

Trackmen Vie Tonight At Compton

Corvallis — (UPI) — Three Oregon State trackmen will compete tonight in the Compton Relays in California. They are broad jumper Darrell Horn, Rook javelin ace Gary Stenlund and high jumper Wayne Moss. Coach Sam Bell accompanied them.

Compton, Calif. — (UPI) — A great collection of track and field athletes wind up their early summer western invasion tonight in the 20th annual Compton Invitational meet, one of the top track events in the nation.

World record holders were scattered through numerous events ranging from the 440-yard dash to the pole vault and shot put and record performances were anticipated.

Perhaps the headline event was expected to be the 440 in which Glenn Davis, the Ohio State champion, will meet some of the outstanding quarter-milers in the world including his old rival, Eddie Southern of Texas.

Heading the pole vault field were Don Bragg, holder of the indoor record, and Bob Gutowski who set the world's mark of 15 feet 8 1/4 inches.

Dallas Long renews his shot put duel with world's champion Parry O'Brien, Bill Nieder and two other 60-footers, Dave Davis and Charley Butt.

Cepeda Drives In 7 Runs on 4 Hits In Giant Victory

By FRED TOWN
United Press International
They say Orlando Cepeda is just a growing boy but groggy National league pitchers insist he's a man-sized headache.

The pitchers don't look any sicker, however, than the experts who thought San Francisco's 21-year-old slugger might succumb to the "sophomore jinx."

It was Lew Burdette's turn to say "pass the aspirin, Cepeda" Thursday when Cepeda drove in seven runs with two homers, a double and a single in the Giants' 11-5 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

The Braves took an early 5-1 lead but Cepeda's two-run fourth-inning homer cut the margin to 5-3 and his three-run blast in the fifth put the Giants in front. Orlando doubled with the bases filled to drive in the Giants' last two runs in the eighth.

Braves' Lead Trimmed
The victory cut the Braves' first-place lead to 2 1/2 games. The Pittsburgh Pirates closed to within 3 1/2 games of the Braves with their 9-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, the Cincinnati Reds downed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-3, and the Chicago Cubs shaded the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, in the other NL action.

They'll be computing the American league standings with a slide rule soon because only 4 1/2 games and 96 percentage points separate first and seventh places. The Chicago White Sox' 6-5, 17-inning win over the Baltimore Orioles boosted them into first place with a .563 mark. The New York Yankees, who crushed Detroit, 14-3, are in seventh with a .467 average. And even the Boston Red Sox, who ended Kansas City's five-game streak, 5-2, aren't too far back at .435 and six games to make up.

Stu Miller shut out the Braves with three hits for the last five innings but the victory went to Gordon Jones, who was the "pitcher of record" when the Giants staged their decisive rally.

Homer, Triple Aid Buys
Bill Virdon's two-run homer and Bill Mazeroski's two-run triple were the key buys as the Pirates ran their winning streak to six games. Ron Klime yielded 13 hits but left 12 Cardinals stranded and went the distance for his fifth victory. One St. Louis hit was the 651st double of Stan Musial's career tying Honus Wagner's National league record.

Joe Nuxhall pitched an eight-hitter for the Reds who lathered Danny McDevitt for four runs and five hits in 1 1/3 innings to hand the Los Angeles left-hander his fifth setback.

The Cubs' Don Elston pitched hitless relief ball for 3 1/3 innings and won his fourth decision when Sammy Taylor's 10th-inning sacrifice fly delivered the winning run.

The four-hour and 37-minute marathon between the White Sox and Orioles ended when Earl Torgerson homered with two out in the 17th inning. Bob Shaw was the winner and Jerry Walker the loser.

Hector Lopez, hitting .375 since obtained from Kansas City, drove in four runs with a homer and a double as the Yankees scored their seventh victory in nine games. Pitcher Whitey Ford, who won his sixth game, and Elston Howard also homered for the Yankees.

Jerry Casale's seven-hit pitching helped the Red Sox defeat Rip Coleman his fourth defeat. Gary Geiger hit a four-run single and a solo homer as the last place Red Sox snapped a three-game losing streak.

IN SUNDAY CLINIC — Don Auxier, above, will be one of the participants in a Rogue Valley Tennis club clinic at Medford High school courts.

The clinic and exhibitions, free to the public, will be in observance of National Play Tennis Week sponsored by the U. S. Lawn Tennis association. Strokes will be demonstrated and two sets of singles and one set of doubles will be played. Other participants will be Ted Tibbutt, Phil Holman, Howard Dugan and Jerry and Dick Joy. Auxier will demonstrate the service. He is a former assistant manager of La Jolla, Calif., Tennis club.

Prep All-Star Grid Tickets Now Available

Portland — Tickets are available now for the annual Shriners' hospital all-star football game, scheduled for Aug. 15 in Portland's Multnomah stadium.

The pastebords are available at game headquarters, 1119 S.W. Park ave., Portland and can be obtained by mail, according to Mrs. Jo Ryan, who is again in charge of seat sales.

