Miss Nancy Lou Redhead Wed To Anthony Miksche

Jacksonville — Miss Nancy Lou Redhead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Redhead, route 2, box 111, became the bride of Anthony B. Miksche, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miksche, 2216 Siskiyou boulevard, Medford, in a ceremony held June 5 at Sacred Heart Catholic church.

The Rev. William McLeod officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Pink roses decorated the church for the event attended by 75 relatives and friends. Bruno Pellegrini played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a white lace gown in ballerina length and her veil was fingertip length. She carried a handkerchief of Battenberg lace made by her great grandmother and pink rosebuds encircling a white orchid on a prayer book. Mr. Redhead escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Shirley Dunlap, Upper Applegate, was maid of honor and Miss Beverly Johnson, Grants Pass, was bridesmaid. Bridesmatron was Mrs. Richard Sandford. They wore pastel colored sheath frocks in yellow, pink and blue with matching lace overskirts. They carried colonial bouquets of pink rosebuds.

Gary Miksche, Medford, served as best man for his brother. Raymond Cox, Eugene, and Ronald Meyer, Talent, seated the guests.

Mrs. Redhead chose for her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Miksche home, a light blue sheath frock with white accessories. Mrs. Miksche wore a white dotted copper colored sheath with white accessories. Their corsages were white rosebuds.

Mrs. Raymond Miksche made the floral arrangements for the reception. Mrs. Terry Sneed, Medford, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Guchess presided at the punch bowl assisted by Mrs. Fred Straube. Mrs. George Koch, Medford, was in charge of the guest book and was at the gift table.

The couple are making their home on Upper Applegate road following their return Tuesday from a wedding trip to Reno, Nev., and Lake Tahoe. For her traveling attire the bride wore a brown cotton sheath with white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is employed by Cash Davis Pharmacy. Mr. Miksche is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and is employed by Monarch Seed and Feed company.

Both are graduates of Medford high school. Miss Lynch attended Lewis and Clark college and the University of Oregon, graduating from Lewis and Clark in 1958 with a bachelor of arts degree in biology. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta social sorority and Quisitors, senior honor society.

Garden Ceremony Marries Miss Hedrick, Floyd Norton

A ceremony held in the garden at Mon Desir inn, Central Point, Wednesday, June 10, wedded Miss Carolyn Ann Hedrick to Floyd Arthur Norton. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erceel H. Hedrick, 503 South Oakdale avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Norton, Fort Collins, Colo.

The single-ring service was read at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon by Lee Peers Wilmett, Ashland. A small group of relatives and friends attended.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white embroidered nylon organza with a three-tiered skirt over hoops. Her illusion veil was held by a coronet of organza circled with seed pearls. She carried stephanotis and white orchids. For "something old" she wore a ring of gold and onyx which had been made for her grandmother Hull's wedding, and which had been worn also by her grandmother Norcross and her mother on their wedding days.

Miss Carol Dyke, maid-of-honor, wore a sheath frock of pale yellow with inserts of white lace, a white hat and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Eugene B. Antley, professor of history at Southern Oregon college, was best man.

John Lusk played the wedding music.

The reception was held on the patio of the inn. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white roses and mock orange blossoms in a silver bowl which belonged to the bride's maternal grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross. Mr. and Mrs. Norcross settled on land adjoining Mon Desir in 1888 and established the first fruit nursery in the valley. They imported pear stock from France for some of the valley's first orchards, and planted pear orchards on the land still owned by the family.

Mrs. Henry W. Johansen and daughter, Susan, served the punch and Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt arranged the flowers for the reception.

For the event Mrs. Hedrick wore a print silk sheath of
