California Couple Married In Catholic Church Rites

Yreka-Miss Mary Patricia Dall became the bride of Norman Carol Cooley in a ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 2, in St. Joseph's Catholic church, with the Rev. Robert Connolly officiating. The altar was banked with baskets of white stock and pink snapdragons.

Vows were exchanged by the Yreka couple at 2 o'clock in the presence of approximately 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay L. Dall, Yreka. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Cooley, also of the city, are the bridegroom's parents.

A gown of white Italian imported lace over taffeta was worn by the bride, escorted to the altar by her father. The dress was styled with a fitted bodice, waltz-length skirt, bracelet-length sleeves and a scalloped scoop neckline outlined in pearls.

Her elbow-length tulle veil was attached to a lace half hat decorated with iridescent sequin hearts outlined in pearls. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with pink roses.

Mrs. Frederick Johnson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Hanni, Yreka, and Miss Sandra Flock of Gazelle.

All three attendants wore gowns identically styled with fitted bodices, puffed sleeves and bouffant skirts with long ribbon sashes to match white blimmied picture hats of nylon braid. Mrs. Johnson's dress was of white net in a lace design over pastel green taffeta and the bridesmaids' gowns were white net over pink taffeta.

They carried white carnations tied with ribbon in shades matching their dresses. Best man was Robert F. Silva, Yreka, and ushers were Dr. Richard Bryan, Sacramento, and Everette Flock, Yreka.

Larry Dall, brother of the bride, served as altar boy.

Mrs. Lea Purinton, organist, played the wedding music. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dall wore a dress of blue chiffon with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale green silk sheath dress and white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Following the marriage, a reception was held at the Melody room of the Yreka inn. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Betty Cooley, Gloria Aznoe and Susanne Hixson. Mrs. Leslie Flock presided at the guest book and in charge of the gift table were Mrs. Edgar Aznoe and Mrs. Mark Hixson.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to Yosemite, Santa Cruz and Redwood highway. They will reside in Yreka.

For traveling the bride wore a white knit suit with pink accessories and the rosebuds from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended schools in Wooster, Ohio, and Yreka and the bridegroom was graduated from Yreka schools and attended San Jose State college.

Three-way Pitch
Amherst, Mass. - (UPI) - Amherst College students will be offered a new course in science next September, to be taught jointly by a philosopher and a physicist, and dealing with three developments by which modern science "has influenced the history of ideas and man's view of his place in the universe." It will cover with relativity, the laws of thermodynamics and the quantum concepts.

Warm Dessert
Start with six slices of pound cake cut 1/2-inch thick. Arrange the slices on the rack of your gas broiler tray and spread 1/2 pint of sour cream over them so they are generously covered. Sprinkle 1/4 cup brown sugar over the top of the cream as evenly as possible. Swirl the sugar through the sour cream with a fork so it will blend evenly. Turn the broiler flame to low and let the cake heat slowly for about 10 minutes. Sprinkle a few chopped nuts or coconut on each serving and serve immediately.

Jewetts Honored By PTA

Central Point-Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett were honored at the last meeting of Central Point Parent-Teacher association, the final one of the season. They were presented a hand-lettered document and a life-time membership in the unit.

Mr. Jewett is retiring as superintendent of District 6C; Mrs. Jewett is a teacher in the Central Point schools. The document of appreciation was made by Jack McCoy, Junior High school teacher and was presented by Mrs. William Colley, unit president.

Charles A. Meyer, principal of Central Point Elementary and Junior High school, will become the new superintendent. He was presented a gift and both men were thanked by the PTA for their cooperation.

The new unit officers were installed by Mrs. Owen Kunkel, Medford, retiring president of the Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations. Installed were Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, president; Mrs. Clifford Bailey, first vice-president; Mrs. Don Bohner, second vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Higinbotham, secretary and Mrs. Alvin Roberts, treasurer.

It was announced that Mrs. Colley is the new junior vice-president of the Jackson County council. Appreciation was expressed and corsages presented to Mrs. Joyce Decker and Mrs. Helen Monsey for their assistance to the PTA.

Following the installation, Mrs. Chamberlain introduced her small daughter and her mother, Mrs. Fred Purdin. It was announced that the eighth grade graduation exercises will be held at 8 p.m., June 1, at the school. The students voted to have a class reception following the exercises.

Central Point Elementary and Junior High school will be dismissed for the summer vacation Wednesday, June 3. Dismissal will probably be one half hour early, Principal Meyer stated. Crater High school will hold baccalaureate services at the school, Sunday, May 31. Crater High School graduation services will be the following Thursday, June 4, at 8 p.m. at the school.

Parents of children in the third and fourth grade were hosts, and Mrs. Dale Bartley was decorating chairman. Mrs. Robert Jantzer was refreshments chairman.

Parents filled out questionnaires concerning preferences for future programs. The Rev. Paul Kroon gave the invocation and Mrs. Clifford Bailey reported on the annual convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Wallace Sousa, who will be music teacher next year, was introduced and accompanied Mrs. Gloria Johnson, who sang. Mrs. Johnson is on the staff of Central Point Elementary school and her fourth-year students gave a tumbling performance.

Department Head Auxiliary Guest
Miss Laurene Kell, Medford, department president of the Department of Foreign Wars' auxiliary, was a guest of the auxiliary to Crater Lake post for the last meeting. Miss Kell was presented a corsage and a gift from the group by Mrs. Amy Randle, president.

Mrs. Blair and Mrs. Coltrane, the retiring and new president, poured.

The annual "roundup" of children who will enter the first grade at Washington school was held May 22. The first grades presented a program of pantomime, song and a choral reading. Mrs. Blair and Mrs. Coltrane welcomed the children and their parents.

New Coffee Cake

Here's a version of coffee cake to glamorize dessert or snack time for any true chocolate lover. Use a package of real yeast coffee cake mix. Follow directions until it's time to put in the filling. Then, instead of the suggested filling, sprinkle one-half cup or more of chocolate bits over the dough after it's brushed with melted butter. Roll the coffee cake, bake it, and take credit for clever rule-breaking!

New York - (UPI) - A dessert topping mix in powder form is reconstituted with 1/2 cup cold milk to make 2 full cups of creamy topping. It contains only 17 calories per tablespoon and is recommended as topping for hot and cold drinks, desserts, and as an ingredient for Bavarian pies, refrigerator desserts and salad dressings. It will store well in the refrigerator for 3 days after mixing and, before mixing, keeps well on the food shelf without refrigeration.

Only 45 specimens of the rare Javanese rhinoceros are believed to be still alive on the east Indian island.

Cat Blamed for Death of Infant

Newark, N.J. - (UPI) - A gray alley cat jumped into a baby carriage Tuesday and apparently suffocated a five-week-old boy.

A medical examiner's report said "little Antonio Jounas was suffocated either by the cat lying across his face or by the disarrangement of clothing inside the carriage."

GUN FOR SALE

Muncie, Ind. - (UPI) - Walt Arnold fired his gun Tuesday to test his hunting dog. The dog wasn't gun shy. Arnold has become so. The bullet went into his leg.
