July 4th Activities Planned in Ashland

Ashland - A parade, a band concert and other activities are scheduled in Ashland on July 4 as part of the city's Centennial celebration. Frank Pinnock, committee chairman, has announced.

A parade is scheduled at 10 a.m. July 4 from Lithia park sponsored by the Ashland Rotary club under the direction of Henry Enders. Following the parade, a band concert is scheduled in the band shell at Lithia park, and at noon various contests are scheduled to begin.

Booths will be erected around the entrance to Lithia park that afternoon for activities there, while other attractions include a baseball game and swimming events. A water skiing exhibition is possible at Emigrant lake that afternoon.

The day will be highlighted by a fireworks display at the college athletic field, where entertainment also is planned to start at 7:30 p.m. The junior chamber of commerce will be in charge of the fireworks display.

Two dances are scheduled that night, one at the Elks club and the other at the Britt ballroom at Southern Oregon college.

34 Groups to Take Part in RR Parade

Rogue River - Jim Clithero, chairman of the annual Rooster Crowing contest parade, said last week that 34 groups have expressed an interest in participating in the parade Saturday, June 20.

Entries have been received from organizations in Rogue River, where the Rooster Crow is held annually, and from other groups in Jackson and Josephine counties.

The parade, which will include the Rogue Valley Pear Blossom queen and the Gladia princesses from Josephine county, will form at 10 a.m. next Saturday on Madrone st. It will proceed north on Depot st. to the triangle, on to Main st., then Broadway, Second st., Oak st. to Main and along Pine st. to the city park.

After the parade, and before the Rooster Crow, which starts at noon, a horse show is scheduled along with a variety show. Saturday night, the Rooster Crow dance will be held.

Included in the parade will be "Buttons," a well-known clown who performed with Ringling Brothers circus, and who plans to move into the area upon retirement.

Concert Tickets Available in City

Medford - Tickets for the concert scheduled by the Portland Symphony orchestra in Medford High school auditorium Sunday, June 28, are available in several locations in Jackson and Josephine counties.

The orchestra, under the direction of Piero Bellugi, will be on a six-city tour in the state in connection with the Centennial.

Bellugi is making his first public appearance since joining the orchestra, which is completing its 37th year.

Included in the program here will be Beethoven's Seventh Symphony. The program also will include the Seraglio Overture by Mozart, the Franca Suite for orchestra by Darius Milhaud, and "Romeo and Juliet" by Tchaikowsky.

Tickets are available in Medford at Purucker's, Jean Hart's, Swem's, Lusk Piano company, Barker's and the Jackson County Centennial headquarters. In Ashland, tickets are available at The Mart.

Tickets are available in Grants Pass at the Melody House and the Music Shop.

Dairy Products Thefts Reported

Three thefts of dairy products from Medford front porches early yesterday morning were reported to Medford police by Gary Couey Shuler, 17, Corning st., driver for Gilman's Dairy.

Shuler told police the missing items, including milk and eggs, were taken from customers after he had made deliveries.

Two quart bottles of milk were reportedly taken from the home of Leon Haskins, 816 West Fourth st., and two half-gallon bottles were taken from the W. H. McGuire home, 909 West Fourth st., according to the reports.
