

Solons Jeopardize Coast League Lead

By DON BECKER
United Press International
 The Sacramento Solons throw their Pacific Coast league lead into jeopardy tonight when they open a four-game series with the second-place San Diego Padres.
 The Solons hold a two and a half game edge over the Padres but that could be cut to a mere half game if San Diego can repeat last week's three out of four series victory over the Solons.
 Both clubs warmed up for the crucial set with wins Wednesday night. Sacramento ran up its highest run total of the season as it crushed Phoenix, 12-3, while the Padres whipped Salt Lake, 6-1, behind the seven-hit pitching of Jake Striker.
 In the only other PCL game, George Freese belted a home run in the eighth inning to give Portland a 1-0 win over Seattle. The Vancouver-Spokane game was postponed because of rain.

 Dick Phillips hit an inside-the-park homer with two men aboard to get the Solons off to their winning start in the first inning. The Sacs smashed 16 hits and it was an easy win for Joe Stanka, now 5-3, who pitched all the way.
 At San Diego, Striker ran a string of scoreless innings by Padre pitchers to 26 before he yielded a run in the sixth. The Padres scored three runs in the third on a two-run homer by Bill Moran and a pair of singles. They picked up singletons in the first, second and sixth innings. It was Striker's fourth win against one defeat.
 Freese's 10th homer of the campaign broke up a stiff pitcher's duel between Portland's Ken Johnson and Rainer Dave Stenhouse. Johnson scattered nine hits while shutting the Rainiers out. Stenhouse gave up six blows.

Fish Bowl Existence For Haddix

By RAY W. DOHERTY
Milwaukee - (UPI) - Harvey Haddix will be living in a goldfish bowl for the next few months.
 The little Pittsburgh Pirates lefthander will be the subject of interviews, endorsements, banquets, and even a National league ceremony because of the 12 innings of perfect baseball he threw at the Milwaukee Braves Tuesday night.
 The historic chore will mean some extra money for him too. How much isn't certain at this time, but one unofficial source said it could boost his income this year by $10,000, maybe more. Television show doubtless will be after him to tell his story. The razor blade sponsors will probably want him to shave before the cameras.
 He was deluged with telegrams Wednesday and he probably gave more interviews in a day than he had in his seven years in the majors.
 "Look at my eyes," said Haddix in the Pirates dugout before Wednesday night's game with Milwaukee. "I didn't get as much sleep today as I usually do."
 "You probably were the most photographed and talked about man in the country today," said a reporter. Just then another radio man came up and asked if Haddix "was ready." With that he walked over to the corner of the dugout to repeat the story of how he set down 36 Braves in a row without a hit and their lost in a whacky 13th inning.
 It wasn't until midday Wednesday that the score was finally decreed to be 1-0 by National League President Warren Giles.
 The whole affair was complicated. Joe Adcock hit the ball over the fence with Henry Aaron and Felix Mantilla on base for what should have been three runs. But the big first baseman passed Aaron, who had stopped running because he thought the ball was inside the park and Mantilla had already scored. Umpire Frank Dascoli gave Adcock a double and scratched Giles said only the run necessary to win the game would be counted. He said Adcock would be officially credited with a double because he had failed to touch all the bases.

Relief Chuckers Come Through for Braves, White Sox

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
 Speaking of "perfect pitchers," how about Don McMahon of the Milwaukee Braves and Gerry Staley of the Chicago White Sox?
 Neither has started a game this season, much less pitched 12 perfect innings, but manager Fred Haney of the Braves will take fireballer McMahon and manager Al Lopez of the White Sox will take knuckleballer Staley when a spotless relief job is required to wrap up a victory.
 The ace "lock-up hurlers" did it again Wednesday when the Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, to retain their three-game National league lead and the White Sox downed the Cleveland Indians, 5-1, to move within one game of the top rung in the American league.

