

3-Run Bunt Helps Boost Orioles Into Deadlock for First Place

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Shades of John McGraw and the other fabled old Orioles, but did you see how the modern Orioles stormed into first place on a three-run bunt?

Willie Keeler himself never laid down a more productive bunt and old Wilbert Uncle Robbie Robinson would have approved the way Willie Tasby just kept on running while the Cleveland Indians were throwing the ball where their teammates weren't.

It all happened in the fifth inning Tuesday night when the fabulous bunt led to a 7-3 victory and sent the Orioles soaring into a tie with the Chicago White Sox for the American League lead — the first time in the modern history of the club it has occupied or shared the top rung.

Of course, a couple of "rabbitball" homers by Gene Woodling and Chico Carrasquel did help out but the big moment for the second largest crowd in Baltimore's baseball history came when Paul Richards told Tasby to bunt with none out, two runners on via walks and the Indians leading, 3-2, in the fifth inning.

Beats Out Big Bunt

Tasby—flying down that line like Sam Jimmy Sheppard himself—beat it out for a single and both runners scored to put the Orioles in front, 4-3, when pitcher Mudcat Grant threw the ball into right field. That also let Tasby reach third base and the not-so-Willie streaked home when Rocky Colavito threw wildly to the edge of the stands.

The Washington Senators gave the Orioles an assist when they topped the White Sox, 7-4, the New York Yankees reached the first division for the first time since April 25 with a 13-inning, 9-8 victory over the Kansas City Athletics and the Boston Red Sox ended the Detroit Tigers' four-game winning streak, 5-2, in other American League games.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, and moved within two games of the National League lead when the St. Louis Cardinals routed the first-place Milwaukee Braves, 12-3. The Los Angeles Dodgers shaded the Philadelphia Phillies 3-2 and the Chicago Cubs beat Cincinnati, 9-4.

Two homers by rookie Bob Allison kept the Senators in their game with the White Sox and they finally won it when relief pitcher Turk Lown hit one man with the bases filled and forced in two more with walks in the eighth inning.

Lopez Paces Yankees
Hector Lopez scored the tying run after a triple in the ninth and singled home the decisive 13th-inning run for the Yankees who reached the .500-mark and went into a fourth-place tie with the Tigers.

Jerry Casale doubled to climax a five-run first-inning Boston rally and then pitched a four-hitter for his fourth victory.

Johnny Antonelli's five-hit pitching and three hits each by Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda enabled the Giants to hand the Pirates their fifth loss in six games.

Ken Boyer drove in four runs with a homer, double and single to lead a 16-hit St. Louis attack that also included three hits each by Don Blasingame and Willie White.

Wally Moon, who tripled and scored in the fourth inning, doubled home the decisive run in the sixth inning for Los Angeles.

Homers by Ernie Banks, Dale Long and Bobby Thomson led the Cubs to their sixth win in seven games on the wings of a 16-hit attack over the Reds.

Opinions Differ On China Winter Olympics Entry

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

The dumping of Nationalist China by the high brass of the Olympic Games may mean that no Chinese athletes—either Nationalist or Red—will compete in next year's winter Olympics in California.

That's the opinion of Douglas F. Roby of Detroit, one of the two American members of the International Olympic committee (IOC)—the ruling body of the Olympics.

It happens to run contrary to the opinion of Otto Mayer of Switzerland, the chancellor of the IOC who thinks that Red China can return to full Olympic eligibility simply by withdrawing the resignation it submitted to the IOC last year.

Such disagreement by high officials has been routine since the "Chinese question" became the hot potato of international sports two weeks ago.

Red Withdrawal Sets Stage
Actually the stage was set for the current uproar last year. Until that time both Nationalist China and Red China were members of the IOC. But then Red China resigned in protest over the continued membership of the Nationalists.

It appeared that the Nationalists had won a major victory.

But two weeks ago the IOC, meeting at Munich, voted to oust the Nationalist Chinese on the grounds that they no longer control sports in the entire country of China but only on the island of Taiwan, Formosa. The Nationalists were told they could apply for re-admission as the representatives of Taiwan.

That's when the storm broke.

The U.S. state department issued a statement condemning the IOC action, said it was prompted by "Communist pressure," and predicted that it would "pave the way" for re-admission of the Chinese Communists to the Olympic Games.

