

Busy May Time

The affairs of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs will be carried on the coming year mainly by these six women, elected to office during the 1959 convention held last week end in Medford. Pictured following the closing event Sunday morning, a breakfast at Hedrick Junior High school, are (front row, left to right) Mrs. Lucille Norton, Eugene, second vice-president; Miss Mildred Yetter, Salem, president; Mrs. Marjorie Blizzard, Oswego-Lakegrove; (back row, left to right) Mrs. Jeanne Greene, The Dalles, treasurer; Mrs. Joanna Sjogren, Oswego-Lakegrove, recording secretary, and Miss Betty Eloffson, Salem, corresponding secretary. Salem was chosen for the 1960 convention.
