

NOT FOR COFFEE
Dallas, Tex. — The newly elected president of the Gaston Junior High School PTA was a bit flustered as she attempted to remind members they should go to the school luncheon for coffee. She blurted, "Don't, anyone forget to go to the rest room."

HORN BROOK Past Matrons Meet

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — Mrs. Floyd Burns entertained the Past Matrons club of Yreka at her home here recently. Members present were from Yreka, Mesdames Mayme Moore, president of the club, Mabel Millbourn, Lucy Van Sandt, Effie Butler, Lillian Musson, Florence Marliave, Dorothy Van Orsdel, Helen Sherman, Kay Morford, Ora McGregor, Ruth Hurley, Ruby Johnson, Myrtle Lewis, Marguerite Hayden, and Margaret Walsh, Hornbrook, and Mrs. Nell Howard, Hornbrook, and Mrs. Elsie Wright, Yreka, who were guests.

All are past worthy matrons of Stella Chapter No. 39 of Yreka, except Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Johnson whose membership is in Montana, Mrs. Howard, who is a member of Aurora Chapter at Kenney, Ill., and Mrs. Walsh, who is past matron of Mistletoe Chapter in Riddle.

The evening was spent playing court whist, with Mrs. Van Orsdel holding high score, and Mrs. Wright, second high.

Mrs. Alfred Clawson left May 7 for a month's visit in the south. At Ft. Campbell, Ky., she will visit a son and daughter-in-law, and children who returned recently from three years in Germany, and in Tennessee she will visit other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Paul Greene has set Sunday, May 24, as the date on which she will present her music pupils in their annual Spring recital, which will take place at the grammar school auditorium.

Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth returned home Monday after spending Mother's Day week end at Orangevale, Calif., with her mother, Mrs. Martha Russell. All five of Mrs. Russell's daughters were with her, the first time in 25 years they had all been together at the same time.

Besides Mrs. Killingsworth, they are Mrs. Warren Sharp, who with her husband, came from Florida. Mrs. James Whetham of Tulelake, Calif., Mrs. William Ewton of Fairfield, Calif., and Mrs. Ernest Bentz and Mr. Bentz, who also live in Orangevale.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fellers of Sebastopol, Calif., called on Mrs. Mary Kurt this week. The Fellers lived here about 11 years ago when he was one of the engineers on the construction of the underpass at Bailey hill at the time Highway 99 was realigned. While here, he served as counsellor for the youth group at the Methodist church, and both were active in the Sunday school and church.

Miss Mary Lee Rutledge, a student at Chico State college, spent Mother's Day weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutledge, and her sister and brother.

The Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Titus of the Hornbrook Bible church went to Applegate, Ore., Monday, where they attended a ministers' meeting.

William Moore of Tacoma, Wash., and his son visited here recently en route to Willows, Calif., to see his brother, Wade Moore Jr. The two men are sons of the late Wade Moore Sr. who built the Sleepy Hollow motel. Sleepy Hollow, at that time, was the only auto court, and the first one in this part of the county.

Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp had as guests on Mothers' Day her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Cavin, of Hills, and another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wyatt and three children of Medford.

Bob Smith of Roseburg spent Mother's Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, here. The evening before, Mr. and Mrs. Smith attended the Trail Riders dinner at Spring Flat camp on the Scott river, then were overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Newton Sr. at their cabin on the Scott river. Other guests were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Newton Jr. On Mother's Day, they were dinner guests of Mrs. Smith's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Burton, at Quartz Valley, near Ft. Jones.