Seats for the colorful grid classic will be offered on a first come, first served basis, Mrs. Ryan stated, in urging persons to obtain their seats as soon as possible.

The game, with all proceeds going to the Shriners' hospital, features outstanding high school seniors of the Portland area against a team of State all-stars.

Tom DeSylvia of Portland's Jefferson high will coach the Metros and Fred Spiegelberg of Medford, the Staters.

GOLF COURSE AIM

Salem — (UPI) — Salem will have a new 18-hole golf course if Salem Development company, a newly formed corporation, can raise $300,000 by sale of stock. Head of the group is Dr. Owen G. Miller who hopes to sell 100 shares of no par value stock at $3000 a share. Salem Golf club is presently the city's only 18-hole course. Oak Knoll on the Dallas highway is a nine-hole course.

Cincinnati — (UPI) — It's official — Smoky Burgess is the major league's all-time best home-hitting pinch hitter. National league statistician Lou Krens certified Burgess' mark of 10 pinch homers during his career Thursday after a thorough check of the Pittsburgh Pirate catcher's career. Burgess hit his 10th pinch homer May 31 but the fact it was a record almost went unnoticed.

Radar 'Political Death'
Knoxville, Tenn. — (UPI) — Mayor John Duncan is risking "an early political death" by being tough on speeders, said former Mayor Cas Walker. Duncan has ordered full use of radar to catch speeders. Walker said he has restricted use of radar because "it is catching some of our best citizens."

Cheney Studs Play Roseburg Nine Here

Central Point Cheney Studs, with players from two communities, themselves, have a two-game stand this week end against a team drawing talent from four Douglas county high schools.

The CP American Legion junior baseballers will be hosts to Roseburg with games on Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. Games will be at Cheney field at the south edge of Medford.

Coach Bill Harper's Lockwood Motors contingent has players from Glide, Drain and Yoncalla as well as Roseburg.

Harper reported today that Bob Whipple, from Drain, may be his starting tosser on Saturday with John Livingston, from Glide, the likely choice for Sunday. Catcher may be Chuck Hiney, Roseburg, with Gene Wagner, Glide, first base, Tom Kolberg, Roseburg, second, Marlin Burgess, Roseburg, third, and Marvin French, Roseburg, shortstop.

Bob Scott, Roseburg, could be in left field and Jim Booth, Yoncalla, in right. Livingston is expected to be in the center pasture when not hurling and, when he is on the hill, Les Bogner, Glide, may patrol that portion of the field. Dave Cellars, Glide, is a catcher-infielder, who may see duty.

For Central Point, Coach Bill Askwith is expected to choose from among Denny Samples, John Anhorn and Bob King for pitching on Saturday with Bill Anhorn probably getting the call on Sunday.

The Studs are a squad of Central Point and Ashland players. An addition to the Cheney team is Mike Glines, infielder and outfielder, up from Central Point eighth grade. He has Southern Oregon junior baseball experience and at 14 is the youngest member of the Legion squad.

Lakeview junior legion players will be spectator guests of the Studs on Saturday evening. Lakeview has a Sunday date at Grants Pass and the team will stay overnight at the Jackson hotel here.

Co-Titles Due If Rain Halts Tilts

Portland — (UPI) — Three state high school baseball championships will be decided here Saturday night.

Defending class B champion Adrian gets things started off at 5 p.m. by meeting Gaston for the third straight year in the finals. At 7 p.m. Sutherlin plays Sherwood for the A-2 crown and at 9 p.m. Jefferson goes up against The Dalles for A-1 honors.

In case rain should halt the games the six teams will be declared co-champions.

Ring Suit Briefs Due

New York — (UPI) — Attorneys for fighters Ingemar Johansson and Eddie Machen were under instructions to file final briefs by 5 p.m. today in Machen's federal court suit to make Johansson go through with an alleged return-bout contract.

Testimony in the case, which threatens to cancel the scheduled June 25 heavyweight championship bout between European champion Johansson and Floyd Patterson, concluded Thursday.

Judge Irving Kaufman, who is hearing the case without a jury, is expected to hand down his decision within a week.

Final witness heard Thursday was Edwin Ahlquist, whose relationship to Johansson is a key factor in the case. It was Ahlquist who signed on Sept. 13 "as agent" for Johansson the return bout contract on which Machen, of Redding, Calif., bases his suit.

Ahlquist testified Thursday that Johansson did not authorize me to sign that paper of Sept. 13. He said he thought he could "talk Johansson into taking this fight."

Shrine Links Tourney Slated

Salem — The ninth annual Shrine hospital benefit golf tournament which is sponsored by the Salem Shrine club will be held June 6 and 7 at Salem Golf Club.

More than three dozen golf clubs have been notified and many requests for registration blanks have been filled. About 300 golfers participate in this event each year and all the proceeds go to the Shrine hospital for crippled children.
