Strongest Amateur Field Challenges Pros in U.S. Open

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Mamaroneck, N. Y. — (UPI) — The strongest amateur contingent in 26 years challenged the field for the 59th U.S. Open championship today, but the betting was that none of them would make it.

Only five amateurs in the long history of the tournament ever have made it — the last one in 1933 when Johnny Goodman won at Omaha.

This time, 26 of them, led by U.S. amateur champion Charley Coe, the thin man from Oklahoma and British Amateur King Dean Beman, the collegiate golfer whiz from the University of Maryland, are competing against 124 professionals. Percentage-wise it is the largest amateur representation the Open ever has seen.

"But it won't do them any good," said defending champion Tommy Bolt. "They just don't seem to be good enough."

"Best Chance Ever"

Despite the opinion of Bolt and most other pros, Harvie Ward, a two-time winner of the Simon-Pure title competing in his seventh Open, maintained that "this is the best chance we ever have had."

Coe was listed as a 25-1 shot along with such pros as Bo Wynning, Bob Goalby, Don Whit, Walter Burkemo, Claude Harmon, Tommy Jacobs and a host of others who have won some of the major pro golf titles.

Ward was listed at 30-1, and in that company were such as former U.S. Open champion Jack Fleck, former PGA title-holder Chick Herbert and others.

"At least, they are in select company," commented young Jack Nicklaus, a U.S. Walker Cupper who insisted "a lot of us have a chance."

Bowling Lanes Baseball Club Plays Camp White

Dennis Barr, all-state pitcher from Medford high, is scheduled to make his mound debut with the Medford Bowling Lanes baseball team tonight.

The Medford semi-pro club meets Camp White at the Veterans Administration Memorial stadium at 8 p.m. at Camp White. Both clubs are members of the Rogue Valley league but this will be a non-counting game.

Barr, who was the top hurler on the Medford high state semi-finalist club this spring, has completed his Black Toro career and will be a twirler for the State team against the Metropolitan club in the second annual prep all-star game at Eugene on June 27. He pitched for the Rogue Valley all-stars last summer on completion of the American Legion Junior baseball state.

Brown or Sanford

On the hill for Camp White may be either Jack Brown or Don Sanford.

Medford lanes tipped the Whitters in a practice tiff at the start of the season.

Another player who has just finished at Medford high could be in the line-up for Medford this evening. He is outfielder George Lee, who was one of the top hitters for the Tornado and, like Barr, an all-conference choice. Another ex-Medfordite, infielder Larry Perkins, is expected to join the keggers this week end. He has been playing at Clark Junior college.

Silky Sullivan In Stakes Race

Inglewood, Calif. — (UPI) — Silky Sullivan will try to turn back the clock at Hollywood Park Thursday when the stretch-running sensation of 1958 makes his first stakes start in more than a year.

Trainer Reggie Cornell, a patient man with a horse, believes Silky finally is ready to try his luck in an added money race and chose the $25,000 Golden State Breeder's Handicap as a suitable medium.

With a field of about seven indicated for the mile and a sixteenth race, Silky's chief competition would appear to be Ying and Yang which finished two heads back of Hillsdale in the $112,900 California.

Jockey Willie Shoemaker accepted the mount on Silky whom he rode to victory in the Santa Anita Derby a year ago and then saw him nose-dive into the ranks of "also-rans" in the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

Roy Harris Bout Victor

Houston, Tex. — (UPI) — Heavyweight Roy Harris, the former backwoods Texas schoolteacher, left for active duty with the United States Army today still savoring his unanimous decision over Charley Powell.

