

Officers, Delegates Announced

Mrs. E. R. Neff was elected commander of the auxiliary to Jackson County unit, Disabled American Veterans, at a meeting held May 25 in the Red Cross building.

Officers elected to serve with Mrs. Neff were Mrs. George Simmons, senior vice-commander; Mrs. Blaine Wolfe, Junior vice-commander; Mrs. J. P. Graham, chaplain; Mrs. Harvey Cassman, treasurer; Mrs. James Lillie, state executive committee woman; Mrs. James Peach, alternate state executive committee woman; Mrs. Norman Neathamer, district delegate; Mrs. Grover Rawls, alternate district delegate. These officers will be installed in July.

Delegates for state convention were elected and planning to attend are Mrs. Rawls, department senior vice-commander; Mrs. Lillie, past department commander; Mrs. Everett Grissom, state executive committee woman; Mrs. Graham, charter delegate; Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Lester Moser, and Mrs. Luther Tingley, delegates. The state convention will be held in Salem June 25-27.

A meeting will be held June 9 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Cassman, Seventh and Cherry streets, Central Point, to make out convention reports.

Mrs. Grissom, historian, requested members to send her any pictures they have for the local history book.

Mrs. Neff was recently honored at a surprise party given by the auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Norman Neathamer, 119 Jeanette avenue. Mrs. Neff was presented with luggage from the auxiliary in appreciation of her service to the auxiliary programs.

The Junior auxiliary to the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will elect and install officers June 6 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Cassman, Central Point. Mrs. Cassman and Mrs. Dorthene Simmons are leaders of this group. Recently the juniors made a wreath to be used at Camp White funerals. The wreath was made of the official blue forget-me-not flower of the DAV.

Degree Planned By Scottish Rite

With Charles H. Thurston and cast officiating under the direction of Fred M. Gatter, the 31st degree of Scottish Rite Freemasonry will be presented at 8 p.m. Monday, June 1, in the Masonic temple, for the benefit of a large class of candidates. This is one of the more spectacular degrees of the Rite.

Bright Cotton Beachwear Flatters Feminine Figure

You can swim in style this summer, thanks to bright new fashions in cotton beachwear designed to flatter the feminine figure as never before.

Some makers of swim suits are calling it a "three-silhouette" season. For the expert swimmer who cuts a good figure in and out of water, the tight-fitting, one-piece maillots again makes its appearance. Two-piece suits will be more plentiful than ever, while the youngest look on the beach undoubtedly will be the skirted suit.

Popular beach-going cottons this year are sturdy knits, shiny satins, crisp piques, terry cloth, and even dotted swiss and lace. Intensely flattering to a sun tan are the chalk whites, hot pinks and reds, and rich blues and greens of these fabrics. If you prefer pattern to a solid color, you can take your pick of fancy florals, plaids, and native or peasant prints in the same brilliant hues.

You'll find that the new cotton swim suits take to the water like the proverbial duck. And back on land, you can practically shake yourself dry... just like your web-footed friend. Special finishes have been applied to many of the swim suit fabrics so they dry wrinkle free in a hurry.

Of course, you'll want to choose the swim suit that is most becoming to you in color and style. Many of the new cotton suits follow fashion's decree of the high-rising waistline. Their modified Empire styling is marked by a contrasting trim, cuff, sash, or gathers just below the bust.

BONNY — Scotch plaid seeks the sun this summer in a smooth-fitting swim suit of fast-drying cotton. The suit by Jantzen has adjustable straps and a shirred front for flattering figure control.

Back interest is found in low-plunging, scooped necklines, sometimes with wide straps criss-crossed midway.

Staging a comeback for the third season in a row, two-piece suits apparently are in for a successful run in 1959. If you don't like bare mid-ribs, this year you can buy a suit in two parts that go together in a one-piece effect. The long-line bodice is attached to elastic underpants which give hipline control beneath little boy shorts or bloomers. Another innovation in two-piece suits is the camisole bra.

Perhaps the most flattering of this year's swim suits are the skirted styles. Sarong-draped and pleated skirts are strongly favored. The former is the result of the Far Eastern and Caribbean island influence, also seen in the exotic native prints. Pleated skirts often hug the hips several inches below the waistline, leaving a long-stemmed top free to follow the natural curves of the body.

