

OSC Varsity Conquers Grad Team

Corvallis — (UP) — Oregon State's varsity football team conquered a star-studded Alumni eleven under the direction of ex-tailback Joe Francis, 38-16, Saturday before 6,107 spectators.

Francis, currently a quarterback for the Green Bay Packers, had hoped for a win with other former collegiate greats backing him.

The varsity scored the first time it put the ball into play. The first play, starting at the Beaver 35, had Jim Stinette pushing to the alum 16 yard line. The score was made in three plays with Don Kasso carrying.

Francis' Passing Talent

At the start of the third quarter, the varsity jumped the margin to 14-0, gaining 65 yards on 10 plays. Stinette plunged the final foot to score and added a two-point conversion.

Francis displayed his passing talent with a series of long throws, ending in a 33-yard touchdown to Sam Wesley, 1955 wingback at OSC.

Francis followed with a 43-yard toss to Wesley on the next alumni drive. A pass to Bob DeGrant, a quarterback sneak and the alums trailed by 30-16.

Junior wingback Ron Miller carried the varsity ball 53 yards to the 12, where Earl Harbin pushed it to the six on three plays. Aaron Thomas swept around end for the TD and Harbin drove it for the two points for the final tally of 38-16.

Linksman Qualify for U.S. Open

United Press International

A total of 477 golfers tee off Monday in 13 sectional tournaments, the second and last qualifying session for the 1959 U. S. Open golf championships.

An original entry list of 2,400 was whittled down to 477 by regional qualifying tournaments at 57 sites, May 18-19. Monday's 36-hole medal competition will cut the 477 down to 131 who will join 19 exempt players to form a field of 150 for the championship flight.

This year's U. S. Open will be held at the Winged Foot C.C., Mamaroneck, N. Y.

Championship berths are distributed in Monday's sectional tournaments according to the quantity and quality of the entrants at each site.

One of the 20 original entrants who was exempt from qualifying competition, British Open champion Peter Thomson of Australia, has withdrawn.

The 19 remaining players exempt from qualifying are Tommy Bolt, Julius Boros, Walt Burkemo, Charley Coe, Dow Finsterwald, Jack Fleck, Ed Furgal, Jay Hebert, Ben Hogan, Tommy Jacobs, Don January, Gene Littler, Dick Mayer, Dick Metz, Cary Middlecoff, Gary Players, Bob Rosburg, Frank Stranahan, and host pro Claude Harmon.

Yankees Capture Fourth in Row To Climb From Cellar To Sixth

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Look out above—here come the Yankees!

They're not soaring high, wide and handsome like Able and Baker yet but they're out of the American league dungeon and set to take off from sixth place. The first division is only a game and a half away and even the first-place Cleveland Indians are only six games distant.

Casey Stengler's revived world champions climbed two notches to sixth place Sunday when they beat the Washington Senators, 3-0, and ran their winning streak to four games. The streak is the longest of the season for the Yankees who had been in last place since May 20.

World Series hero Bob Turley and first baseman Bill Skowron were the stars of the victory. Turley pitched a two-hitter and Skowron blasted a three-run homer in the ninth to beat Camilo Pascual.

Tigers Reach Fifth

The Detroit Tigers reached fifth place when they downed the Indians, 7-4; the Kansas City Athletics routed the Chicago White Sox, 9-1, and the Baltimore Orioles edged out the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, in other AL action.

The Milwaukee Braves lost their opener, 6-0, but then defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 2-1; the San Francisco Giants beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-3; the Los Angeles Dodgers scored a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, and the Pittsburgh Pirates outslugged the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2 and 14-11, in the National league.

Pascual carried a two-hit shutout into the ninth but Mickey Mantle doubled with two out. Yogi Berra was intentionally walked and Skowron connected for his eighth homer of the season.

Charlie Maxwell's three-run ninth inning homer off Jim Perry enabled the Tigers to reach their highest position of the season and gave rookie Jerry Davis his second win.

Ned Garver pitched a four-hitter for the Athletics who kayoed Early Wynn in the second inning and beat the veteran knuckleballer for the third straight time this season. Preston Ward clinched matters with a grand slam homer in the sixth.

Two Orioles dropped the Red Sox into the AL basement when Willie Tasby's sixth-inning single scored Al Pilarcik and snapped a 1-1 tie.