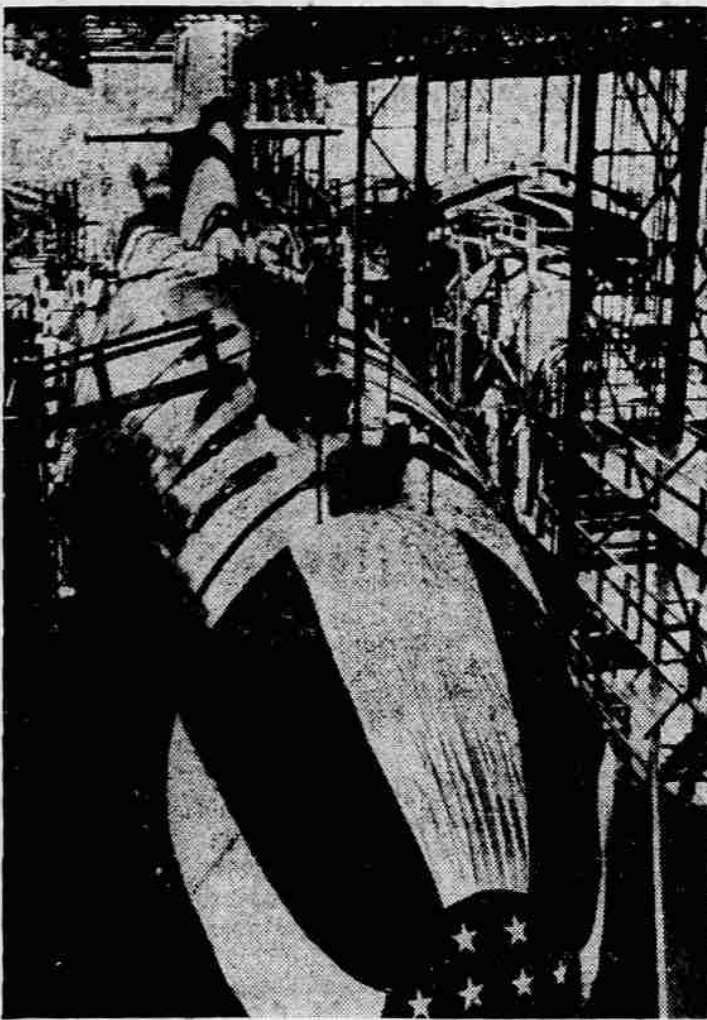

Harris feels his lop-sided victory over Powell, a former professional football player with the San Francisco '49ers, puts him in line for another shot at the heavyweight title.

Champion Floyd Patterson is the only fighter that holds a victory over Harris in his professional career.

Harris left today for two weeks at summer camp as part of his duties as a second lieutenant in the Army Reserve.

Tuesday night, the 195-pound Cut 'n Shoot, Tex., slugger used his left hand to carve up the former professional defensive end from San Diego, Calif., in 10 rounds.

He battered the 212-pound Powell with rapier-like left jabs and hooks and opened a bad cut beneath Powell's right eye midway in the bout. The cut kept bleeding the rest of the way.

POISED FOR LAUNCHING—The George Washington, the Navy's first atomic submarine equipped to launch ballistic missiles, is pictured on the ways of the General Dynamics Shipyard, Groton, Conn. Bunting has been attached to the bow for launching ceremony.

Two other pros, Ookie Ellison, Tacoma, and Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, Ore., were right behind with 143's. Eyllason shot a 74 Tuesday to go with his opening round of 69 and Porterfield came in with a 70 to go with a 73 on Monday.

At 144 were amateurs Bill O'Brien, Seattle, and Jim Everham of Earlington and professionals Charley Congdon, Tacoma, and Ray Bennett, Seattle.

In the 145 group were Bob Duden, Oswego, Ore., Joe Greer, Yakima, Al Thompson, Vancouver, B.C., Tom Marlowe, Portland, and Dick Williams, Overlake.

The cutoff point was 155.

Eggers Leader In Washington Open Golf Mix

Seattle — (UPI) — Sixty-two golfers teed off this morning in the final 36 holes of the Washington State Open Golf tournament at Overlake Golf course with Bill Eggers, Portland, leading the pack.

Eggers toured the 18-hole layout with a two-under-par 69 Tuesday for a two-day total of 142.

