Grim Leading Candidate For Rookie of Year in Indianapolis 500 Race

Indianapolis—UPI—Starters for Saturday's 43rd annual 500-mile Speedway race had their last chance today to test their cars before the big Memorial Day classic. Qualifiers were given a four-hour period, noon to 4 p.m. to iron out the kinks of the racers.

By KURT FRUEDENTHAL
Indianapolis—UPI—Curly-haired Bobby Grim today established himself as a top candidate for "rookie of the year" honors at the Indianapolis Speedway, although a short time ago he wasn't sure he would have a ride in Saturday's 500-mile race.

Car owners are generally reluctant to turn over an expensive roadster to a newcomer—especially if he has been racing mostly on dirt tracks.

But the 34-year-old hometown hero talked Terre Haute sportsman Chapman Root into giving him a driver's test when the speedway opened for practice May 1, and the rookie passed the exam with flying colors.

Drove 700 Miles
"I never ran much on pavement and a lot of dirt track drivers can't get the job done here," said Grim. "I would not have blamed him (Root) if he had turned me down."

Grim estimates he drove nearly 700 miles in practice before he took his test hop. He never got into trouble.

Aerial Leap In Auto Show

Ashland—One of the most thrilling of the 28 maneuvers which the International Auto Daredevils will perform at the Ashland Speedway on Thursday night at 8 p.m. is the famed aerial leap.

A standard 1959 truck soars over 70 feet, through the air from one ramp to another while a standard two-door hardtop model crisscrosses underneath in the exacting demonstration.

It was an aerial leap similar to that which killed the great "Lucky" Teeter, one of the first of the stunt drivers, at Indianapolis in 1942. While all of the Auto Daredevil stunts are dangerous, the skill of the drivers, the exactness of the preparations and the sturdy construction of the vehicles used have combined to prevent fatalities so far for the Auto Daredevils during their 18 years of giving shows across the nation.

Proceeds will go to the Ashland High school band for its trip to the Portland Rose festival.

Cirino Slated For Phil Moyer

Portland—UPI—Phil Moyer, who lost a recent televised fight to Yama Bahama, will meet Chico Cirino, a Puerto Rican now fighting out of San Francisco here next Tuesday night in a 10-round bout.

Freeway Bridge Traffic Detoured

Salem—UPI—Southbound traffic on the Salem-Albany freeway will be detoured at the Santiam river crossing for three weeks starting today while the new bridge is being painted, the State Highway Department announced.

Southbound traffic will be rerouted over the older Santiam bridge which now serves north-bound traffic, making two-way traffic necessary.

USSERY TIES ARCARO

New York—UPI—Bobby Ussery tied Eddie Arcaro for riding leadership at Belmont Park Tuesday by booting home four winners. Ussery raised his meet total to 21 as he scored with Pantene, in a record-tying 1:22 4/5 for seven furlongs on Truf, Hannibal Girl, Tea Dansant and Mad Streak.

TRI-CITY SHAKY

Portland—UPI—The Portland Beavers have recalled infielder Gilberto Valentín, optioned to Tri-City of the Northwest league and sent him to Albany of the Eastern league. Bill Sayles, assistant general manager of the Beavers, said he is subject to recall on 24 hours notice.

CARDS SIGN BROTHERS

St. Louis—UPI—The St. Louis Cardinals have signed the Waite brothers of Wagarville, Ala. to minor league contracts. Dennis, a first baseman, will play with Daytona Beach of the Florida State league, while Powell, an outfielder, will see action with the Wytheville, Va., of the Appalachian league.

Stigman Tosses 10 2/3 Cantos Without Yielding Hit; Reliever Given Win

By DON BECKER
United Press International
You weren't the only one, Mr. Harvey Haddix.

Dick Stigman of the San Diego Padres tossed 10 2/3 innings of hitless and runless ball Tuesday night against the Salt Lake City Bees and didn't get credit for a victory.

The 1-0 win went to San Diego's Pete Wojcik who came on in relief in the 13th inning.

Kenny Toothman lined a single to center for the first blow off Stigman, a 25-year-old left-hander. Stigman, who had a 15-7 mark for Mobile last season, retired after the 12th inning. The Padres pushed over their winning run in the 15th.

Also up against a bit of fierce luck Tuesday night was Salt Lake's Dick Hall. He tossed 13 innings of shutout ball, darn near enough to win a couple of games. Hall has thrown three shutouts so far this season, all in seven-inning affairs. The loss went to Ed Bauta who relieved in the 14th.

Other Action

Other PCL action saw Sacramento maintain its two and a half game lead by scoring an 8-7 win over Phoenix in the 12th inning. Vancouver squeaked past Spokane 5-4 and rain caused postponement of the Seattle-Portland contest.

San Diego broke up the 15 inning deadlock when Ken Retzer led off with a single. Dick Smith ran for him and Billy Hunter sacrificed Smith to second. Then, following a pair of walks, Bill Moran dropped a perfect squeeze bunt to end the fray.

Clayton Dalrymple lofted a sacrifice fly to give Sacramento its 12th inning win. The Solon shortstop's game winning blow scored Mitt Smith who led off the inning with a double and later moved to third. Terry Fox, who came into pitch in the seventh inning, racked up his fourth win without a loss.

Outdoor Trial Brings Acquittal

Hermiston—UPI—A Justice Court jury returned a verdict of innocent Tuesday evening in the outdoor trial of Hubert R. Ramsey, 52, Hermiston, who had been charged with holding game birds without a state permit.

The open-air trial, first of its kind in more than 100 years here, was held on a lawn outside the courthouse.

Judge Don E. Hurrell said earlier his courtroom, 13-by-14 feet, was inadequate for a jury trial and announced plans to conduct the proceedings outside if the weather was nice.

About 100 spectators watched the trial in bright sunshine. The jury deliberated one hour and five minutes and returned the innocent verdict about 5:20 p.m.

Rain Puts Off Playoff Fray

Tigard—UPI—Rain Tuesday washed out the Tigard-Central Catholic class A-1 quarterfinal baseball playoff. The two teams were to play today, weather permitting.
