

Pee Wees Will Start League Play

Four pee wee loop conflicts on Tuesday, June 23, open the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league season.

Tangles at 2 p.m. will have the Central Point Indians at Ashland Cubs, Ashland Bears at Medford Tigers and Medford Wildcats against Central Point at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

The eight teams will have twice around schedules of 16 games each. Schedules will be on Tuesdays and Thursdays through Aug. 6. Games next Thursday will have Central Point Braves at Ashland Cubs, Lone Pine at Central Point Indians, Ashland Bears at Eagle Point and Medford Tigers versus Medford Wildcats.

Pee wees get a big head start on the other junior leagues. Intermediate league season will open on Monday, June 29, and the cub loop on Wednesday, July 1.

Four Intermediates in the intermediate circuit will be Medford Yankees and Giants, Ashland and Central Point. Grants Pass will have two cub teams, the Cubs and the Bears and Ashland, Medford, Central Point and Illinois Valley each one.

Central Point by adding a second pee wee team and entering a cub crew is expanding its league participation this year. Illinois Valley (Cave Junction) is a new cub loop entrant.

John Kovenz will handle the Cubs and one intermediate team this season for Medcoaching the other intermediates club. Alex McDonald will have the pee wee Tigers and Brock Troth the Wildcats.

Beavers Surge Back To Beat San Diego United Press International

Portland spotted a three-run San Diego first-inning lead and went on to win its third game in a row here Friday night 6-3 in the opening game of a Pacific Coast league series.

The win moved the Beavers within one game of the third place Padres. Veteran hurler Duane Pilette was credited with his second win of the season although he needed help from Ken Johnson in the eighth inning when the Padres loaded the bases.

STATE ALL-STAR PITCHER - Dennis Barr, above, who finished his Medford high baseball career this spring, will represent the Black Tornado in the State-Metropolitan All-Star baseball game sponsored by the Active club on Saturday, June 27, at Eugene. Upstate players will meet a team of stars from the Portland area. Barr will leave for Eugene on Thursday. Going with him will be John Kovenz, Medford high coach. Kovenz will be an assistant coach for the State team.

Beavers Want Franchise In Third Major Circuit

Portland - UPI - Portland's Pacific Coast League Beavers will make a formal application to major league authorities in Pittsburgh next month to be included in a proposed third major league it was learned Friday.

The request by Portland and a general discussion of the third league is expected to come before minor and major league executives July 6-8.

The Portland bid is being sent by telegram to baseball commissioner Ford Frick.

William A. Shea, head of New York's proposed entry in the third loop, said he hopes the new league will start in 1961.

New York - UPI - The chairman of the New York City mayor's baseball committee said he sees "no reason" major league clubowners will be "unreasonable" in judging whether a third league is feasible.

Triple Victories Scored By Ayres, Head, Swanson In Junior Track Classes

Walt Ayres, Medford, and John Head, Coquille, were triple winners yesterday in the older boys' junior competition of the Oregon AAU Olympic Development program all-comers track and field meet at the Medford high stadium.

Ayres won the 70-yard high hurdles in the fine time of :09.4, the 120 lows in :14.5 and the high jump at 4-10. Head copped the 75-yard dash in :08.1, the 220 in :23.4 and the broad jump with 19 feet eight inches.

One other entrant all the way from Coquille, Roger Sanders, nabbed two first places with 47-1/2 in the high pound shot put and 126-5/8 in the discus.

The met had 30 entrants, including two girls. The Coquille boys were the only contestants from outside the Rogue River valley.

Marjorie Brood, Medford, won the girls' high jump and 75 dash and posted times and distances for first ribbons in four other events.

Ayres, Head and Sanders won in the 15 and 16-year age class.

Vern Swanson, Central Point, was another triple winner, taking the high and low hurdles and the 220 sprint for 13- and 14-year-old boys.

Frank Van Pelt, Medford, won the pole vault and 75; Fritz Debo, Grants Pass, the javelin and Broad Jump, and Pat Pepper, Central Point, the shot put and discus.

Hiram Martin was first in the half-mile for both the 13 and 14 and 15 and 16 age classes.

All marks set yesterday are records and will be targets for track meets to be held in four other all-comer's meets here this summer. Next meet on the Medford oval will be on Saturday, June 27.
