

Catholic Rites Wed Couple

Yreka—Bouquets of pink and white stock and lighted candles decorated the altar of St. Joseph's Catholic church on Saturday, May 16, when Miss Gail Burch became the bride of Carl Gamma Jr. The Rev. Robert Connolly officiated at the two o'clock afternoon wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burch, Montague, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gamma, Big Springs, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a winter white wool suit, trimmed with a mink collar and complemented with pink accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

The bride's attendant, Mrs. Agnes Pillotti, wore a pale yellow wool suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Werner Gamma served as best man for his brother.

Guests were seated by Roger Burch, brother of the bride, and Oscar Gamma, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Leo Purinton, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Joe Burch Jr. registered the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burch chose a navy blue ensemble with white accessories. Mrs. Gamma wore a printed silk afternoon dress with white accessories. Both mothers had white carnation corsages.

The newly wedded couple made a brief honeymoon trip to Crater Lake, and are now residing at the Gamma ranch home in Big Springs.

Hospital Auxiliary Schedules Orientation Class Wednesday

About 40 women attended the orientation class for Rogue Valley Hospital auxiliary last Wednesday, according to Mrs. Shelby M. Tuttle and Mrs. John Winton, who were in charge of arrangements.

The material will be presented again Wednesday, June 3, at 10 a.m. in the board and staff room of the hospital, and all auxiliary members who did not attend the first class are invited to be present then.

Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. Winton, who are both past presidents of the auxiliary, state that the instruction is designed to acquaint old and new members with information about the hospital, its policies and rules which apply to volunteers working in the building. Various service groups operating within the auxiliary are also explained, and new members are assisted in choosing which duties they wish to perform.

Charles I. Gustafson, administrator, and Mrs. W. L. Elder, assistant director of nurses, assisted the co-chairmen in presenting some of the material and answering questions concerning the hospital. Equipment demonstrated.

Dr. E. L. Lawson demonstrated the use of a new piece of aortogram equipment, to be used in the X-ray department in diagnosing circulatory obstructions. The auxiliary recently authorized the $900 to purchase the equipment for the hospital.

The need for more volunteers in the auxiliary was emphasized by the membership chairman, Mrs. Forest VanVleck. Information about the group can be obtained by calling her at SPring 3-3958. During the summer months, additional volunteers are particularly needed to operate the snack bar and gift shop, and the hospitality cart which is taken through the building each morning offering coffee.

Garden Club Show Theme Is "Wings Over Oregon"

Central Point — "Wings over Oregon Gardens" is the theme of the 13th annual flower show of the Central Point Garden club which will be held June 11 and 12 in the Crater high school gymnasium. Hours are from 2 to 9 p.m. June 11 and 1 to 5 p.m. June 12.

In addition to show classes of annuals, biennials and perennials, the club has three unusual artistic classes "Wings over Oregon Gardens," the first section, will be for the advanced amateur and is centered about arrangements using wings.

"Oregon, My Oregon," section II, for the amateur, has lines from the state song as arrangement ideas. The third section, "At Home in Oregon," is for the novice using artistic designs with a family theme.

Other divisions are for corsages and juniors in horticultural, artistic and educational classes. A non-competitive invitation class will be composed of arrangements by the Siskiyou Garden clubs. Conservation, commerce and hobby exhibits also are planned.

Carl Richardson will give an educational exhibit and talk at 3 p.m. June 11.

Entries for the show will be accepted between 7 and 9 p.m. June 10 and between 7 and 9:30 a.m. June 11. Any entries after those hours will be non-competitive.

Containers for horticultural entries will be furnished. Flowers and foliage in artistic classes need not be grown by the exhibitor, but must be home grown and made by the exhibitor.

No entries may be removed from the show until 5 p.m. June 12.

The general public, as well as garden club members, will be welcome to enter any or all horticulture classes and any artistic class in which they may qualify.