Matching Cover-Ups

Making a big splash out of water are the matching or coordinated cover-ups for swim suits. To protect you from too much sun after your swim, there are the chemise "slip cover" tops, floating camisoles, little boleros, and even classic cardigan jackets. One chemise-styled suit of slubbed cotton has its own huge triangular shaped poncho.

If you're a beachcomber more than a swimmer, you'll like the new knee-length dresses... wonderful for wading and walking in the sand. These loose-fitting dresses, with drawstring waistlines or contrasting sashes, come in terry cloth or other easy-care cotton fabrics.

So your new swim suit will remain pretty all summer long, you'll want to give it the best possible care. A good rule to follow is to rinse your bathing suit in clear water as soon as possible after swimming and hang it up. Never wring it dry. For all beachwear, including swim suits, it's always best to check hang tags and follow any instructions given by the manufacturer.

St. Mary's Club Elects Officers At Last Session

Election of officers for next year was held at the final meeting of the St. Mary's High School Parents club held in the activities room of the school Wednesday evening.

Jay J. Elliott was elected president; John Carnegie, vice president; Mrs. Fred Burich, secretary; Mrs. Mildred Robinson, treasurer; James Pullman, ways and means chairman; and Dr. Florian Shasky, parliamentarian.

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, pastor of the Sacred Heart Catholic church, thanked the officers and members for supporting all school projects, and said the club could be proud of a successful year. According to Father Mai, education prepares children mentally and spiritually and should be of the body, mind and soul.

Sister Superior Gerard Mary complimented the parents on their cooperation and encouragement, and thanked them for the contribution of $300 to the library fund. Trophies won in basketball and track were displayed by William McKibbin, school coach, who received the congratulations of Anthony R. Manno, retiring president.

Floyd E. Darland reported that 120 weaver served at the lettermen's banquet held Tuesday, May 19. The tables were decorated in blue and white, the school colors, and pipe-cleaner figures of football, basketball and track men. He said he was very proud of the teams achievement.

Sister Shawn Marie related that six or seven students will be going to the summer School of Catholic Action. The club appropriated $100 to help defray expenses. A special welcome was given the eighth grade parents, guests of the club, by Mr. Manno.

Mr. Elliott urged all freshmen parents to become active members.

Sauce for Vegetables

Make a zesty sauce for hot, cooked vegetables by combining equal parts mayonnaise and grated Parmesan cheese, a little instant minced onion and a dash of prepared mustard. Instant minced onion is never harsh or strong, so it doesn't dominate other flavors. Adding a small measure to foods will often make the difference between ordinary and outstanding dishes.

Mrs. Richard H. Westerfield, Ashland, won a prize at the recent spring flower show of Medford Garden club for an arrangement of narcissi and iris. Mrs. Westerfield is retiring president of the Ashland Garden club. Eighty-eight arrangements were entered in the show, which had "Reflections of a Century" as the theme, and 132 horticultural exhibits were entered. In judged classifications for garden clubs, Central Point Garden club won first and Ashland second in the "Reflections" division and winners for the "Lady's Choice" division were Shady Cove, first; Central Point, second and Crater Garden club, third.

GIRLISH — The youngest look on the beach this year will be the suit with a hip-hugging pleated flounce. Styled by Jantzen, this striped cotton suit has wide straps and a crinkled back inset.

Committees Announced

Committees for the coming year were announced at the final business meeting of the season of Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Turpin May 26. The new president, Mrs. Floyd Eastwood, was in charge.

In charge of membership and pledge training are Mrs. Ernest Flakus and Mrs. Thomas Shoop; social, Mrs. Walter Larson; program, Mrs. Lionel Guy; ways and means, Mrs. Turpin and Mrs. John Watkins; calling, Mrs. Dale Curfman; service, Mrs. Howard Mitchell; publicity, Mrs. Harold Ames; sunshine, Mrs. Thomas Cardona; scrapbook, Mrs. George Polski; and rummage sale, Mrs. Ronald Hall and Mrs. Floyd Robertson.

A program was presented by Mrs. Turpin and Mrs. C. C. Neely. Mrs. Paul Gaven was co-hostess.