Robin Roberts beat Lew Burdette with a four-hitter for the Phillies in their opener but then the Braves got four-hit pitching from Warren Spahn who won his seventh game of the season and the 253rd of his career in the second game.

Johnny Antonelli struck out 11 batters and drove in three runs as the Giants moved to within 2 1/2 games of the Braves Bob Schmidt homered for the Giants as they handed Glen Hobbie his fifth setback.

Danny McDevitt replaced Sandy Koufax with the bases filled and none out in the seventh inning, retired Stan Musial on a foul pop and struck out Ray Jablonski and Joe Cunningham to end the inning. He then shut out the Cardinals in the last two innings to preserve Koufax's first win.

Smoky Burgess hit two homers for Pittsburgh in the first game and then snapped an 11-1 tie with a three-run seventh-inning homer in the nightcap of a free-hitting double header with Cincinnati. Bob Skinner hit two homers and knocked in seven runs in the second game and Don Hoak hit three homers and had six hits during the doubleheader.

No-Hit Tossers Take Coast Loop Lumps

By DON BECKER
United Press International

Maybe tossing a no-hitter isn't such a hot deal. Seems like the guys who do end up taking some real lumps.

A couple of no-hit pitchers took the mound in the Coast League Sunday and neither of them got past the second inning.

San Diego's Dick Stigman, who pitched 10 2/3 innings of runless and hitless baseball against Salt Lake last Tuesday, couldn't do a thing against Sacramento Sunday.

He walked five batters and gave up three runs before he was lifted. The runs were mighty important as the Solons won the game 5-2 and increased their league lead to 2 1/2 games over the Padres.

Salt Lake's George Perez, who pitched a near perfect game against the Solons earlier in this season as only one man reached first, was clubbed out of the box in the second inning Sunday by Phoenix. The Giants went on to win the game, 14-8.

In other PCL action, Vancouver swept a double header from Seattle by 6-4 and 13-1 and Portland defeated Spokane, 8-5.

Joe Stanka was credited with the key Solon victory as he went all the way on the mound also belted a homer. It was his sixth win against three losses. Stigman is now 2-7. Sacramento could collect only five hits during the game, but the walks killed the pads.

Eddie Fisher was credited with his ninth win of the season against two losses in Phoenix' thumping of Salt Lake. Fisher came on in the eighth inning to help rally and gain the win. Giant starter Curt Barclay was staked to an 11-1 lead in the early going but he couldn't last five innings. He gave way to Marcelino Solis who had to give way to Fisher. Fisher was given the win on a decision by the official scorer since none of the trio went five innings.

The Giants lashed 17 hits during the contest including homers by Willie McCovey and Sal Taormina.

Bamberger's First Win

George Bamberger, who last year led the PCL in hurling with a 2.45 earned run average, pitched his first win of the season for Vancouver in the seven inning nightcap. His mates staked George to a 5-0 first inning lead and he coasted home.

Erv Fallica, who got relief from three Mountie pitchers, was credited with the win in the first game, his fourth against two losses.

Jack Littrell walloped a grand slam homer to lead Portland to its 8-5 win over Spokane. Jim Greengrass also connected for the circuit for the winners and Steve Bilko and Al Norris hit homers for Spokane.

Central Point Athletes Place In Junior AAU

Central Point — Two entries from Central Point Junior High school and one from Crater High, won places Saturday in the Oregon Junior AAU track meet at Portland.

Gary Wald, eighth grader, was second in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and a classmate, Pat Pepper was third in the javelin. Dwight James, Crater freshman, was third in the half-mile.

Wald's times were the same as those of the winner in each of the two races, 10.5 and 23.6, as he was elyashed out of first. Pepper had a 141-foot 10-inch heave and James was timed in 2:12.

Portland — (UP) — A record number of track men performed at the Oregon AAU junior track and field championships at Wilson High school here Saturday with Southern Oregon athletes taking most of the honors.

Nine of the 14 events were captured by down-staters. Ray Palm, Roseburg, was a double winner. He won the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 4 inches and the 70-yard high hurdles in 9.6 seconds. Butch Lumby, Grant, took two events, the 100-yard dash and the low hurdles in 10.5 and 14 seconds respectively.

Sog Ohlemann, University of Oregon freshman, won the 880-yard run in a field of Oregon and OSC runners. His time was 1:52.1.

