
BUILD ALTAR – William S. Ferris, superintendent of Memory Gardens Memorial park, 1395 Arnold lane, Medford, is shown constructing an altar in which will be placed a plaque commemorating veterans who have lost their lives in wars. The plaque will be dedicated Memorial Day by the Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary. The altar is located just inside the entrance. –(Brainerd's photo).

Oregon Industries Set Portland Meeting

Portland—The Associated Oregon Industries, a statewide organization of business and industrial firms, will hold its annual meeting June 2 in Portland.

Howell Appling Jr., secretary of state, will be principle speaker at the opening luncheon. Walker L. Cisler, president and director of Detroit Edison company will speak at the Tuesday night banquet.

Local Students Are Admitted to School

Portland — Two students from Medford have been accepted for admission to the University of Oregon medical school and will begin their studies next September, according to Mrs. Caroline Pommarane, registrar.

They are Joseph G. Antony, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Antony, 401 South Modoc ave., and George A. Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Goodman, 212 Valley View dr.

Antony received his premedical education at the University of Oregon, and Goodman studied at Southern Oregon college.

Education for a doctor in general practice consists of three or four years of college, four years of medical school, and a year of internship.

Elk Lumber Company Awards Six More Scholarships in Area

Six additional young people from southern Oregon have been awarded $300 freshman scholarships by Elk Lumber company, Medford, company officials have announced. The scholarships are to Willamette university and Lewis and Clark college.

Receiving scholarships to Willamette university are Wesley Gregg Monroe, Ashland; Rosemary Doolen, Medford; and Judith Nan Cook, Grants Pass. Lewis and Clark college scholarships winners are Susan Julier, Lakeview; Sandra Lee Clark, Medford, and John Collins Flanagan, Medford.

Scholarship winners are selected by the Elk Scholarship committee, which is composed of Riley Cook, chairman; Frank VanDyke; Dr. D. Kirkland West; Dr. George G. Roseberry; the Rev. George Bolster, and Mrs. George C. Flanagan, secretary.

Completes One Year

Wesley Monroe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alvin Monroe, 443 Allison st., Ashland. He has completed one year at Southern Oregon college.

Young Monroe is a member of the Ashland Methodist church, and has been recommended by the church for a license as a local preacher in the Methodist denomination. He plans to continue his education to enter the Methodist ministry.

During his high school years, he served in the Methodist Youth Fellowship as president and program area chairman, and as vice president of the Rogue Valley sub-district. Since October, 1958, he has assisted in the morning worship of the Ashland church.

Miss Doolen is the daughter of Mrs. Horace Marion Doolen, 612 West Second st., Medford. She is a member of the First Methodist church of Medford, where she has served as president of the Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship, citizenship chairman, and for three years as pianist. She is a member and soloist of the youth choir of the church.

Her high school activities have included the female lead in the operettas "Carousel" and "Brigadoon." She has also sung the madrigal group and has been a member of the Friendship club and Girls' League. She served as chairman of the Teens Against Drive.

Served as Pianist

Miss Cook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Whittier Cook, 933 Wesley lane, Grants Pass. She is a member of Newman Methodist church where she has served as pianist, as faith chairman in the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and in the nursery during adult Bible classes.

Her school activities have included membership in French club, Pep club, "A" band, National Honor Society, Girls League, of which she was president in her senior year, Future Teachers of America, of which she was secretary; and she was chairman of the senior ball. She received a scholarship trophy at Girls state, and was chaplain of Job's Daughters.

Miss Julier is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wayne Julier of Gold Beach. She is a members of the Presbyterian church of Lakeview, where she has served as church school teacher, substitute organist, president and secretary of the Westminster Fellowship, and as counselor at both junior and senior high summer camps.

Her school activities have included membership in Girls Athletic association, Thespians, Pep Band of which she was secretary, and Honor Society.

Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Clark, 2118 Dellwood ave., Medford. She is a member of the newly-formed Westminster Presbyterian church of Medford. During her high school years she has been an active member of the Westminster Fellowship of First Presbyterian church of Medford, where she sang in the choir, served as witness chairman and as stated clerk, and as an assistant in the Vacation Church school.

Her high school activities have included service as chairman of Teens Against Polio, historian in the Future Homemakers of America, chaplain in the Tri-Hi-Y; participation in Student Government Day as assistant superintendent of schools; participation in choir and History-Economics-Civics association.

John Flanagan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Flanagan, box 606, Medford. He is a member of the First Presbyterian church of Medford, and has served in its youth gr up as a member of the choir and as Outreach chairman. His high school activities have included participation in Latin club, Science club, and the "Goofers," of which he was secretary-treasurer. He was a member of the cast of the school play "Brigadoon." He has been awarded "Honors at Entrance" from Lewis and Clark college.

Deadline Nears to Apply for Academy

Washington, D.C.—Men in Oregon's fourth congressional district interested in applying for a service academy appointment must take at least one of the civil service examinations which are offered twice yearly, Congressman Charles O. Porter has announced.

Application deadline for the July examination is June 8, he said.

Porter said he would name one candidate and five alternates to the Naval academy, one principal and 10 alternate appointments to the Air Force academy, and 10 nominations to the Merchant Marine academy. There are no fourth district vacancies to be filled at West Point this time, he added.

Letters of application should be addressed to Porter, room 252, House Office building, Washington 25, D.C., to arrive on or before June 8.