Central Point Women Honored With Shower

Central Point — Mrs. Richard Gustafson and her small son, Danny Paul, were honored by a shower at the Home Economics club meeting Wednesday, May 27, of the Central Point Grange.

The event was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Morehouse. Games were played and a short skit was presented by Mrs. O. T. Wilson, Mrs. Morris Frank and Mrs. Ed Walters. Committee for the shower arrangements were Mrs. Charles Jantzen, Mrs. Morehouse and Mrs. Walters.

During the business meeting that preceded the shower, a report on the pie booth at the Farm Festival on May 22 and 23 was given by the club chairman, Mrs. Jantzen.

Mrs. Morehouse assisted by Mrs. Walters served dessert to the 16 members and two guests present.

"Let's talk dry cleaning"
By KEN HARDY

Attention anglers! If you're looking ahead to week ends on the water, checking your equipment and putting it in shape, don't forget those rugged outdoor clothes.

Fishing togs and other outdoor garments are usually treated to be water-repellent, wind-resistant and comfortable.

ably resilient to allow for easy freedom of action. With proper care these qualities can be preserved for the entire life of the garment. And, of course, proper care includes frequent, scientific cleaning.

There are a number of different ways in which fabrics may be treated to make them wind and water resistant and yet retain their resilience. We make it our business to keep abreast of all the new conditioning treatments that fabric and garment manufacturers are currently using, so that we can determine the correct cleaning method for any garment.

You can send us your sports togs, your casual clothes, and your formal attire with equal assurance that they will receive thorough cleaning by safe, scientific methods that will keep them looking fresh and new through countless cleanings. Give us a call for prompt pickup and delivery service. BIG Y CLEANERS, 1928 Table Rock Rd., Phone SP 3-1919 — S&H Green Stamps. adv.

Sunshine Girls Hold Initiation

The first meeting of the newly installed officers of Rosebud Council, Pythian Sunshine Girls, was held in the Pythian building, Thursday evening, following drill practice of the Banner Girls.

Initiation ceremonies were conducted. The candidates were Miss Denna Griggs, Miss Susan Krieger, Miss Roxanne Terry, Miss Geraldine Hines, and Miss Vicki Toenniges.

Several of the mothers and fathers were guests. The Misses Gail Riley and Sandra Stotler were in charge of the entertainment.

The officers will meet Tuesday, June 2, at 6:30 p.m. for practice. Mrs. Harry Bryant is drill captain.

After the next meeting the girls will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bostwick, 3273 Biddle road, for a wiener roast and patio party. The Misses Nancy Acord and Evelyn Anderson will serve refreshments.

The council now has a membership of 40 girls and is one of the largest in the state.

Chairmen Announced For AAUW

Chairmen of standing committees of Medford branch, American Association of University Women, were announced at a recent meeting of the board of directors. Wilson Wait, higher education; Mrs. E. H. Loveness, fellowship luncheon; Mrs. John Stong and Mrs. A. J. Johannson, fellowship play.

As the two immediate past presidents, Mrs. Johannson and Mrs. Stong will also act as advisors to the board.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. W. F. Roemer, hospitality; Mrs. Harry D. Poston, international relations; Mrs. Earle Fichtner, legislative; Mrs. Calvin Smith, program; Mrs. Nils Edin, publicity; Mrs. Donald Walters, radio; Mrs. Robert Wilcox, recent graduates; Mrs. N. A. Gerritsen, social studies; Mrs. Thomas McCamant, status of women; Mrs. Thomas Tinsley, telephone; Mrs. C. B. Collins, television.

Miss Peggyann Hutchinson will act as historian; Mrs. Edwin Gebhart, first vice-president, will serve as membership chairman, while Mrs. R. M. Mayer, second vice-president, will coordinate the study groups.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Stong with Mrs. Elmgren as co-hostess.

Incoming board members were advised of their duties by their retiring counterparts. While there will be no general meetings of AAUW during the summer, the board will meet from time to time to formulate plans for fall activities.

Sour Cream Sauce

Next time you're serving blue lake green beans, try them with a tangy sauce made from commercial sour cream lightly seasoned with a little prepared mustard and salt. Delicious!

A Syracuse typewriter concern has developed the first typewriter with a half-space key. It says the half-space simplifies the correction of common errors made by typists—skipped letters and spaces or extra letters in words.