Don Kliest, Cleveland, took the 440 in 54 seconds. The 220 went to Vernon Rentle, Cleveland in 23.7 seconds. Steve Ausland, Grants Pass, hurled the javelin 160 feet six inches for first place, and Clyde Smith, Marshfield, jumped 19 feet 8 3/4 inches in the broad jump.

Cheney Studs Grab Pair from KF Club

Central Point — Central Point Cheney Studs poked over tying and winning runs in the final inning of each game yesterday to nudge Klamath Falls 7 to 6 and 5 to 4 in American Legion junior baseball games at Klamath Falls.

The sweep gave the Studs three wins in four games over the week end with the Klamath nine. Central Point split with KF at Cheney field at Medford on Saturday, nabbing the second scrap 8 to 0 after dropping the first 6 to 1.

Central Point will meet Grants Pass Wednesday night in a non-league game at Cheney park at the south edge of Medford.

In the Sunday opener the Cheney club collected two runs in the seventh and last frame. Dave Jackson tripled getting tallies after Brad Gettling had singled and Steve Harris had walked. Three runs in the fifth brought Central Point from behind in the second scuffle. A single and stolen base by Dennis Pfaff, a fielder's choice rap by Gettling, two bases on balls, an error and a sacrifice flyout by Jackson manufactured the runs.

Five-Run Inning

In the opener Klamath got five runs in the second inning for a 5 to 1 jump. In the big outburst Bob Yank led off with a double but was out at third on a rap by Dave Saks. Estin Kiger singled and Steve Binney three-baggered, Don Gredel singled and stole second, Steve Binney three-baggered, Don Gredel singled and stole second, Bob Wilkerson walked and Don Wilkerson safetied.

Central Point tied up the game with two runs each in the fourth and fifth innings but KF went on top again 6 to 5 in the bottom of the fifth.

Gettling, one of a number of players from Ashland high on the CP club, hit four singles in four times up in the first game. Ed Allen raked off two for two. Dennis Samples, the winning pitcher, gave up three hits over the last four innings after Klamath had tagged John Anhorn for five safe blows. Blake Griggs, who relieved Wilkerson in the sixth panel, took the loss.

Klamath had a three-run first inning the second encounter on singles by Griggs and Rich Dewep, two bases on balls and an error. Central Point got back one run in the second canto but Klamath made it 4 to 1 in the bottom of the same frame. CP then collected one run in the fourth.

Ashland, CW Whip Rogue Valley Foes

Ashland overpowered Medford Bowling lanes 14 to 6 and Camp White bounced Butte Falls 7 to 1 yesterday in opening games of the Rogue Valley Baseball league.

Riddle won the other game from Glendale but the score was not available here this morning.

Ashland, laden with a wealth of talent from Southern Oregon college, used its hefty slugging power and a flock of bases on balls in thumping Medford. Phil Sword spurred the Lithia city club by homering and doubling each once and singling twice in his four official times at bat. He drove home six runs in the frames filled with extra base hits.

The Ashlanders got out in front right at the start when Jim McAbee led off with roundtrip blast over the center field fence. But it was in the sixth canto where the college fortified gang did its heaviest tabulating. McAbee and Sword each doubled in the inning and Tom Speelman cracked a three base blow. And, there were six bases on balls and a hit batter as Ashland recorded eight runs.

Lanes Score Five

Sixth inning was the big one for the Bowling Lanes. The klegers got three hits off Speelman who had held them to four safe swats over the five previous stanzas. Bob Serak doubled and Jerry Fields and Ron Peery each singled. There were two bases on balls, a hit batter and an error.

Three Ashland markers went in the book in the first inning. A walk, a double by LeRoy King and a single by Sword followed McAbee's long sock. Two more Lithia counters were in the third inning when Ron Maurer walked ahead of Sword's home run. In the fifth Maurer tripled and scored after Sword's flyout, a sacrifice for Sword.

Kay Vaughn and John Hanson doubled for a Medford run in the second canto.

Extra base swats were in the majority. Ashland had three doubles, two triples and two homers among its 11 hits. Four of the seven Medford hits were doubles.

Camp White also took an early jump in its tussle, getting two runs in the first inning. These resulted from a single by Bill Weddle, a triple by Jack Brown and an error.

The Whitters added padding in the eighth inning with three markers on a double by Jack Turk, a single by Wayne Allen, two walks, two errors and Brown's sacrifice flyout.

