Murphy-Conroy Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Miss Nancy Lou Conroy became the bride of Neil John Murphy in a ceremony held Saturday, June 6, at Sacred Heart Catholic church with the Very Rev. Carl Mai officiating at the noon mass.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Irene Kirkebon McKinley, 1102 West Ninth street, and Lt. Col. Leslie J. Conroy, El Paso, Texas. Mr. Murphy is 735 West 14th street, and the late Mr. Murphy.

Roses, peonies and gladiolus decorated the church for the wedding. Miss Lee Ann Butts and Miss Helen Bolton, Maryhurst college friends of the bride, sang.

The bride wore a white floor length embroidered nylon organza gown which ended in a train, and a fingertip length veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses with ivory. Chester McKinley, Whittier, Calif., escorted the bride to the altar.

Miss Mary Kay Conroy was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ernstrom, Portland; Miss Dolores Zeleznik, Seattle and Medford; and Miss Regina Hannon. They wore pink polished cotton frocks and flat bow hats. Their bouquets were of deep pink carnations with ivy.

John Murphy served as best man for his brother. Ushers were John Walsh, Hayward, Calif., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Richard Coats and William McKibbin, Altair boys were Tom and Tim Darland.

Mrs. McKinley wore a navy blue and white dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Murphy chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of orchids.

Following the ceremony, attended by 150 relatives and friends, a buffet luncheon was served at Ping's Garden. Mrs. John Walsh, Hayward, Calif., cut the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. John Snider and Mrs. Paul Newcomb, cousins of the bride. Miss Kay Post and Miss Jerode Dean, both Portland, presided at the punch bowls and Kerry Ann O'Hara was in charge of the guest book. Miss Loretta Zeleznik was at the gift table.

The newlywed couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a teal blue suit with pink accessories. They returned to Medford Thursday and are making their home at 924 Kenyon avenue.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and Maryhurst college and is employed by Dr. Lawrence Ellis. Mr. Murphy is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and is a teacher on the staff of St. Mary's High school here.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Marne Christensen, Max Heiken, both Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Ambie Ernstrom, Portland; Mrs. Annie Humble, Brooklyn, N.Y., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Con J. Murphy and Mrs. Wesley Dollarhide, both Lakeview, and Mrs. John Colten and daughter, Klamath Falls.

Supreme Temple Reports Planned

Reports on the supreme temple will be given at a meeting of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, Saturday, June 20, at 1 o'clock in the Medford Masonic temple. The supreme session was held this month in Los Angeles.

A tea given by the Woodland Nile club will follow the meeting. Mrs. Murray Gardiner and Mrs. John Smith will assist with the tea.

Susie Drake Bride of Mr. Pelham

Miss Susie Drake became the bride of Donald LeRoy Pelham, 2130 College Way, in a ceremony held at Four-square Gospel church with the Rev. R. H. Mathewson officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Drake, 1101 Loal street. Mr. Pelham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Pelham, Duarte, Calif.

Mrs. Mathewson played the wedding music for the eight o'clock evening ceremony held May 8 and attended by 50 relatives and friends. Baskets of iris decorated the church for the single ring rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown fashioned with silk bodice and net over taffeta skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Janie Sides attended the bride. She wore a sky blue frock and her flowers were white carnations.

John Jakoski served as best man and LeRoy Jarvis, Trail, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Drake home. Mrs. Drake cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. John Madisen poured the punch. Mrs. Jarvis was in charge of the guest book and was at the gift table.

The couple are making their home at 508 Stewart avenue.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. Mr. Pelham attended California schools and is employed as a grader at Oregon Veneer company.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Pelham, mother of the bridegroom, Miss Carol Pelham, both Duarte, and Mrs. Dorothy Miller, sisters of the bridegroom; Debbie Miller, niece of the bridegroom; Mrs. Isabel Martins and Sandra, all Pasadena, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Sarah Breeze, Elmonty, Calif.

White daisies and rosebuds decorated the table that held the tiered wedding cake. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Mae Dever, Clovis, Calif., and Mrs. Jerry Knopf, Bakersfield, Calif., aunts of the bride. Mrs. Thomas Mitchell poured the coffee and Mrs. Don Mitchell, Phoenix, aunts of the bride, presided at the punch table. Miss Sandra Farlow was in charge of the guest book.

The couple will make their home in Fort Lewis, Wash. For traveling the bride wore a light blue brocaded taffeta frock with white accessories and gardenia corsage.

The bride attended Eagle Point High school and was employed by Van Lee's in Medford. Mr. Blocker attended Joliet, Mont., High school and is a specialist fifth class in the United States Army.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blocker, Joliet, parents of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Knopf, Bakersfield, Calif.
