

Yogi Berra Stimulates Optimism

By JOE SARGIS
New York—Yogi Berra's "Casey Stengel's smilin' again" — and it's no coincidence that Yogi Berra's hittin' again.

Although still a last-place manager, Casey indicated his New York Yankees appear to be coming out of their slump and he singled out Berra as the man who has done the most to stimulate his optimism.

"We're looking better," Stengel said, "because Berra is hittin'." And the way he's been goin' lately, he can't go up there without missing."

Translated into everyday English, what Casey meant is that Berra has been clicking along at a .328 clip in the last 14 games, with 12 runs batted in and all of his five homers in that span.

Even the news that he may have to do without two of his star pitchers — Whitey Ford and Don Larsen — failed to dampen the old manager's spirit, because he has been saying all along that what has hurt the team the most has been its lack of hitting.

Larsen and Ford, whose week end victories over Baltimore helped stop the team's skid, came out of the split with the Orioles with minor ailments, which may or may not prevent them from taking their next regular turns.

Larsen, the team's top pitcher with a 4-0 record, has a sore arm of sorts while Ford, who pitched a neat twofitter in Sunday's first game victory over Baltimore, has a pulled muscle in his left thigh.

Pittsburgh Pirates Back in Race After Victories Over Redlegs; Cleveland Leading by Full Game

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Don't look now but the Pittsburgh Pirates are back in the National League pennant race.

They're in third place only four games out of first place—their exact position a year ago after 38 games when they were shaping up as the league's surprise contender.

The Pirates lost five straight to start this season but they've made up all the list time thanks to a five-game winning streak that started May 20—the day after manager Danny Murtaugh issued a win-or-else ultimatum.

The Pirates completed a quick jump from sixth to third place Sunday when they beat the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, and 5-4 in 10 innings. They won both games in the last inning — the opener on Danny Kravitz' ninth inning double and the nightcap on a 10th inning double by Smoky Burgess.

The second place San Francisco Giants also picked up ground on front-running Milwaukee by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-1. The Braves beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-3, after losing their opener to ex-teenmate Gene Conley, 6-0. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago Cubs, 7-3.

The Cleveland Indians widened their American League lead to one full game with a split of a double-header with the Detroit Tigers, winning, 3-2, and losing, 6-3. The Kansas City Athletics downed the Chicago White Sox, 8-6. The Baltimore Orioles shaded the New York Yankees, 2-1, after losing the first game, 9-0. The Washington Senators routed the Boston Red Sox, 8-3.

The Pirates rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth of the opener to give Nor Kline his fourth victory. The tying run scored on pinch-hitter Ted Kluszewski's fielder's choice and Kravitz followed with the game-winning double off Brooks Lawner. Rocky Nelson tied the nightcap with a two-run homer in the ninth and Burgess' 10th inning double enabled Nor Blackburn to gain his first win. Bob Purkey was the loser.

Jack Sanford posted his sixth victory for the Giants who blasted 12 hits including homers by Orlando Cepeda, Bobby Thomson and Willie Mays.

Sanford struck out three and walked three and yielded the only Los Angeles run in the fifth inning when Duke Snider doubled home Bob Lillis. Conley Collars Aaron Conley, pitched away by the Braves, traded a six-hitter and struck out five in the first game but the NL champions came back with a ninth-inning attack in the second game to earn a split. Hank Aaron went for an 0-for-4 collar in the first game but had four hits and drove in three runs in the nightcap to raise his average to .461. Carlton Willey went the distance for the Braves' victory.

The Cardinals swept to their seventh win in eight games as Lindy McDaniel shut out the Cubs on three hits for the last 4 2/3 innings. A two-run double by Ken Boyer and a triple by Lee Tater were the big blows of the Cardinals' 13-hit assault on four Chicago pitchers.

Granny Hamner's ninth-inning single enabled Cleveland's Herb Score to win his fifth game but Harvey Kuenn's three hits and a two-run double by Charlie Maxwell earned Detroit a split. Score struck out 10 Tigers in the opener and Frank Lary fanned seven Indians in the nightcap.

