

Mr. and Mrs. Byron H. Davis

Miss Rosemary Stevens Bride of Byron H. Davis

Eagle Point—Miss Rosemary D. Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Stevens, Butte Falls star route, box 212, became the bride of Byron H. Davis in a double-ring ceremony held Saturday, June 6, at the Stevens home. Bishop Dwaine E. Nelson of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Medford, officiated at the six o'clock evening ceremony, attended by 40 relatives and friends. Mr. Davis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, 524 Park place, Medford.

Baskets of white mock orange and red roses were at each side of the fireplace and greenery, roses and white tapers on the mantle formed the setting for the wedding. Vases of pink and white peonies and sweet peas decorated the rooms for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin styled on princess lines with ballerina length skirt. Her shoulder-length illusion veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. William Underwood, aunt of the bride, made the wedding gown and Mrs. Underwood designed and made the bride's veil.

Miss Pamela Stevens, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of aquamarine taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt and carried white carnations.

Keith Bross, Medford, a former classmate of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Carl R. Black, aunt of the bridegroom cut the cake which she had baked and decorated. Mrs. Underwood presided at the punch bowl and Miss Lorraine Davis, sister of the bridegroom, Medford, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Pamela Stevens, sister of the bride, was at the gift table, assisted by Miss Davis.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Stevens wore an ice green summer cotton suit with white accessories. Mrs. Davis chose a navy blue suit and white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens, Medford. Her corsage was white carnations.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco, Calif., for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige suit, white accessories and white carnation corsage from her bridal bouquet. Both young people are members of long time Jackson county families and will make their home in Medford.

The bride was graduated from Eagle Point High school June 3. Mr. Davis is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed at Weisfelds, Medford.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored at two showers. One was given May 27 in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Underwood, Delta Waters road, Medford. Mrs. Ray Davis was co-hostess. The evening of May 28, she was honored at a shower given in the home of Mrs. Errol Tresham, Eagle Point. Co-hostesses were Miss Barbara Bever, Miss Judy Bradshaw and Miss Beverly Tresham.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the patio at the Lane home. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. John Miller, aunt of the bride, and Miss Rita Miller.

The couple traveled to Roseburg on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue flowered dress with white accessories. They are making their home at 2412 Spring street.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix High school. Mr. Caldwell was graduated from Upper Sandusky, Ohio, High school and is employed by Davis Transfer and Storage company.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Dudley, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Miss Helen Williams, all Fresno, Calif.

Pair Wed In Ceremony At Church

Miss Mona Marrietta Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lane, route 3, box 194G, became the bride of Thomas Richard Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Caldwell, Upper Sandusky, Ohio, in a ceremony held June 6 at Medford Friends church.

Pastor Clynton Crisman officiated at the double ring rites held at one o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Crisman played the organ wedding music. Baskets of peach and white colored gladioli decorated the church for the event.

The bride wore a white lace sheath frock with a satin bow at the waistline. Her veil was held by a lace crown and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Miss Janice Grove was maid of honor. She wore a yellow lace sheath dress and carried yellow and white carnations. Other attendants were Mrs. Ernest Klenner and Miss Wava Glasscock. They wore lavender floral printed sheath frocks and carried pink and white carnations. Pamela Ann Lane was flower girl for her aunt. She wore a mint green and white nylon dress and carried pink and white carnations in a white basket.

Joseph Hasler served as best man and seating the guests were Jack Dudley, Fresno, uncle of the bride, and Lee Lyons.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lane wore a brown silk sheath dress. Mrs. Caldwell, who traveled from Ohio for the wedding, chose a green floral print silk dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the patio at the Lane home. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. John Miller, aunt of the bride, and Miss Rita Miller.

Cooksey-Johnson Rites Held at Lutheran Church

Miss Rosalie Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern R. Johnson, 120 Washington street, became the bride of James Allen Cooksey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cooksey, Phoenix, Ariz., in a ceremony held June 6 at Zion Lutheran church.

The Rev. H. C. Coovert officiated at the double ring rites attended by 125 relatives and friends. Miss Ruth Coovert played the music for the 6:30 o'clock evening wedding and accompanied Miss Emily Masterson, Portland and Medford, soloist. White stock and pink carnations decorated the church for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white Chantilly lace gown accented with pearls and sequin crown. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Miss Donna Malloms, Eureka, Calif., formerly of Medford, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Donna Johnson, sister of the bride, and the Misses Carol and Loretta Cooksey, Phoenix, Ariz., sisters of the bridegroom. They wore pink brocade satin sheath frocks with chiffon overskirts and cummerbunds with matching headresses. They carried pink carnation cascade bouquets.

Frank Lagesen, Klamath Falls, formerly of Medford, served as best man. Jack Findley, Gary Shaffer and Jim Doyle, cousin of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnson wore a grey Chantilly lace over pink taffeta frock with pink accessories. Mrs. Cooksey wore a beige sheath dress with pink accessories. Their corsages were pink rosebuds.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church. Miss Bernice Skoog and Miss Pat Leek cut and served the wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Ray O. Alder, and Miss Sharon Johnson presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Boyd Josephson, sister of the bride, poured the coffee. Miss Beverly Johnson was in charge of the guest book. Members of the Ladies Guild of the church were in charge of the reception. Assisting were Mrs. Ronald Collins, Mrs. William Myers, and Mrs. Wendell Mattson.
