

Klamath Trucking Firm Defendant
Salem — (UP)— Pioneer Truck Rentals, Klamath Falls, which already owes the Public Utility Commissioner $42,577 in highway use taxes, penalty and interest from a previous order, has been named defendant in another proceeding.

The National Park Service reports that more than 20 million people each year visit the historic sites under its administration.

He had ordered a hearing for Wednesday, July 15, in Salem, to determine whether Pioneer's permit should be revoked for non-compliance with the PUC assessment order of last January.

Small Worlds Around Us
By Lynn M. Watkins

You May Find A Fascinating Hobby
To this column come many letters telling of strange and unique hobbies that readers have developed or discovered, and at which the hobbyists devote a great deal of time and, in many instances, reap considerable profit.

Take Mrs. Mills for instance. She collects bracket fungi, being careful not to mar or fingerprint it when the fungus is fresh. She hangs them up to dry, then paints pictures on them, or carves designs in the hard, tough outer skin. Many of these exotic objects have been sent to distant points; others decorate her home.

A friend of this column wrote me a short time ago and wanted information on fish scales. He gathers them, and after carefully cleaning and drying them, he displays them. He now has nearly 400 kinds. The field is wide open and he never expects to collect a complete set. Think of the fish scales most of us throw away.

Trans-Atlantic TV Cabled to States

New York — (UP)— American television viewers saw a hazy but easily recognizable image of Queen Elizabeth II boarding a plane at London Airport 21 minutes after the actual event.

A one minute film of the departure of the Queen and Prince Philip for Canada and the U.S. was transmitted from London to Montreal over the trans-Atlantic telephone cable and then fed by the Canadian Broadcasting Company to the National Broadcasting Company in New York for viewing over NBC's entire 200 station network.

BASIC ENGLISH
Hartford, Conn. — (UP)— State Rep. John Shostak wants to establish a commission to make sure highway signs are written in plain English. He thinks such signs as "crossing medium divider prohibited" should be changed to "don't cross center strip
