

Dance Recital Planned Tonight

Students of the Colleen Hope Dance studio will present the first of two spring dance recitals at the Craterian theater tonight.

This first program will feature dances by kindergarten and tiny tot dance classes, and the full-length ballet "La Boutique Fantasque." This ballet was first performed as part of a concert given by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon earlier this month.

Frank Buchter plays the part of the elderly toy shop proprietor who demonstrates his toys to prospective customers, only to have them come to life and battle with him. He finally agrees not to sell the toys, and harmony is restored to the shop. Miss Hope's students dance the roles of the various toys.

The Craterian theater will also show the full length movie, "Green Mansions." The doors will open at 7 p.m.

Women Receive Auxiliary Offices

Mrs. E. W. Pease, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Fred Scherer and Mrs. Lee Willits were in Roseburg recently to attend the 39th annual meeting of the Oregon Association of Ladies' auxiliary to the Patriarchs Militant. The latter is an advanced degree of the IOOF lodge.

Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Willits received appointments as grand officers in the auxiliary.

The auxiliary to Siskiyou canton, Patriarchs Militant, plans a rummage sale June 3 to help purchase a hospital bed for the IOOF home.

Peach Accent

Baked or broiled cling peach halves add a delicious extra to serve with the meat course. Sprinkle well drained peaches with your favorite spice and a little brown sugar; or fill with catsup or chili sauce; a dash of vinegar or lemon juice in a cup of peach, and a sprinkling of finely crumbled herbs is also a good treatment.

Serve elegant avocado half-shells filled with cooked shrimp and topped with a sour cream salad dressing for a salad luncheon or as first course for dinner. Season the sour cream with wine vinegar, a little prepared mustard, salt and pepper.

Pears and Wine

Pears and Rose wine are fine together. Served chilled canned pears with a light grating of lemon peel and some of the syrup from the fruit blended with California Rose.

Century of Song, Style Is Theme of Guild Show

"A Century of Songs and Style" was the theme of the annual Tudor guild benefit party held last Friday at Rogue Valley Country club. Funds raised went to the building fund of the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland.

Mrs. Martel Peters of Ashland produced the program. Opening with "Long, Long Ago," Mrs. Peters and her troupe took the guests on a quick song and dance trip from pioneer days of the west through two world wars, the Roaring Twenties and the Sentimental Thirties and ending with "rock and roll."

A quartet composed of Otis Swisher, Carroll Graber, John Drysdale and Ronald Bartlett sang, and Mr. Swisher also sang duet snatches with Mrs. Peters, Miss Dale Nesheim, Central Point, danced the Charleston, and models depicting various periods were Mrs. William Patton, Miss Pat Green and Miss Sharon Brownson, all Ashland.

The rock and roll singing and dancing was by The Shadows, five students from St. Mary's school who entertain at many functions.

Modeling old-fashioned clothing were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lane (Mr. Lane is known as Mr. Ashland), Mrs. Ned Mars, Mrs. Grace Laidlaw, Mrs. Alice Applegate Peil and Mrs. Lorena McNeill. Mrs. Norman Beebe served as accompanist, and Russ Jamison was master of ceremonies.

Guild members and their children were models for the show, and Mrs. William Daw-

Horse Show Winners Announced

A number of riders from the Medford area took part in the recent fourth annual southern Oregon spring horse show at Grants Pass, which attracted about 600 participants and spectators. It is reported that 230 entrants took part in the 20 events. The show was sponsored by the Southern Oregon Horse Show committee, of which Loyd F. Silva is president.

The committee is making an effort to promote breed classes, and for this show included a class for every breed of horse. A class for Welsh ponies was offered and filled, the first time this has been accomplished in Oregon, the committee believes.

In the children's pony and western pleasure class, Danny Fowler, Medford, riding Comanche, placed third. Lowell Fowler, Ashland, on Sham, placed fifth in the reining stock horse event.

Mrs. Robert A. Gennings placed first in the parade horse class, her mount being Denmark's Governor. Medford riders also took second and third in this. Marilyn Brewd, riding Beau's Belle, owned by Miss Janet Young, was second, and Miss Barbara Read, on Talisman, was third. This horse is also owned by Miss Young.

In the Shetland pony roadster class, H. J. Cummings, Medford, and Mrs. Don Erickson, Medford, took fourth and fifth.

Miss Young, riding Mr. Chips, placed third in the English-gaited open class.

All the winners in the Appaloosa, Indian costume, event were from Medford. They were Cal Briley, riding Modoc Rose and Modoc Duke, F. C. McDowell, riding Three Finger Jack and Leland Coggins, riding Modoc Sue and Aquila Tucson.

Mrs. Gennings was second in the five-gaited horse class, riding Denmark's Governor, and Miss Young, riding Pride of Carnation, was third.

Sandra Cast, riding All Y'All, took third in the western pleasure class for quarter horses. In the class for palominos, Miss Young was fourth, riding Beau's Belle, and Miss Read was fifth, riding Arabi's Image.

In the Welsh pony driving class, D. E. McClurg, Phoenix, was fourth with Silver Star's Mr. Fanny.

Paul B. Adams, riding an Arabian, Na-Abi, owned by Miss Sue Anne Rutherford, Medford, was judged third.

Mrs. Larson was elected president for the coming year; Mrs. Guy Hanley, vice president; Mrs. Earl Brooks, secretary; and Mrs. Camron Parr, treasurer.

They will be installed by Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, June 9 at the home of Mrs. Paul Hughes. Mrs. Nichol is chairman of the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs.