In addition to tallying in the fourth inning, Butte Falls had the bases loaded with no one out in the fourth and sixth innings.

Jack Turk, pitching a six-hitter for Camp White, walked five and struck out eight. Brown doubled as well as tripled in the game. Turk hit a double and Hank Tygard two-based for Butte Falls.

Terry Baker Picks OSC

Portland—(UP)—Terry Baker, Jefferson high school's star athlete, has announced he will attend Oregon State college this fall. The three-sport senior helped push his school to four major sports titles this year.

Another Jefferson high school all state football player plans to enter Oregon State. Tackle John Thies said he would go to the Corvallis school this fall. Earlier, all-state guard Dennis Prozninski said he would go to OSC.

Injured Jockey Still Critical

Inglewood, Calif.—(UP)—Veteran jockey Ralph Neves remained in critical condition today from injuries suffered Saturday when thrown from a horse at Hollywood Park.

Neves, 41, was kept under sedation, but a hospital spokesman said he was improving. He underwent a two-and-a-half hour brain surgery following the accident.

Up on Rhin in the third race, he was moving to the front when his mount apparently clipped the heels of another horse and went to its knees. Neves rolled over several times, but apparently was not stepped on.

Doctors diagnosed his injuries as fractures of two vertebrae and a basal skull fracture with internal cranial hemorrhage.

Fish Lake Hot Spot For Anglers

Trout angling was excellent at Fish Lake and ranged from good to poor at Diamond Lake over the holiday week end according to appraisals learned today.

Diamond Lake had lots of cars and people and good to fair fishing on Saturday but poor on Sunday. Angling was great at Fish Lake each day with a reported count of 6.1 fish per person checked. This is considered a high average. There were many limits with trout running seven to 10 inches.

7,000 AT DIAMOND

State police counted 1,800 cars and 7,000 people Saturday morning at Diamond Lake. One angler classified the fishing not as good as last year and not as good as expected. Fishermen did pretty good Saturday with ford fenders and worms fishing deep in the middle of the lake. There were some limits and some fish were caught on single eyes. Kamloops trout ranged from 15 to 22 inches with a good number 16 and 17 inches.

A good number of anglers went out early Sunday at Diamond but had poor results. An observer said that by 11 a.m. few boats could be seen from the south shore.

Joe Brown To Defend Wednesday

New York—(UP)—Joe Brown attempts his seventh defense of the world lightweight crown this week, and Nigerian Dick Tiger—middleweight champion of the British Empire—makes his United States debut.

Brown of New Orleans, 33, is favored at 13-5 to turn back the challenge of Italian Paolo Rosi at Uline Arena, Washington, D.C., Wednesday night. Their scheduled 15-rounder will be televised nationally by ABC.

At Madison Square Garden Friday night, 29-year-old Tiger will launch his American campaign for a shot at the world 160-pound title by meeting veteran Rory Calhoun of St. Albans, N. Y. Their 10-rounder will be televised and broadcast by NBC. Calhoun is favored at 7-5.

For the Brown-Rosi title fight at Washington, promoter Goldie Ahearn expects a sellout of 8,500 and $60,000. Rosi of Italy and New York, 31, is the harder puncher. He was unbeaten in his last nine starts although held to one draw.

Rebel Winner

Victoria, B. C.—(UP)—Doug Sherwood of Seattle piloted his K-38 yacht "Rebel" to victory Saturday in the annual Swiftsure Lightship Sailboat race.

The Rebel had a corrected time of 26 hours, 41 minutes and 34 seconds for the 166-mile yachting classic which got underway Friday morning and wound up here the next day.

The combined area of U.S. national forests is now computed to be one and one-third times that of Texas.

Women's Golf

On Thursday, May 28, the lady golfers of the Rogue Valley Country Club participated in a three-club event which was the play for the day.

Winners were: A-group, Mrs. William Clark; B-group, Mrs. Frank Benesh; C-group, Mrs. B. D. Mitchell; D-group, a tie between Mrs. Al Williams and Mrs. Ralph Barclay, and nine-hole, Mrs. Anne Stewart.

On next Thursday, June 4, the Rogue Valley ladies will entertain women from Grants Pass Golf club.

A buffet will be served following the medal play and ladies are requested to make up their own games or make them up at the starting table.

About 1/150th of the earth's atmosphere is above an altitude of 100 miles.