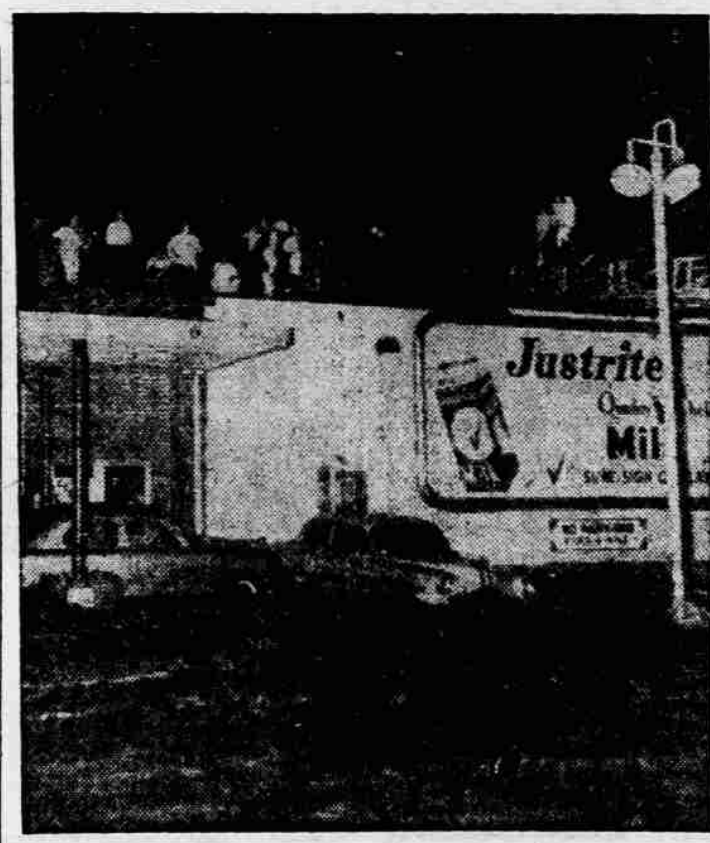

Mrs. Lawrence Lemos, Mrs. Al Kurtkey, Mrs. A. A. Protsman, Mrs. Ethel White, and Mrs. Wayne Cummins were among the mothers from here who attended the Mother's Day tea at Yreka High school May 12. The theme for this year's tea was Hawaiian Holiday. Clothing modeled in the style show were articles made by members of the home economics classes, and the cupcakes served as refreshments were made and decorated by the cooking classes.

The Women's Society of the Methodist church held their regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Brautlacht. Members present were the president, Mrs. Helen Clawson, Mrs. Ardon Burns, Mrs. Wayne Cummins, Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp, Mrs. Bertha Bradley, Mrs. Clara Howard, Mrs. Ivon Howard and Mrs. Harry Chapman.

Two who attended as guests, Mrs. Effie Bradford and Mrs. William Wiley, later became members of the organization. The monthly night dinner, originally planned for May 27, has been postponed, as that is the night of the local grammar school graduation exercises. The next meeting of the group will be held Thursday, May 28, with Mrs. William Wiley as hostess.

Mother's Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elmore were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cano, and Clinton Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams, all of Corning, Calif.

A group of long-time friends gathered here Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon and daughter, Patty, for a delayed observance of Mrs. MacKinnon's birthday. Coming from the Big Springs area were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weddie and two children from Little Shasta;

FLOOD RESCUE—A fire department aerial ladder is used to rescue persons stranded on top of a supermarket building by a flash flood in St. Joseph, Mo. Cars below were swept against the wall by the swiftly flowing water. At least one man is known to have been drowned.

Quotes From the News

By United Press International
Washington — The AFL-CIO executive council, announcing it would fight against House passage of the Senate-approved labor reform bill:
"We intend to wage a vigorous battle in the House to secure proper and necessary legislation which would aid labor and management in the fight against corruption."

Washington — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), saying he will neither support nor oppose Senate confirmation of Lewis L. Strauss' nomination as secretary of commerce:
"The confirmation of any man should be based on each senator's judgment of that man's qualifications. I seek to speak for no one but myself."

Washington — The FBI, in a statement on its investigation of the Poplarville, Miss., lynching:
"There is no basis in fact for the allegations of improper conduct and harassment of local citizens which have been made against the FBI agents investigating the Mack Charles Parker case in Poplarville, Miss."

Swannanoa, N. C. — Patricia Dennis, 21, a coed at Warren Wilson College, after critically battering former roommate Rosa Watterson, 20, with a hatchet:
"I know what I've done, and I'm going to pay for it. Whatever the court says."

Indianapolis — The Rev. Arthur Miller, newly elected moderator of the United Presbyterian church in the U.S.A., saying "reconciliation" is the greatest challenge to the church today:
"Divorce, juvenile delinquency and home problems are more acute. We need to help people understand each other, parents and children, different cultures . . . nations."

Duluth, Minn. — Tom O'Heir, head of the Duluth Crime Prevention Bureau, discussing regulations to keep teen-agers, mostly girls, from swarming aboard European ships sailing through the St. Lawrence Seaway:
"They're just romantic kids who want some foreign lovin'. We want to catch this in the bud before an international incident develops."

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Hodge and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zediker and three children. The MacKinnons made their home in Big Springs for several years before moving to Hornbrook last year. Mrs. Weddie was Patty MacKinnon's teacher there.

The Little League dinner held at the Grange hall last Friday evening drew a good crowd, which made a free-will offering to the treasury of the Little Leaguers. After the dinner, Rudy Escatel entertained with his rock 'n roll song-and-dance routine, and later the young people danced while the others played games.

Because of the continued rainy weather, the team has been unable to get in sufficient practice games for Manager George Brautlacht to assign the team members to their positions. It was hoped they would be able to get in enough practice over the week end that this could be done before their first game, which was scheduled Monday night at Montague.

Graveside services were held here Saturday for Mrs. Alpha Dugan, 69, who died at Oakland, Calif., where she had been living.

Mrs. Dugan was the youngest of the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Day, who operated a restaurant here early in the century. Her brother, Will Day, preceded her in death last year.

Here for the services were her sisters, Mrs. Charles Tovee, of Chico, Calif., and Mrs. Matie Kiernan, of Long
