

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robert Johnson

Johnson - Saunders Rites Held at Church of Christ

Miss Jane Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Saunders, 1478 Ridgeway avenue, became the bride of Walter Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, 325 South Ivy street, in a ceremony held June 12 at the Central Church of Christ. Dexter Williams, minister of the church, officiated at the single ring ceremony held at eight o'clock in the evening. Miss Melody Pierce played the piano wedding music and accompanied John Hansen and A. L. Saunders, brother of the bride, soloists. The event was attended by 75 relatives and friends. The bride wore an embroidered white taffeta frock fashioned with bouffant skirt, and her tulle veil, edged with

Thayer-Quinn Wedding Held

Cave Junction—Mrs. Esther Quinn became the bride of Al Thayer in an afternoon ceremony June 14 at the bride's home in O'Brien. Mrs. Harry LaRese, Grants Pass minister, officiated. Acting as attendants were the bride's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn of Medford and the bridegroom's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pfendler, Grants Pass. Petite Sharon Quinn was ring bearer. Some 70 guests attended the wedding and the reception immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer plan to make their home on Rockydale road. On Thursday before the wedding the bride-elect was honored with a shower given at the O'Brien schoolhouse by Mesdames Robert Bottel, Vester Cogburn, William Woodbury, James Cooke and Ted Rogers. Skits and songs, directed by Mrs. Emma Lemm provided the entertainment for the afternoon. A gift of a money tree was presented to the honored guest by the 40 persons attending.

Program Planned On Wild Herbs

Mrs. R. D. Abel will make and explain an arrangement of wild herbs at a meeting of the Rogue Valley Herb society June 23 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Holtz, 2121 East Jackson street. Members are to give the botanical name and use of a wild herb during the roll call. The lesson on "Wild Herbs of my own woods and garden" will be given by Mrs. Lester Lingscheit. She will illustrate her talk with many herbarium specimens. The group was told that the society's library has a number of new books, including "Have Fun with Herbs," by Edith Farwell, which was added in honor of officers who served in 1958. A book listing all the herbs mentioned in Shakespeare's plays also has been added.

Ceremony At Home Weds Pair

A double-ring ceremony in the home of the bride's mother wedded Miss Carol Anne Custance, daughter of Mrs. R. J. Custance, 1310 West Main street, to David Allen Elrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Elrod, 1417 West Main street. The Rev. D. Kirkland West of the First Presbyterian church read the service at 8 p.m. Friday, June 12, before 75 guests. Miss Sarah White was the bride's attendant and Wayne Allen, Central Point, was best man for his cousin. Leonard and Robert Custance, brothers of the bride, were ushers. Frank Salyers, a family friend, gave the bride-in-marriage. She wore a beige wool suit and a pink hat and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and rosebuds. Her attendant wore a blue chiffon gown with a blue hat and a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mrs. Custance chose a pink sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations for the wedding. Mrs. Elrod wore a beige silk dress inset with net, and pink accessories and carnations. Miss Lana Salyers cut the wedding cake at the reception which followed. Pouring and serving were Mrs. Harry Crofoot, Miss Sharon McNeil and Miss Carmen Bernheisel. Miss Sandra Elrod had charge of the guest book.

Warren - Tyer Rites Held In Cave Junction Church

Cave Junction—An event of last Saturday, June 13, at the Cave Junction Community church was the wedding of Miss Lorna Jeanne Tyer to Donald Dean Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Warren. The Rev. Gene Denning officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Miss Lana Salyers cut the wedding cake at the reception which followed. Pouring and serving were Mrs. Harry Crofoot, Miss Sharon McNeil and Miss Carmen Bernheisel. Miss Sandra Elrod had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Otto Ewaldsen decorated the home with pink and white gladioli, roses, peonies and white tapers. The couple made a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and will reside in Medford. The bride and her family moved to Medford from Vancouver, B.C., three years ago. She was graduated from Medford High school. Her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Custance, Vancouver, B.C., attended the wedding. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college. He is employed by Steve Wilson Lumber company.

Chairmen Announced

Mrs. Emerson Anderson and Mrs. Owen Kunkel of Medford have been named co-chairmen to head the 1960 convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers which will be held in Medford. Mrs. Kunkel also recently was elected vice president of Region VI, replacing Mrs. Arthur Moore, Klamath Falls, who resigned due to illness in her family. Mrs. Kunkel is retiring president of the Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations, and is a former president of the Medford council. The state convention is set for April 26-27 of next year at Hedrick junior high school. Another Medford woman, Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Oregon Congress president, has been appointed to the Governor's Committee on Children and Youth.

Extension Groups Announce Picnic

The annual picnic of the Jackson County Home Extension Advisory committee and the Alumnae association will be held Tuesday, June 23, at the home of Mrs. Curtis Stockstill, 2070 Houston road. Luncheon will be served at noon and members are to take table service. Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, a member of the Alumnae association, will install the new Advisory committee officers. Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon is the newly elected chairman. The other officers to be installed are Mrs. Rolland Smith, vice-chairman; Mrs. Edgar Pleasant, secretary; and Mrs. William W. Jackson, treasurer. Reports on the state council meeting held in Corvallis last month will be given. Miss Mary Pat Lucy, county home economics agent, will lead a discussion on the extension program for the coming year. At the last Advisory committee meeting, plans were made for the annual officers training school. Because of the large increase in extension units in the county it will be held two days this year, July 22 and July 29. On those days all the unit officers and program planners will meet for instruction and a discussion of the lessons for the new year.
