

Fifth Annual Rose Show To Be Tuesday at School

Medford Rose society's fifth annual rose show will be held at the Medford Senior High school cafeteria Tuesday, June 9th.

Entries will be accepted beginning at 7 a.m. and must be in place for judging at 10 a.m. Containers will be furnished for all exhibits except arrangements, vases of 12 and old fashioned roses. Everyone is invited to visit the show which will be open to the public from 1:30 until 9 p.m. and rose growers are urged to exhibit their blooms. Committee members will be on hand to help and give all necessary advice.

Specimen exhibition blooms must have been grown dibbled; climbers, grandifloras, floribundas and single hybrid teas are shown as they grow. According to the society, ideal stage for exhibition purposes is a bud one-half to three-fourths open, with gracefully shaped petals and a well formed center, fresh and firm, with true color of the variety, large enough to be a good specimen of the variety, with stem adequate to hold the bloom upright, with several five or seven-leaflet leaves. Foliage should be clean and free of insect or disease injury or unsightly spray or dust residue. All exhibits must be correctly named, and will be judged in accordance with the rules of the American Rose society's score of points.

One division of the show will be "old fashioned" roses and anyone having old roses is urged to bring them to the show. The division of "Floral Arrangements" featuring roses, is open to all persons, with one section for Jackson County Garden clubs. Roses must be garden grown, but need not be grown by the arrangers. Eight different classifications are included in the arrangement section, and entries will be judged in accordance with ARS scale of points for rose arrangements.

The division covering exhibiting of floribundas and grandifloras has been changed this year. Floribundas are now classed according to color, and grandifloras may be shown as single specimens.

Trophies are to be awarded the winners at 8 p.m. These are now on display in the window of Lawrence's store.

Any further information regarding the show can be obtained from the rose show co-chairmen, Mrs. R. H. Travis or Eldred Peyton.

Bravos Greet Russian Ballet

San Francisco - (AP) - The Bolshoi Ballet will give the final performance of these in the War Memorial Opera House today. Full houses greeted the troupe.

The Moscow troupe opened its three day run Friday night with a performance of "Giselle." A standing-room only crowd greeted the performance with wild applause and saluted the company's renowned star, Galina Ullanova, who danced the title role, with a chorus of "bravos."

Hamburger Puts on Dog

New York - (AP) - Hamburgers with a hot dog look make 1 1/2 pounds ground beef go a long way. Combine beef with 1/4 cup uncooked rolled oats, quick or old-fashioned, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper and 1 cup tomato juice. Shape into 8 fingers, 1 1/2 by 5 inches, and place on broiler rack 4 or 5 inches from heat source. Broil 8 minutes, turn and broil 5 minutes more, for medium doneness. Serve on hot dog buns.

Mrs. Eltron Waldron, 2399 Springbrook road, hopes to have a perfect blossom from this Michelle Meiland bush for the fifth annual rose show of Medford Rose society. The show will be held Tuesday, June 9, in the cafeteria at Medford High school; the public is invited to exhibit roses, and to attend the show. The Michelle Meiland is a pale pink rose. Mrs. Waldron is one of the newer members of the Rose society, and is now serving as treasurer.

Here Comes Modern Bride Dressed Like Her Grandma

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

New York - (AP) - Shades of the gaslight era. Today's chic bride wears a wedding dress copied right from grandma's day.

Sleeves in summer bridal gowns sometimes take on leg o'mutton lines reminiscent of those puffed jobs worn by the Gibson girl in the 1890's. Skirts are the most lavish in many a season, with bows or tiers or in some collections even the bustle.

"This season's bridal gowns have a quaint, almost Victorian elegance about them," said Murray Hamburger, a leading New York manufacturer. Hamburger, bridal gown specialist for 23 years, turns out 20 to 25,000 wedding dresses each year.

"Most of them have lavish backs and simple fronts. There are a few shirtwaists," said Hamburger.

"There are plenty of puffs and draping at the back. For a good reason, I think. Designers are giving more attention to the rear of skirts, because wedding guests see the back of the bride longer than the front anyway."

Unpressed pleats "cascade" into short trains. Other full-length dresses have smooth-fitting, figure-moulding fronts with high-rising waistlines and Watteau backs. One of this Watteau group, from Cahill of New York, features four tiers of Swiss organdy sweeping from just below the back of the neck into a train.

Embroidery, a major trend in daytime fashions this year, runs through the bridal collections also. Eyelet embroidery

Easy on the Budget

New York - A gourmet meal on a slim budget might feature broiled marinated chicken. Place 2 broiler-fryers, quartered, in shallow pan. Pour over marinade made of 1 cup salad oil, 1/3 cup vinegar, 1/2 teaspoon each dry mustard and paprika, 1 teaspoon each salt and monosodium glutamate, 1/4 teaspoon tabasco and 1 crushed garlic clove. Chill at least 2 hours. Remove from marinade, place skin down on broiler rack about 6 inches from heat source. Broil 15 minutes, basting often with marinade. Turn, broil 15 minutes more, or until chicken is tender, continuing to baste. Serves 4.

was married during the depression years. But her grandmother's was a happy time... so she copies from it."

Leading fabrics for summer are organdies, organzas and laces. For fall, satin is traditional, but Hamburger said there is a growing popularity for silk peau de soie—"which actually is becoming a year round fabric."