Two other pros, Ookie Ellison, Tacoma, and Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, Ore., were right behind with 143's. Eyllason shot a 74 Tuesday to go with his opening round of 69 and Porterfield came in with a 70 to go with a 73 on Monday.

The cutoff point was 155.

McGintys Head Pistol Shooting

The McGinty brothers dominated last night's practice pistol shoot of Medford Rifle and Pistol club with Hugh McGinty leading the high five with 274 out of a possible 300.

Ed McGinty was second with 261. Tom Staley fired 257. Joe Rinard 249 and Jim Bolton 246.

There will be a regular rifle practice tonight.

On Friday evening there will be no shooting as the monthly members' meeting will take place. Two motion pictures will be shown, "Pistol Bulls" and an instruction film on pistol shooting, and "Alaska Big Game Hunting." The meeting starts at 8 p.m. All interested are invited.

Beavers Drop Tiff, But Bats Give Hope

United Press International
The Portland Beavers have their batting eyes for certain now and if their pitching can just return to its recent form they're apt to make a bid for the Pacific Coast league pennant.

Portland dropped its second straight to Salt Lake City Tuesday night, 10-8, as left-hander George Brunet lost his fifth straight game. But for the second night in a row Salt Lake had to chop off a Beaver ninth-inning rally. This time Portland fell short with two runs.

But the strong Beaver hitting continued. Jim Greengrass smashed a three-run homer in the fourth and George Freese, the league leading hitter, hit his 11th in the eighth.

Portland maintained its third place position, half a game ahead of Phoenix and Vancouver. The Beavers are now 4½ games from the top.

Sacramento, showing signs of slipping, dropped a 5-2 decision to Spokane. San Diego downed Vancouver 6-1 and Phoenix took Seattle 10-9.

The Solons have now lost four straight. They have scored just seven runs in those games and have made 25 hits. And none of the Solon hurlers has been able to go the route.

Tuesday night, Spokane's Connie Grob kept them solidly in check. He pitched his seventh win in 10 decisions while giving up nine scattered hits. Tommy Davis provided the Indian plate punch with three hits, including a two-run triple in the eighth inning.

The improving San Diego Padres, who have been getting usable help from Cleveland during the past month, got a great hitting and hurling job from fireballing Bobby Locke.

Pitcher Connects

He smashed three hits — one his first homer of the season — as he tossed his fourth straight mound win to move his record to 6-3. Bill Moran hit a double and a homer for the Padres.

Veteran Sal Taormina and Bill Wilson slammed back to back homers in the ninth inning to give Phoenix its 10-9 win over Seattle.

The Giants jumped off to a 6-0 lead in the second inning then the Rainiers battled back to tie the contest in the fourth and then go ahead 9-8 in the eighth. Ed Winceniak and Hal Bevan hit for the circuit for the Rainiers and Jose Pagan hit his 10th homer of the season for Phoenix.

Marcelino Solis, who came on in relief in the seventh inning, was credited with his fourth win against two setbacks.

A big seventh inning that saw five Salt Lake runners cross the plate was responsible for the Bees' victory over Portland. R. C. Stevens belted a three run double for the big blow of the rally. Portland slugger George Freese and Jim Greengrass belted homers to keep the Beavers in the game but it was not enough to offset the 13 hit Bee offense.

Washington — (UPI) — Herschel D. Newsom, master of the National Grange outlined the Grange's wheat program to President Eisenhower Friday in an effort to "help break this stalemate" over wheat legislation.

Newsom said afterward he believed the Grange's proposal offered the best chance of cutting the cost of the government program while guarding against a decline in farm income.

Washington — (UPI) — The Agriculture Department reported that wholesale prices for fluid milk averaged $5.12 a hundredweight in early May—the same price reported one year ago.

Retail milk prices in 25 major cities averaged 25.2 cents a quart early this month, two-tenths of a cent above prices a year earlier.