The House of Representatives then voted to withhold $400,000 the federal government was planning to spend to aid the winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif., next February unless the National-

Logart Fights Hart Tonight
Chicago—UPI—Isaac Logart of Cuba, a one-time top-ranked welterweight, clashes tonight with Garnet (Sugar) Hart of Philadelphia, current holder of the No. 1 rating, in a televised 10-round bout at the Chicago stadium.

Logart, a veteran of 74 fights at 26 and listed 10th in the division, needs a victory or at least a draw in his last chance to remain among the nation's "name" fighters.

But Hart was favored to outpunch the crafty Cuban and solidify his position for a shot at champion Don Jordan.

Star Game Work Gets Attention

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Dodgers today called on the experience gained in handling the largest crowd in baseball history to help make a success of a second major league all-star game of the year and first in West Coast history.

"With the background we acquired in putting on our exhibition game with the Yankees that drew more than 93,000 people, we do not anticipate any major problems in handling the All-Star game," a Dodger spokesman commented.

Despite a public request that inquiries on the all star game here Aug. 3 be delayed until arrangements can be worked out, the Dodgers' offices were deluged with telephone calls.

The host club immediately began arranging a series of staff meetings to lay the groundwork for the week end arrival of Charles Segar, representing Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick. Segar will go over plans for the ticket distribution and technical arrangements for the game with the Dodgers.

Twilight Frick had disclosed Tuesday that the second all-star game would be a twilight affair for two reasons—to get better television time and to make the public more comfortable in the vast coliseum which is an uncovered stadium.

The Dodgers said the exact time would be one of the questions to be settled in conferences with Segar and TV network executives but the game would unquestionably start between 4 and 5 p.m. (pdt) when the August sun is not so hot as at midday.

Dodger President Walter F. O'Malley received from Frick additional information to help set up arrangements for the game.

Frick said that the same squads except for pitchers will play in both games but in the Los Angeles games three players will be added to each club in order to give men who are on hot streaks between the first and second all-star games a chance to play.

7 May Run In Belmont

New York—UPI—The addition of Claiborne Farm's Dunce today raised the probable starting field to seven for Saturday's $125,000 Belmont Stakes, last leg of horse racing's Triple Crown.

Dunce earned a shot at the third jewel by scoring a two and one-half length victory in Tuesday's feature at Belmont park.

In addition to Dunce, the field for Saturday's mile and a half classic probably will include Brookmeade stable's Sword Dancer, King Ranch's Black Hills, Mrs. Halina Braunstein's Royal Orbit, Emil Dolce's Manassa Mauler, P. H. B. Frelinghuysen's Lake Erie and Howard B. Keck's Bagdad.

California uses 16 per cent of the hired farm labor in the United States, more than any other of the states.

Lybeck Scores Seventh Victory

United Press International

One good reason the Salem Senators are rolling along atop the Northwest league is pitcher Chuck Lybeck.

The Salem righthander won his seventh game of the season without a loss Tuesday night as Salem thumped Wenatchee 9-1. Lybeck scattered five hits for the decision.

Don Gaffney's double with the bases loaded sent three runs home in the Salem eighth and the Senators added four more in the ninth with the big blow a two-run triple by Dick Littlejohn.

The victory was Salem's sixth in a row and snapped a five-game Wenatchee winning streak.

Junior Legion Diamond Teams Vie Here Tonight

Central Point—Cheney Studs

line-up will be just about the same as usual this evening when it opens district action in American Legion junior baseball.

The Studs play Grants Pass Mock Motors at 8 p.m. at Cheney field here.

Coach Bill Askwith said that he likely will have Ed Allen as catcher, Steve Harris at first base, Brad Gettling at second, Harley Dickerson at shortstop, Jim Doster at third, Dave Jackson in left field, Jerry Hauck in center and Mike Glines or John Anhorn in right.

Bill Anhorn is scheduled to handle the Central Point pitching chores and his Grants Pass mound rival may be Bill Coe.

Central Point tripped GP 2 to 0 in a non league game a week ago. Grants Pass has played two league games already. Mock beat Lakeview 7 to 1 and 7 to 2 last week end. However, the Studs have played seven games (all non-district) while the GP nine has just three games behind it.

The Cheney club is made up of players from Ashland and Central Point. Among the players listed here Allen, Bill Anhorn, John Anhorn and Glines are from Central Point and the others from Ashland.
