Flat Tire, Rain Spoil Gromyko Trip

Geneva—(UPI)—A flat tire and rain spoiled Andrei Gromyko's Sunday junket into the Swiss countryside.

The Soviet foreign minister and his wife, accompanied by other members of Russia's delegation, left their Geneva villa this morning in three automobiles, including an American Chevrolet.

They drove about 30 miles to the French border at La Cure, then when it began to rain turned back toward Lake Geneva.

On the way back the Chevrolet got a flat tire and its three Russian occupants joined Gromyko in his long black sine.

One Russian remained with the Chevrolet to arrange repairs.

A little fatherly advice from your Uncle Sam

(for June graduates and their proud kinfolk)

Sometime this spring you'll step forward and pick up your diploma.

If you live to be 90, it'll still be one of the biggest days in your life.

Suddenly you'll have grown about a foot—and aged some too.

For the first time, you'll really be going forward under your own power.

Where to? What next?

Where you go in this world depends largely on how badly you want to get there.

There's never been as much opportunity for you to "go places" as there is today. (Just ask your folks if I'm not right!)

But remember: opportunity is impatient. You've often heard people say sadly, "If only I'd had cash to take advantage of the opportunity . . . " They didn't. And the opportunity faded.

You be ready with ready cash. Save some every payday. There are lots of good places to save—but none better than U. S. Savings Bonds. They're sound, easy to buy at any bank. Buy 'em through Payroll Savings, it's automatic!

And that's not all. Every Bond helps strengthen America's Peace Power. Your savings become an investment in your peaceful future. So take a little fatherly advice from your Uncle Sam. Start a good habit now. Start buying Bonds—and keep at it! Good luck.

Help strengthen America's Peace Power
