

Dodgers Nip Braves 3-2 On Singles

Milwaukee (UP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers pushed across two runs in the eighth on four successive singles to beat the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2, Saturday and extend the defending champion's losing string to three, their longest of the season.

Wally Moon, who had driven in the Dodgers' first run with a double in the sixth got the fourth hit in the eighth to score Junior Gilliam with a run that put his team ahead. Moon's single came off left-hander Juan Pizarro, who had just relieved Bob Rush, the Braves' starting pitcher.

Until the eighth inning, however, a two-base throwing error by rookie shortstop Maurice Wills, who joined the Dodgers today, threatened to be their downfall. Wills, a product of the Spokane farm club, uncoiled his wild throw in the sixth when he threw the ball into right field after retrieving Del Crandall's hit.

Andy Pafko, who opened the inning with a single, scored all the way from first and Crandall got all the way to third before outfielder Duke Snider got the ball back into the infield. Felix Mantilla then scored Crandall easily with a fly to left.

Sandy Koufax, the Dodger left-hander who hasn't finished a game and won since September of 1956, got through seven innings before he was benched for a pinch hitter in the eighth. Clem Labine finished up with two innings of hitless pitching to give Koufax his second victory against a loss.

For Rush it was a familiar story. Since 1955 he hasn't pitched a complete game against the Dodgers and in his only previous appearance against them this year he beat them in relief.

Pinch batter Norm Larker got the Dodger rally started in the eighth with a single. He was replaced by pinch runner Solly Drake, who went to third on Gilliam's third of four hits. Charlie Neal scored him with a single to right-center.

Fight Promoter In Hospital From Mystery Beating

Los Angeles (UP) — Fight promoter Jackie Leonard, speaking from a hospital bed where he is undergoing treatment for a mysterious beating, urged all promoters, managers and fighters Saturday "to have the guts" to get rid of gangsters in the boxing world.

Leonard, 39, was beaten on the head at his home last Wednesday night a few weeks after he testified that eastern gangsters Frankie Carbo and Blinky Palermo had threatened him if he did not cut them in on the contract of welterweight champion Don Jordan.

"If all boxing promoters, managers and fighters would come forward we could get rid of these guys (the gangsters) pretty quick," Leonard said. "They will, if they have any guts."

Leonard, suffering from partial paralysis of the right side of his face and right hand because of head injuries, was asked if he thought Carbo ordered the beating.

"I don't know whether he ordered it or not," he replied, "but I think he's responsible for it."

Leonard, speaking in a halting voice, said that he would be willing to testify again as he did last month for the California State Athletic Commission, and he said he might be able to "tell more."

He declined to say what more information he had available on gangsterism in boxing. Making Examination

Dr. Louis Benson, one of Leonard's physicians, said spinal taps and brain readings are being studied to determine the extent of injury. He said Leonard would be in Park View hospital for at least two more weeks.

Leonard who lay flat on his back and barely opened his eyes during the press conference in his hospital room crowded with sports writers and photographers, said he suffers from "double vision" in his right eye but can read newspapers with his left eye.

It was a trip from his home to pick up a newspaper that led to the beating.

He was supposed to notify his police bodyguard whenever he left his home but neglected to do so last Wednesday evening. After he put his car in the garage he was talking. He said he heard two men talking behind him when he was hit but could not identify the voices.

After he testified before the athletic commission and before he received three threatening telephone calls, all in the same male voice which he said he did not recognize.

Prior to his testimony, he received calls from Palermo and Carbo. He said Carbo threatened to "tear my eyeballs out" if he testified about the attempt to gain a part of Jordan's contract.

Leonard said he was apparently picked as a go-between in the gangster's attempt to get a share of Jordan's contract because he was a good friend of Don Nesbett, manager of the welterweight champion.

TENNIS EXHIBITION HERE TODAY—Tod Tibbutt, above, will be one of six top players of southern Oregon taking part in a tennis clinic and exhibition this afternoon at Medford Senior High school courts. The event is set for 1:30 p.m. and will be sponsored by Rogue Valley Tennis club in observance of National Play Tennis Week. The week, under auspices of the U.S. Lawn Tennis association, marks the 85th year of the sport. Tibbutt won the Rogue Valley club's winter tourney and heads the current ladder. The ex-Oregon State college player will demonstrate the forehand stroke and will play a single set match against Phil Holman. The latter is an ex-pro who played and taught in the San Francisco area. Holman will show the backhand and will team with Howard Dugan against Dick and Jerry Joy in doubles. Don Auxier, former assistant manager of La Jolla Tennis club, will demonstrate the service and will play Dugan in a singles set. Dugan will show the overhead stroke and volley.

have rough games with their Oregon Collegiate conference foes, but the list of independents appears powerful. Besides Portland State, Oregon Tech, Oregon College of Education, and Eastern Oregon college in the loop, the Raiders have Linfield, Eastern Washington, Chico State and Humboldt State on their slate.

