

Lawyer Accuses Car of Highway Robbery by Dedini

This lawyer was brought to court for not paying his bills. "Your honor," he said, "I plead not guilty. My big car is the culprit."

"Every time I get on the highway, it robs me blind. It won't pass a gas pump, won't drink anything but highest-priced, double-premium gas." The judge said: "You are in trouble."

"But how about this ticket for tying up traffic?" he asked. The lawyer winced. "Whenever I try to park, my big clumsy car ties up traffic. It's unparkable!"

"We looked at a small, foreign car but it was four kids and a Saint Bernard too small. What I need is big car room and small car economy."

"You need a Rambler," said the judge. "Get the best of both! Case dismissed, if you trade for a Rambler!" The lawyer did. Soon, instead of debts, he had a fat bank account, and no more parking headaches. He also enjoyed...