Card tables were decorated to represent the 12 months of the year and dessert of decorated birthday cakes was served.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Bellah, Mrs. L. L. Krepps, Mrs. Parr and Mrs. Harold Weed.

Washington—A family of four eating a total of 100 dinners in 25 days needs 40 pounds of frozen vegetables in order to give each member two generous three-ounce servings daily, says the National Association of Frozen Food Packers. Fresh vegetables for the same family during the same period would weigh between 50 and 66 pounds before sorting and cleaning.

Century of Flowers Theme Of Annual Ashland Show

Ashland—"A Century of Flowers" was the theme for the spring flower show held by Ashland Garden club held recently in the Women's Civic clubhouse on Winburn Way.

Mrs. E. A. Harris was general chairman for the non-competitive show, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Mathes, incoming president.

To set the Centennial theme a section of old split rail fence from Summit ranch on the Greensprings stood in front of the building. It was reconstructed by members of the Men's Garden club. On the stage of the clubhouse stood a real covered wagon, a quarter life size, drawn by two oxen. In it were a pioneer couple and baby accompanied by an outrider on a pony, all made of paper mache.

The display was the work of Mrs. Eunice Neill's third grade pupils, and the prairie backdrop was painted by Mrs. Stephen Bayless' sixth grade room, both of Walker school. The effect was completed with the addition of natural greenery and rocks.

In spite of a rainy day the show was overflowing with flowers of all kinds and many people viewed the exhibits. In addition to the many club entries, many townspeople responded to the invitation to participate.

Antique Containers
A large section of arrangements and specimens were displayed in antique containers ranging from pink Nevada desert cactus in an old iron kettle to dainty old-fashioned bouquets in cut glass and fine china. Several of the containers were a century old. Many antiques were also loaned for the exhibit.

An especially interesting feature was the large native wildflower display by Mrs. Richard Westerfield, retiring president. It contained dozens of rooted, blooming plants in a natural setting of soil, grass, moss and rocks. Each plant was labeled with both the common and botanical name. Some were also identified as according to their use by the Indians and pioneers for food and medicine. The specimens were freshly dug from the Greensprings and Ashland area.

Mrs. Jere Girard had a conservation display featuring a woodland scene complete with stream, animals and a forest of tiny live fir trees.

It is predominated in the flowers shown with four large collections on display by Mrs. W. D. Jackson, Mrs. E. A. Harris, Foster Gardens of Talent and Mrs. O. V. Poe, Phoenix. Other guest exhibitors were Phoenix Garden club, Ashland Men's Garden club, Southern Oregon Iris society and Roy Arthur of the Medford Rose society.

Tea was served from a table centered with pink carnations and snapdragons. Mrs. Daisy Savage and Mrs. Don Whitney were co-chairmen of the service. The Chelsea coffee server used had been in Mrs. Whitney's family for 150 years.

Officers Pour
Among those pouring were Mrs. R. T. Nichol and Mrs. Ira D. Fitzgerald, Medford, present and past Siskiyou district directors respectively.

Hostesses in Centennial dress were on hand throughout the day to greet visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lane, lifelong Ashland residents, also served as official hosts, and wore their old time clothes.

Mrs. Chester Squire and Mrs. Bill Sampson were co-chairmen of the staging. Other chairmen included: Hostesses, Mrs. W. H. Davis; entry, Mrs. J. M. Ottinger; kitchen, Mrs. C. M. Bailey; art work, Mrs. Ralph Sikes; plant sale, Mrs. W. K. Harnden; prizes, Mrs. I. R. Barksdale; guest book, Mrs. Charles McCalmon; cleanup, Mrs. Roy Hays.

Ice Cream Crown
New York—An ice cream crown makes a good dessert for a children's party. Place a big round cookie on each plate, topped with a scoop of pink or white ice cream for a head. Stick on candies for eyes, nose and mouth. Finish with an inverted ice cream cone hat with cherry pom-pom. Make a ruff around the clown's neck with cookie frosting or whipped cream.

Low Echo To Open On July 5
Girl Scout Camp Low Echo, at Lake of the Woods, will be in session from July 5 to August 14, and registrations are being accepted at the Girl Scout office in Medford.

The camp will offer a variety of crafts and skills including clay modeling, sketching, basketry, nature prints, archery, swimming, boating, canoeing. Each girl will be given a chance to show her own individual creativity, and to learn appreciation of the simple hand arts, it is stated. There will be time allowed for nature walks, and hikes, with a hike to Lake Harriette for eighth graders and the Mt. McLoughlin climb for those of high school age. Cookouts and "overnights" are planned for each unit, and a pack trip for the Pioneer Unit. Girls eligible for the Pioneer unit must be 14 or 15, or going into the ninth grade in the fall. This unit is in its third year, and will accommodate 16 girls each session, beginning the second session, July 13. Primitive camping, cooking two meals a day on altar fireplaces, sleeping under the stars, swimming, boating, hiking, is their way of life.

Included in the program for each session are an evening hay ride and a picnic. Singing is a large part of camp, being enjoyed on any and all occasions. Campfire programs are held each evening, some in the unit and some for the whole camp.

Life at camp is busy, but there is no pressure, according to staff members. In general, each unit conducts its own program and only those activities involving use of general staff or equipment are scheduled. There is swimming twice a day, morning instruction and free swim in the afternoon, and boating. Dramatics and archery are planned for those old enough.

Lodge Members Attend Session
Jacksonville—Mrs. Jack McDaniels, Mrs. Esther Norman and Mrs. William Campbell, members of Ruth Rebekah lodge, Jacksonville, attended the 22nd annual session of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon held in Roseburg.