SOC Gridders Meet Hawaii on Sept. 17

Ashland — Southern Oregon college will face the roughest football schedule in history next fall. It kicks off its nine game grid chart with a contest against the University of Hawaii on Sept. 17 at Medford.

SOC Coach Al Akins figures 12 to 15 Red Raiders will return. A flock of gridders from around the state are expected to enroll.

The Raiders not only will have rough games with their Oregon Collegiate conference foes, but the list of independents appears powerful.

Schedule: Sept. 17—Hawaii at Medford; Sept. 26—Chico State at Chico; Oct. 3—Linfield at McMinnville; Oct. 10—Portland State at Portland; Oct. 17—Oregon Tech at Ashland; Oct. 24—Oregon College of Education at Astland (SOC Homecoming); Oct. 31—Eastern Oregon College at LaGrande; Nov. 7—Eastern Washington college at Ashland; Nov. 14—Humboldt State at Ashland.

Cummings, Schroeder Net Victors

Gary Cummings and John Shaw and Bob Schroeder will represent Medford on June 20 and 21 in the Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce Tennis tournament at Corvallis.

Cummings and Schroeder took singles honors in the Medford Jaycee tourney here on Saturday and Shaw, who lost in the semi-finals, will join Cummings in state doubles.

In yesterday's finals Cummings defeated John Harvey, 6-3, 6-0 for the junior division title. Schroeder defeated Steve Hubler, 6-4, 6-2 for the boys division crown.

Semi-finals in the junior class saw Cummings top Shaw 6-3, 6-3 and Harvey defeat Jim Randles 6-2, 6-2. In quarter-finals Cummings beat Henry Olson 6-2, 6-1. Shaw won from Harry Taylor 6-1, 6-2. Randles subdued Wally West 6-3, 6-4 and Harvey beat John McKinley 6-2, 6-2.

Schroeder and Hubler, who played this spring for McLoughlin Junior High, were the only entries in the division for boys who were not 15 before January 1, 1959. West, from Eagle Point, was the only participant from outside the Medford district. Junior division was for boys not 18 before Jan. 1.

Bob Huff was tournament director here and will take the Medford entrants to Corvallis.

Lockwood, Cheney Legion Finish Series Here Today

Bill Anhorn was slated to be on the pitching mound today for the Cheney Studs when the Central Point American Legion crew completed its two-game baseball stand with Rosewood Lockwood Motors here.

The game is set for 2 p.m. at Cheney field at the south edge of town. Roseburg and Central Point vied on the same diamond last night.

Lockwood is expected to have either John Livingston or Bob Whipple on the hill, depending on who tossed last night. Coach Bill Harper indicated Friday that Whipple would get the call last night.

Potentially Strong
Livingston and Whipple are members of what Bill Gould of the Roseburg News-Review terms a potentially strong pitching staff. The others are Jerry Halladay, back from last year, and Ron Lake a rookie Legion player.

Roseburg is playing its first game of the season this week.

Patterson 3-1 Favorite

New York (UP) — New York bookmakers have made Floyd Patterson a 3-1 favorite to whip Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in their world heavyweight title bout at Yankee Stadium June 25. A bookmaker said there is "very little betting action" on the fight.

Grossinger, N.Y. (UP)—Ingemar Johansson finally unlimbered his right hand Friday and the results were devastating.

The Swedish heavyweight became angered with sparmate Clarence Floyd's roughness during a training session for his title fight with champion Floyd Patterson June 25. Johansson buckled Floyd's knees four times with solid rights to the chin and his sparmate was visibly shaken at the completion of his two-round stint.

It marked the first time during his training that the handsome Swede displayed his explosive right-hand punches. He has been concentrating mainly on sharpening his left jabs and left hooks in recent weeks.

Dodgers, Gians, Phillies And Cubs Take Games

By United Press International
San Francisco climbed within a game and a half of first place in the National league Saturday by trouncing Cincinnati, 13-3, while collecting 18 hits and getting steady eight-hit pitching from Sam Jones.

Leon Wagner put the Giants ahead with a three-run homer off loser Bob Purkey in the first inning and the winners went on to score in all but three innings.

Jones gained his sixth victory against five losses, striking out seven batters and yielding all of Cincinnati's runs in the third inning when an error by shortstop Andre Rodgers set them up.

The Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Milwaukee, 3-2, to extend the Braves' losing streak to three games.

