

Miss Sally Harris

Betrothal News Announced Here; Fall Rites Set

Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Joann, to Willard Lee Fredrickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Fredrickson, Los Angeles.

Miss Harris is a graduate of Oregon State college and is employed by Pan American World Airways as a hostess. She flies to points in the South Pacific and the Orient and by the polar route to Europe.

Mr. Fredrickson did his undergraduate work at Brigham Young university in Utah and was this month graduated from San Francisco Theological Seminary at San Anselmo, Calif. He has recently taken a post as assistant minister of the Presbyterian church in Inglewood, Calif., where the couple will reside following their marriage August 29.

Miss Harris and her sister, Mrs. Merrill Hval, Portland, left San Francisco by air June 15 for London and plan to spend a vacation touring Europe.

Student Guest At Blind Home

Houseguest at the Erhardt J. Blind residence, 127 Valley View drive, is Miss Beverly Aus-Der-Au, from Melrose Park, Ill. Miss Aus-Der-Au arrived in Eugene June 10 where she attended the graduation exercises of Miss Marjorie Blind from the University of Oregon.

The two girls were roommates at Valparaiso university in Indiana during their freshman year in the college. The Illinois visitor, who graduated from Valparaiso university earlier this month, plans to remain in the valley several weeks.

Molly Walker And Larry Kerr To Wed in Fall

Dr. and Mrs. L. Paul Walker, 2132 Dellwood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Molly, to Larry Lee Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Kerr, 486 South Mountain avenue, Ashland.

The wedding date is set for September 6 at the First Methodist church in Medford.

Miss Walker is a graduate of Medford High school. She attended the University of Oregon for three years, majoring in English, and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta social sorority.

Mr. Kerr is a graduate of Ashland High school and was recently graduated from the University of Oregon receiving a bachelor of science degree in history and a commission of second lieutenant in the United States Army. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi social fraternity.

Following the ceremony the couple will leave for an extended honeymoon arriving at Fort Benning, Georgia, where Mr. Kerr will report for six months active duty on October 5. In the fall of 1960 he will enter law school, and Miss Walker will complete her college education.

Marriage Ceremony Held At Zion Lutheran Church

Miss Leilani Kunkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen A. Kunkel, 1411 East McAndrews road, became the bride of L. Frank Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurel F. Scott of Central Point, in a ceremony held June 6, at Zion Lutheran church.

The Rev. H. C. Covert officiated at the double-ring rites attended by 150 friends and relatives. Miss Ruth Covert played the organ music for the 8 o'clock evening wedding, and accompanied James Scott, brother of the bridegroom, who was soloist.

White stock and lavender asters decorated the church for the ceremony.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of embroidered net over a satin hooped skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a small white half-bonnet embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Mr. Kunkel gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Deanna Kunkel, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Campbell and Gailya Guinotte. They wore pastel colored lace frocks in blue, lavender, and yellow with small matching hats. Their bouquets were daisies matching their dresses.

Little Janice Poland was flower girl. She wore an orchid dotted Swiss organza dress with matching bonnet. Johnny Blackhurst was ring bearer. He carried a white satin pillow made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Nelson, San Diego, Calif.

Steven Blackhurst and Hans Ewaldsen lighted the candles. Jerva Win, Delano, Calif., was best man. Lionel Beyer and Stanley Hodges, both also of Delano, seated the guests.

Mrs. Kunkel chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue sheath frock with white accessories. Mrs. Scott wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Their corsages were gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. George Wilmoth, Whittier, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake made by Mrs. Arthur Hertager. Mrs. Harry Bamesburger, Valparaiso, Ind., aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Mrs. Robert Brown presided at the punch table.

Mrs. H. V. Martin and Mrs. Fred Weinhiemer, Springfield, Ore., had charge of the reception.

The newlyweds are making their home at 616 South Stage road following their return from a wedding trip to southern California. For traveling, Mrs. Scott chose a suit of coral and white cotton. Her corsage was white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college. Mr. Scott graduated from Delano High school and is employed at Singler's Auto Supply while completing his studies at Southern Oregon college.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nelson, San Diego, Calif.; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. George Wilmoth and children of Whittier, Calif.; Fred Weinhiemer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer and Jake Meyer, Springfield, Ore.; Mrs. Carl Hammel and Richard, Albany, Ore., and Mrs. John Register of Modesto, Calif.

Wedding First Held In Church

Prospect - The first wedding to be held in Meadows Union church, East Evans creek, was that of Miss Patricia Frances Sanderson to Eugene Winningham. It took place June 13.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson, Happy Camp, Calif. and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winningham Sr., Prospect.

The double-ring rites were read at eight o'clock in the evening, with the Rev. Tyley Evans of Grace Bible church officiating. Forty guests attended.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace, designed ballerina length and worn with a finger-length veil. She carried pink and white carnations.

Miss Sandra Sanderson, Happy Camp, attended her sister. She wore a frock of pastel green chiffon and carried gardenias.

Larry Sanderson, Shady Cove, the bride's brother, was best man and Vernon Struck was usher.

Richard Evans played the wedding music.

Roses, mountain ferns and garden flowers provided a setting for the bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sanderson were hosts for the reception which followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beers, uncle and aunt of the bride. Mrs. Beers cut the wedding cake, Miss Marlene Governor served punch and Miss Yvonne Struck the coffee.

Mrs. Larry Sanderson took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Winningham and his bride made a wedding trip to the coast and will live in Ferndale, Calif., where the bridegroom is on duty with the United States Navy. Formerly the bride and bridegroom jointly attended school in Prospect.