Washington — (UPI) — The state athletic commission will conduct the hearings, which are expected to feature Ralph Gambina, who "bought in" on the contract of heavy-weight contender Rubeen Vargas for $500.

The commission does not have anything listed on its agenda that would call for further discussion of the promoter Jackie Leonard case. But Gov. Brown does.

Leonard, who testified before the commission last month that Eastern mobsters, including Frankie Carbo and Blinky Palermo, were trying to muscle into the fight game, still is recovering from a beating he received after the testimony.

Determined

"I'm determined that that kind of activity finds no place in California," said Brown. "I'm going to ask Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk to assign some of his investigators to the athletic commission to find the answers on who made that attack on Leonard."

The governor also said that he would call in the U.S. department of justice on the national aspects of hoodlumism in boxing after the state gets into the investigation.

On a 24-point commission hearing agenda, Gambina is slated to be under discussion at least four or five times. The commission will consider fining him for conduct at a recent match in Palm Springs; ask him to clarify some of his charges that "fighters opposing a Sid Flaherty boxer in San Francisco can't get an even break"; ask him why Larry Boardman, whom he manages, withdrew from the June 13 fight in Los Angeles; and how he purchased an interest in Vargas for $500.

Portland — (UPI) — Clyde Perkins, head of a new minor league organization, said today it was not the intent of the group in any way to impede the operation of baseball or do anything detrimental to its interests.

Perkins, vice president of the Portland team of the Pacific Coast league, is president of the organization called the Independent Baseball Clubs association.

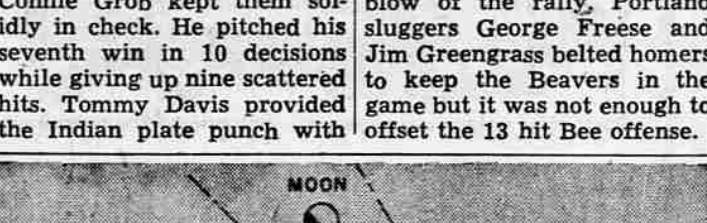

He was replying to criticism by George Trautman, head of the minor leagues, who was quoted as calling the IBCA a "maverick" organization which may do more harm than good by having an upsetting effect on work being done to create a new fund for minor league clubs.

Perkins said, "I have just read Mr. Trautman's press release, stating that 'a house divided against itself cannot stand.' I agree 100 per cent, for today the baseball house is divided, between the haves and the have-nots. Unless the haves realize the position of the have-nots, then baseball could easily be doomed."

He said, "we believe the majors are shortsighted in letting the minors continuously, one after another, go broke. They are driving our customers from our ball parks especially with their 'Saturday and Sunday TV.'"

Added Perkins, "for this loss of patronage we feel they should divide with us the money received for such an invasion of our territories, and is there anything rebellious, revolutionary, threatening or maverickish to that?"

California Governor Plans Probe

San Francisco — (UPI) — The probe on "gangland pressure" in the boxing industry got under way here today—pushed along with the announcement by Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown that he would have special investigators assigned to study the problems.

The state athletic commission will conduct the hearings, which are expected to feature Ralph Gambina, who "bought in" on the contract of heavy-weight contender Rubeen Vargas for $500.

The commission does not have anything listed on its agenda that would call for further discussion of the promoter Jackie Leonard case. But Gov. Brown does.

Solons Slump; Lead Narrows

United Press International
Take away a couple of timely hits and the sharp edge from the pitching and you have a team in a slump . . . the Sacramento Solons.

The Solons have been on top of the PCL since the season opened. They've never been spectacular. They don't overpower you. They score with a key double, the sacrifice fly, and they make the most of their opponents' mistakes. Their pitching has been sharp and steady and it has had to be because the Solons don't walk away with many games in the early innings.

But the Solons are in a slump now and their lead is down to only one and half games over the persistent San Diego Padres. They were beaten Tuesday night 5-2 by Spokane.
