

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Rasmussen

Rasmussen-Hobbs Rites Held at Methodist Church

Miss Glenna Lee Hobbs became the bride of David E. Rasmussen in a ceremony held June 14 at three o'clock in the afternoon in First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring rites attended by 150 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Hobbs, 235 Oak Grove road. Mr. Rasmussen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lloyd Rasmussen, 400 North Fifth street, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Ralph Matlack was soloist and was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Gerald B. Sherman. Yellow roses and orange blossoms decorated the altar and white candles labra held yellow tapers. White satin bows and daisies marked the pew ends.

The bride wore a white ballerina length gown fashioned with fitted lace bodice and bouffant net skirt. The elbow length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a white orchid and white carnations on a white Bible loaned her by her grandmother, Mrs. Jack N. Fortin. Mr. Fortin, Eagle Point, gave his granddaughter in marriage.

Miss Sandra Thurston was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Martha Wyatt, Miss Beatrice Rasmussen, both Jacksonville, and Miss Patricia Rushton. They wore yellow brocade sheath dresses with chiffon streamers and yellow headresses holding short yellow veils. Their flowers were yellow daisies. Miss Thurston's frock was fashioned with a full skirt.

Little Donna Klinge, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Candlelighters were Jerry Rasmussen and Jimmy Hagler, both nephews of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was Johnny Grow, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride.

Larry Peterson served as best man while seating the guests were James Carrier, Loren Severson, cousin of the bridegroom, and Loyd Rasmussen, brother of the bridegroom.

Ceremony At Chapel Weds Pair

Ashland—Miss Meta Ann Miller, daughter of Mrs. Howard Miller, 1363 Quincy street, became the bride of Larry Frank Baines, Rockford, Mich., in rites held Sunday, June 14.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baines, Rockford. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James A. Sinclair of the Church of Christ at 3 o'clock in Mountain View chapel.

Mrs. Timothy Hamilton, Great Falls, Mont., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mr. Hamilton was best man. John L. Baines, Rockford, brother of the bridegroom, served as usher.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Clarence Miller, Ashland, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white chintilly lace over white satin. It was styled with a bolero jacket and three-quarter length sleeves.

She carried a bouquet of white and pale pink carnations. Mrs. Hamilton wore a pale blue princess-style gown of polished cotton with full skirt of ballerina length.

Baskets of pink gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church. The Rev. Mr. Sinclair sang.

A reception was given by Mrs. Miller at the family residence following the ceremony. The bride was graduated from Ashland High school and her husband is a graduate of Rockford High school. He is a storekeeper in the United States navy and the couple will reside at the Naval Air station, Miramar, San Diego, following a wedding trip along the northern California coast.

Out-of-town guests at the event included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baines and son, John, Rockford, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Bjorne Bjornsen, Medford; George Wicklander, Pendleton; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stone, and Mrs. Virgil Horn and Benny, Klamath Falls.

The couple traveled to southern California on their wedding trip and will return today to make their home at 108 E street, Jacksonville. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue sheath dress with navy blue and white accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom have lived their entire lives in the valley. The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed as a secretary by the Lewis Accounting service. Mr. Rasmussen is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is employed as a mechanic at Rasmussen's Service in Jacksonville.

Little Donna Klinge, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Candlelighters were Jerry Rasmussen and Jimmy Hagler, both nephews of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was Johnny Grow, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride.

Larry Peterson served as best man while seating the guests were James Carrier, Loren Severson, cousin of the bridegroom, and Loyd Rasmussen, brother of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Raymond Smith

Miss Zita Maddox Wed To Clyde Raymond Smith

Jacksonville—Miss Zita Mary Lee Maddox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert B. Maddox, route 2, box 2, became the bride of Clyde Raymond Smith, son of Mrs. Mildred Smith, route 1, box 62, and the late Clyde R. Smith, in a ceremony held June 6.

The double ring ceremony was held in historic St. Joseph's Catholic church where the bride had been organist for the past several years. The Rev. William McLeod officiated at the wedding attended by 100 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace over pleated net gown in floor length and her veil was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, yellow roses, and ivy which were entwined with a crystal necklace given her as a young girl by her grandmother, Rupert F. Maddox Jr., escorted his sister to the altar due to the illness of her father.

Miss Diana Maddox attended the sister. She wore a pink ballerina length frock of flowered nylon over satin with pink picture hat. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and pink rosebuds.

Charles Kimball, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were John Wainwright, Applegate, and Don Smith.

Old fashioned flower baskets filled with pink roses decorated the church for the ceremony. They were arranged by Mrs. Ray Coleman and Mrs. Leonard McKee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Maddox wore a beige dress with white accessories and pink rose corsage. Mrs. Smith chose a blue dress with white accessories and had a yellow rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Maddox home. Mrs. Chandler Drew and Mrs. J. O. Killingsworth cut and served the cake and Miss Judy Hogan presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Delbert Clifford served the coffee and Mrs. Earl Brown and Mrs. Dean Leuhars were at the gift tables.

The newlywed couple traveled to the coast and northern Oregon cities on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a light green suit with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The bride's sisters, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Douglas McKee, assisted the bride prior to the couple's departure.

The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and attended Southern Oregon college. They will make their home in Corvallis where the bridegroom plans to enter Oregon State college.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a bridal shower by Mrs. Maddox Jr. and Mrs. Charles Kimball.

New York—UPD—The bride's wine glasses should be tulip-shaped—curving in at the top to hold the bouquet in the glass.

California Couple Wed In Nevada

Hills—Miss Rochelle Grazer of Yreka, Calif., became the bride of Reno Trinca, Hills, Saturday, May 31, in the St. Thomas Aquinas Cathedral at Reno, Nev. Father Zavlia performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 o'clock in the presence of the families and a few close friends of the bride couple.

For her wedding the bride chose a short sleeved white brocade satin dress with a bouffant overskirt of white net, tied at the waist with a white velvet sash. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book, centered with a white orchid and sprays of Stephanotis.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Kenneth Robinson, Yreka, who wore a pastel blue nylon dress and a half crown white velvet hat with a brief veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

John Sylvestra of Hills served as best man. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Grazer of Yreka and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Trinca, Hills.

Also attending the wedding were Mrs. John Sylvestra, Kenneth Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trinca, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party gathered at the Nugget, Sparks, Nev., for a wedding dinner.

The newlyweds visited various points of interest in Nevada and returned on June 5 to Hills. They are making their home in the cabin at the State Line Service.
