State Police Office Open 24 Hours Daily

The Medford district office of the Oregon State Police is open 24-hours, 7-days a week, local state police officers reminded residents today.

It was reported that the office had received calls lately from residents who believed that state police assistance was only available 40 hours a week and that the office was closed at night.

Local officials explained that the misunderstanding might have been due to recent state legislation putting state patrolmen on a 40-hour week. This legislation will not change the operating hours of the state police force, it was reported.