The Athletics pounded Billy Pierce for seven runs in 1 2/3 innings and beat the White Sox for the second straight time as Ray Herbert staggered the distance for his fourth win. Hector Lopez drove in four runs and Bob Cerv knocked in three to lead Kansas City's 15-hit attack. Sherman Lollar hit his sixth homer for the White Sox.

Red Sox for the last 3 1/3 innings. Jerry Casale was the loser.

The Eugene Emeralds could get only eight runs in four games with Salem, but they were enough to dump the Senators three times and take over first place in the Northwest league.

After losing, 3-2, Friday night, Eugene pulled off a 2-1 victory Saturday night and two 2-0 shutouts Sunday to go five percentage points ahead of the deposed Salemites.

Christie Qualifies With Sunday's Best

By KURT FREUDENTHAL
Indianapolis — (UPI) — Cold weather and tricky winds were blamed today for a slower field, but the 33 qualifiers for Saturday's 500-mile Memorial Day auto race will have the best equipment in the 43-year history of the event.

Race officials and rail-birds agreed that dangerous crosswinds and temperatures too cold for the sensitive engines held down speeds during qualifications.

The field, however, still included 14 new cars and five rookies. The field's average speed for the 10-mile test of 143,003 mph was nearly 1/2 mile slower than last year's record 143,445.

Fifteen cars made their tryout runs in 28 qualifying attempts on the final day Sunday before about 50,000 fans, but two of the cars were "bumped" by faster qualifiers and three others also failed to make the starting lineup because they were too slow.

Bob Christie of Grants Pass, Ore., the slowest qualifier in last year's race, was the fastest Sunday at 143,224 mph.

However, nine cars were qualified at speeds slower than Christie's 142,253 in 1958, including that of defending 500 champion Jimmy Bryan.

Only eight of the 22 drivers who completed last year and made it again were faster this time, including the entire first row, composed of pole sitter Johnny Thomson, Eddie Sachs and Jim Rathmann, who will also be among the race favorites.

Bryan, along with 1958 race winner Pat Flaherty and national driving champion Tony Bettenhausen, qualified Saturday. Flaherty is on a comeback trail and Bettenhausen was Saturday's top qualifier at 142,721 mph.

The newcomers in the field included Bobby Grim, Don Branson, Chuck Arnold, Red Amick, and Jim McWhitney, the slowest qualifier at 141,215 mph.

New cars qualified Sunday by Mike Magill and Ray Crawford bumped those of Rex Easton and Ralph Liguori. The latter put the only foreign

New York — (UPI) — Heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson has returned to training at Grossinger, N.Y., but without sparring partner Charley Norkus. Johansson said Charley was "out of condition," but others at the camp suspected him of being a "feeler-out" for champion Floyd Patterson.

Edvin Ahlqvist, Johansson's "advisor," flew back to Sweden Saturday night under an assumed name in order to evade process servers in connection with Eddie Machen's suit for a return bout with Ingemar.

Official End Put To Coast Circuit

Seattle — (UPI) — Athletic directors and faculty representatives of the nine Pacific Coast conference schools put an official ribbon around 44 years of athletic history here Sunday.

They met for just 45 minutes to simply reaffirm what had been decided earlier, to disband the PCC and settle some of the "clean up" matters of dissolution.

We'll go our "several ways retaining the warm personal friendship we have for each other and with a sincere hope that the future will present many opportunities for the institutions we represent to engage in friendly athletic competition," they said in a unanimous passed resolution.

A board of trustees was appointed to decide on the West Coast representative in the 1960 Rose Bowl game. All of the member schools except California and Southern California are eligible for the holiday game. Cal is ineligible under the "no-repeater" clause and USC because of an NCAA probation.

The meeting also directed that Washington will represent the PCC in the NCAA regional baseball playoffs here June 5-6, regardless of the outcome between Washington and USC in a PCC playoff at Los Angeles next week end, because of SC's ineligibility.
