seemed to have changed their minds about a short and snappy foreign ministers' conference. They appeared today to be gearing for a protracted period of difficult negotiations.

Three bits of evidence support this:

—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's sudden decision to visit Albania from May 25 to June 6.

—Khrushchev's remark to a group of Americans in Moscow that if the foreign ministers do not succeed at first they should keep trying until they do.

—A report that the Soviet delegation here had extended its contract for communications from Geneva to Moscow from June 8 to July 8.

Motives Puzzle
The motives for the apparent Soviet change of heart have puzzled Westerners. Some were disturbed at the possibility of new surprises from the Russians.

Khrushchev is understood to have been directing Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko almost step by step in the conference so far.

It was considered unlikely he would go to Albania for two weeks, where it will be more difficult to maintain this direct contact, unless he anticipated a period of wait-and-see tactics that would not produce any vital points needing his personal attention.

Reopening Oakes Case Said Unlikely

Nassau, Bahamas —UPI— Political sources said today it is extremely doubtful the nearly 16-year-old unsolved murder case of Sir Harry Oakes would be reopened.

They said this automatically would rule out any effort to recall the Duke of Windsor who was governor here when the Canadian multi-millionaire was found bludgeoned to death July 7, 1943.

The lower house of the Bahamian Legislature voted unanimously Tuesday to reopen the case but the general belief here was the upper house would not approve the decision unless concrete evidence was introduced.

The lower house acted after Cyril Stevenson, representative for Andros Island and editor of the Nassau Herald, said he had new evidence and could name the murderer.

Authorities said Stevenson had not yet introduced the evidence.

Dulles Remains in Grave Condition

Washington —UPI— John Foster Dulles remained in grave condition today at Walter Reed Army Hospital.

The State Department has made no announcement since it said Tuesday that Dulles, battling cancer and pneumonia was losing ground.

Republican and Democratic leaders Wednesday paid a moving tribute to Dulles in House floor speeches. They praised him as a "great American" who showed continued courage in shaping U.S. foreign policy decisions and negotiations.

President Eisenhower awarded Dulles the nation's highest civilian decoration — the Medal of Freedom — in gratitude for his "tireless efforts" in behalf of peace and freedom.

IWA Votes Strike If Pact Unsigned

Portland, Ore. —UPI— Members of the International Woodworkers of America have voted in favor of a strike this summer if a "satisfactory settlement" is not reached with employers.

The IWA represents about 45,000 lumberworkers in California and the Northwest. Contracts with employers expire June 1.

Harvey Nelson, chairman of the union's northwest regional negotiating committee, said Wednesday the vote was 11,209 in favor of a strike and 3,349 against. He said the vote was taken by IWA locals in Oregon, California, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

ONE GOT BY
Montgomery, Ala. —UPI— The police department reported receipt, through the U.S. mails, of a letter mailed with a green trading stamp, duly cancelled by the post office.