Wally Moon doubled home the Dodgers' first run in the sixth inning and then singled home Junior Gilliam with the winning run in the eighth. Moon's single came off Juan Pizarro, who had just relieved Bob Rush. Sandy Koufax went seven innings for the Dodgers and picked up his second victory with relief from Clem Labine. Rush was charged with his first loss after four victories. Phillies Win

Dave Philley's pinch single with the bases loaded in the 10th inning gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 win over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Robin Roberts, who evened his season record at 4-4, gave up two runs in the first inning on four hits and a walk but settled down and yielded only a homer by Ken Boyer in the sixth thereafter. Boyer's homer, his 11th of the year, tied the score at 3-3. Harry Anderson clouted his fifth homer for the Phils. Reliever Lindy McDaniel suffered his eighth loss.

The Chicago Cubs staked Moe Drabovskiy to six runs in the first inning and he went on to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-2, with a seven-hit effort.

Eleven Cub batters went to the plate in the big first inning as Bennie Daniels went down to his fourth defeat. Tony Taylor singled twice during the frame but the big blows were Walt Moryn's homer, Ernie Banks' triple and Sammy Taylor's double.

Pittsburgh's only two runs came as a result of solo homers by reliever Ron Blackburn in the seventh and Roman Mejias in the ninth.

Tiger Draws Video Bout With Calhoun
By JACK CUDDY
New York (UP)—Matchmaker Teddy Brenner wants to pair middleweight Dick Tiger of Nigeria with Boston's Paul Pender "as soon as possible," although the British Empire champion was held to a draw in his American debut at the Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Judging by their boos, most of the 2,000 fans in the Garden seemed to think that the stocky Negro from East Africa should have been awarded a decision over ex-contender Rory Calhoun, instead of a draw.

And a poll of 15 sports writers at the ringside showed eight for Tiger, four for Calhoun and three for a draw. Relentless Hooks Nigerian Jack, fighting from a semi-crouch, beat Calhoun at close quarters with a relentless left hook.

He staggered Rory in the second and third rounds, almost lifting him off his feet in the fourth, beat him in the exchanges in the fifth and seventh, rocked him four times in the eighth and had an edge in the 10th.

Judge Bill Reht favored Tiger on the rounds voting, 6-3-1; but Judge Bill Forst had Calhoun ahead, 5-4-1; and Referee Mark Conn called it even on rounds, 5-5, and on points, 5-5. The UPI scored 6-3-1 for Tiger.

Indians Hit Padres 4-3

San Diego (UP) — Tommy Davis scored in the 10th inning Saturday on a sacrifice fly to give the Spokane Indians a 4-3 triumph over the San Diego Padres in a Pacific Coast league game.

Davis opened the inning for the Indians with a sharp double to left. When catcher Al Jones tried to pick him off second, the throw went into center field and Davis moved to third. He scored one out later when Steve Bilko filed to center.

The Indians drew first blood in the second — on a single run, but had to come from behind to win. The Padres scored three in the third to take command.

In the third, Don Dillard homered with Rod Graber and Dick Smith on base. Graber had walked and Smith was on a walk.

But the Indians came back in the fourth with two to even it up. Bilko doubled, Al Norris tripled and Tony Rogie filed out in that inning.

Roger Craig went the route for the winners, scoring his fifth win. He allowed only four hits. Lefty Dick Stigman absorbed the loss — his eighth — for the Padres.

The lowest official temperature ever recorded was a 102.7 degrees below zero on the South Pole Sept. 17, 1957.

HILLSDALE CAPTURES ARGONAUT HANDICAP

Inglewood, Calif. (UP) — Hillsdale, shut off behind horses for most of the race, came through with a powerful stretch charge Saturday to capture the $54,700 Argonaut handicap at Hollywood park by some two lengths.

While a crowd of 50,000 gasped in amazement, Hillsdale had to come from next to last in the field of eight to score his third straight stakes win of the meeting and seventh of the year. And as they were led to the winner's circle, Hillsdale was given a strong hand of applause for his brilliant win.

Despite carrying top weight of 128 pounds, more than he had ever carried before, Hillsdale raced the mile in the brilliant time of 1:34.3/5 to catch the pace-setting fleet Nasrullah midway down the stretch and pull away. How

Now was third and Terrang was fourth.
The victory and the ride was as much a tribute to Jockey Tommy Barrow as it was to Hillsdale's stubborn determination. The lanky rider skillfully bided his time until the stretch and then set down the Indiana-bred colt with skill to catch the leader.

Sent off an 8.5 favorite, Hillsdale returned $5.30, $3.30 and $2.60 across the board. Fleet Nasrullah paid $6.50 and $4.90 for place and show and How Now returned $5.70 for show.