McMahon, who has a perfect 1-0, 1,000 slate to show for 12 relief appearances, needed only three pitches—all strikes—to put down a ninth-inning Pittsburgh rally and preserve Warren Spahn's 282nd major league win. The Pirates, suddenly coming to life after 26 consecutive scoreless innings against Milwaukee pitching, had rallied for three runs and had the tying run on second base when McMahon took over and bombed three strikes past Dick Schofield to end the game.
Saves Wynn's 256th Win
 Staley, who has only a 1-1 won-lost record but an amazing 0.58 earned run average in 18 relief appearances, saved the 256th victory of Early Wynn's career by halting a ninth-inning Cleveland rally. Staley replaced Wynn with runners on second and third and one out and retired Minnie Minoso and Rocky Colavito without permitting a run to score.
 The San Francisco Giants blitzed the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-4, the Cincinnati Reds routed the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-4, and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Chicago Cubs, 4-1, in the other National league games. The New York Yankees shed the Boston Red Sox, 3-2, and the Washington Senators beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-0, in other AL action.
 Ed Mathews hit his 15th homer and Johnny Logan drove in two runs to lead the Braves to their fourth victory in five meetings with the Pirates. Vern Law-like Harvey Haddix on Tuesday night—saw his punchless mates waste repeated scoring opportunities.
 Earl Torgeson and Sherman Lollar homered to pace an eight-hit White Sox attack that raised Wynn's season record to 7-3.
Giants Hit Three
 Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, and Andre Rodgers hit homers as Johnny Antonelli won his sixth game for San Francisco. Stan Musial homered—his first in two seasons on the West Coast.
 Bob Purkey squared his season record at 5-5 as Frank Robinson clouted two homers and Vada Pinson and Ed Bailey hit one each for Cincinnati. Robin Roberts suffered his fourth loss against only two victories.
 Don Drysdale struck out 11 batters to lift his NL leading total to 81 and yielded the

The event is set for 8 p.m. and a total of 28 thrill maneuvers reportedly are on the program. Ashland High school band and the Shrine Band of Southern Oregon are sponsors. Local share of the proceeds will be used to send the Ashland school band to the June 13 Rose festival parade in Portland. Despite the erratic antics Kovaz displays as a clown, he's a top stunt driver and a steel-nerved performer, displaying this nerve when speeding auto's miss him by inches. The evening show is said to be a blend of a variety of skills.

American Legion Teams Have Tilt Here Saturday

Baseball players of Crater, Ashland and Klamath Union High schools are making a quick switch to the American Legion junior version of the national pastime.
 Central Point Legion junior team, the Cheney Studs, will play Klamath Falls here on Memorial day. The Saturday doublebill will open at 1 p.m. at Cheney field at the south edge of Medford.

Central Point team is made up of Crater and Ashland high players. The club has games lined up for four occasions before going into district play on June 10. A doubleheader will be played Sunday at Klamath Falls and games are billed with Grants Pass on June 3 and with Roseburg on June 6, both at Cheney field.
 The district starter will be with Grants Pass also on the Cheney diamond. Medford and Lakeview will field clubs in the district along with Klamath, GP, and Central Point. Cheney Sponsor

Camp White Defeats GP

Camp White - Camp White baseball team put over tying and winning runs in the sixth inning here last night to defeat the Grants Pass Merchants 8 to 7 in a non-loop fray between two Rogue Valley league semi-pro teams.
 A walk to Bill Weddle, a triple by Jack Brown and an error got the two runs.
 Grants Pass began strong with five hits and five runs off the Whites' Jim Eggers. Gary Huneycutt and Don Jacobson tripled and Marvin Chandler, Bob Gowey and Frank Sprinkle singled. An error and wild pitch helped the Climate city club.
 Don Sanford of CW went in as relief tosser in the second frame and yielded six hits over the remaining six innings. Don Wendt hit three doubles and a single for Camp White while Brown doubled and tripled. Huneycutt socked three hits and Jacobson, Gowey and Sprinkle each two for GP.

Hank Greenberg Officially in White Sox Bloc

Chicago - (UPI) - Hank Greenberg, former general manager of the Cleveland Indians, today was an official member of the group which controls the Chicago White Sox as result of a stock exchange with another member of the bloc.
 Andrews Baxter, who came in with Veck to purchase controlling interest in the Chicago club, disposed of his shares Monday and dropped out. Baxter sold his interest in the White Sox to Greenberg and Greenberg sold his remaining interest in the Indians to Baxter.
 Veck explained the deal yesterday after reports of disagreement among the group.
 The league approved Greenberg subject to his disposing of his debentures in the Cleveland club. Baxter bought Greenberg's debentures and sold his stock in the White Sox.
