Foster-Smith Ceremony Held in Medford Church

An event of May 30 was the wedding of Miss Janeth Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Niles B. Smith, 8 Richmond avenue, and Stephen Edward Foster, son of Mrs. Virginia Foster, Woodland, Calif., and L. B. Foster, Sacramento, Calif. The ceremony was held at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites attended by 200 relatives and friends. Edgar Thomas, Sigma Nu fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was soloist.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown with chapel train and her veil was held by a lace and seed pearl cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy. Mr. Smith gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Linda Smith was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Miss Mardi Meyers of Medford and San Francisco; Miss Sandra Hubbard, and Mrs. Joe Francis, Corvallis. They wore white eyelet embroidery frocks over yellow cotton satin with yellow headresses. They carried nosegay bouquets of white daisies and ivy. Dana Bessonette was flower girl. She wore a white net.

The afternoon was spent at cards. Present were Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, Mrs. Ross Gilkison, Mrs. Eugene Dyke, Mrs. Don Ashpole, Mrs. Stuart Penington, Mrs. Rodney Whitam, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Frank Little, Mrs. Drucilla Haverstick, Mrs. Glen Bailey, Mrs. Carl Oestreich, Mrs. Della Denney and Mrs. Loyd Caton.

Miss Stevens Honored Guest At Recent Party

Miss Rosemary Stevens was honored Wednesday evening, May 27, at a bridal shower given in the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Underwood, 3607 Delta Waters road. Co-hostess was Mrs. Ray Davis.

The marriage of Miss Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Stevens, Butte Falls Star route, Eagle Point, to Byron Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, Park Place No. 5, Medford, was set for Saturday, June 6.

A "this is your life" theme was used along with the bridal motif as decorations for the occasion. Pictures of the honoree taken during the various ages of her lifetime and a bridal doll with arrangements of frills, which formed an aisle, made the background for the gift table. Miss Stevens was assisted at the gift table by Miss Lauraine Davis. The guest of honor was surprised when a prologue of her life was given during the evening.

At the refreshment table pink tapers in holders trimmed with nosegays of clover blossoms flanked the cake.

Guests from Eagle Point, besides the honoree, were her mother and two sisters, Mrs. Fred N. Stevens and Pamela and Diana Stevens, Mrs. Raymond Robertson, Miss Jeanette Robertson, Mrs. Kermit De Hass and Mrs. Ray Schermerhorn; Mrs. Harold Greb, Talent; and Mrs. Lester Wakeman and daughter, Leslie, Gold Hill.

Attending from Medford were Mrs. Richard Mulhollen, Mrs. James Mulhollen, Mrs. Fred Stevens Sr., Mrs. Jess Boggs, Mrs. Oscar Nordstrom, Mrs. Henry Peck, Mrs. Jake Nelson, Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Fred Nelson, Mrs. Claude Stevens, Mrs. Henry Stevens, Mrs. Fred Farlow, Miss Sandy Farlow, Miss Lois Farlow, Mrs. Dale Pratt, Mrs. Carl Black, Miss Carleen Black, Mr. Davis' mother Mrs. Ray Davis, the hostess and her three children, Tim, Laurie and Linda Underwood.

Washington PTA Honors Faculty

The executive board of Washington Parent-Teachers association gave a luncheon for the school faculty in the school cafeteria June 4.

Robert Sage, principal, presented Mrs. Kenneth Blair, unit president, with an orchid corsage from the faculty in appreciation for her work and cooperation during the past year.

Mrs. Blair announced that Mrs. Fred Walker, Mrs. Robert Butler and Mr. Sage are leaving the faculty of the school this year. Mrs. Walker will teach at Lincoln, Mrs. Butler at Oak Grove, and Mr. Sage will be principal at Roosevelt school.

Mr. Sage presented the new Washington school principal, Ronald Weatherford, to the group. Mr. Weatherford is presently the principal from the West Side school.

Approximately 50 members of the faculty and executive board attended the event.
