

Josephine County Defeats Budget

Grant Pass — Josephine county unit school district voters rejected for the second time Monday the proposed school budget.

The budget was defeated by 60 votes and only two votes in the May 4 balloting. The budget, revised for the second vote, was cut by the second vote from the original figures of $1,423,399. Of that amount approximately $680,336 would have been raised by taxation.

A total of 1,412 persons voted in the Monday election while only 888 voted on May 4.

AID CUT HINTED

Manila—(UP)—Maj. Gen. William Nutter, chief U.S. military advisor to the Philippines, said Wednesday that U.S. military assistance to the Manila government may be cut. Nutter informed defense officials here that the reduction was being considered as part of a general world-wide pruning in military assistance to all foreign countries by the United States.
