

Grange Speaker Urges Improving Public Relations

Baker - (UPI) - The Oregon State Grange was told Wednesday that the agriculture industry in Oregon and elsewhere could help its cause by improving its public relations program.

Jack Jackson, representing National Grange Master Herschel Newsom, said public relations involved more than issuing public releases to the press. "It involves explaining your policies and program as well."

Favors Wheat Plan
Jackson said the National Grange is in favor of the domestic parity, or two-price, plan for wheat. Efforts are being made to get President Eisenhower's approval of the program which he said would, if enacted, cut the large stockpiles, lower government spending and offer wheat as feed.

Elmer McClure, Oregon Grange master, said the people in Oregon do not understand the significance of agriculture to the state's basic economy. He, like Jackson, said more emphasis should be made to tell the story of agriculture to the people.

Today's and Friday's sessions will be devoted mostly to committee reports. Election of officers is scheduled next year.

Linn Sheriff To Bring Hunt Back For Oregon Trial

Albany, Ore. - (UPI) - Sheriff George Miller said today he hoped to leave sometime this week end for Wyoming to return Richard Allen Hunt, 26, to Oregon to face trial for wounding a police chief.

Hunt, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives, was arrested Tuesday while working on a ranch about 35 miles west of Thermopolis, Wyo. He is wanted in Oregon for the wounding last March of Brownsville Police Chief Robert Kennow and the abduction of Harrisburg Police Chief E. G. McPhee.

To Send Papers
District Attorney Courtney Johns said he would send extradition papers to the governor's office in Salem for forwarding to the Wyoming governor's office and that they should be in Wyoming by this week end.

Johns indicated federal authorities had given permission for Linn county to try Hunt, although he is wanted by federal authorities for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution and for interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle. The district attorney indicated Hunt first would be tried for wounding Kennow.

Miller said he would take a deputy with him to return Hunt. They will travel by car.

Delegates Leave For Convention

Delegates from Medford barracks 540, Veterans of World War I, and the auxiliary are in Albany today for the department convention which began this morning. It will continue through Saturday.

Leaving Medford yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Shell Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Graham and Mrs. James Cech.

Barracks Commander A. C. Lucas and Auxiliary President Mrs. Lucas, with others of the 12 elected delegates, will attend the Friday and Saturday sessions.

Graham, as department commander for the Disabled American Veterans, will continue to Portland for a pre-convention meeting with the committee in charge of arrangements for the DAV convention to be held in Salem June 25-27.

Marshall to Attend Musicians Meeting

J. Vernon Marshall, 815 West 12th st., will represent local 597, American Federation of Musicians, AFL-CIO, at the 62nd annual convention of the union in Seattle beginning June 15.

He is secretary, treasurer and business agent for the Medford local.

Delegates will hear reports by their president, Herman D. Kenin, and other officers and transact annual business.

Nearly 1,300 delegates will attend, representing some 700 locals and 265,237 professional musicians in the United States and Canada.
