

Medford Woman Attends School For Methodists

Mrs. Charles Adamson, Oregon conference secretary of the Wesleyan Service guilds of the Methodist church, is in Salt Lake City attending the Western Jurisdiction school of missions being held on the campus of Westminster college June 22 through 26.

During the school delegates will study the approved courses to be used throughout the United States this coming year by the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service guild. These include two interdenominational studies: "Africa," the foreign mission study; and "The Church's Mission in Town and Country," the home mission study.

Bible study for the coming year is "Luke" and the Christian social relations study "The Role of the United Nations in World Affairs."

Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, professor of religion and chaplain at Pacific University, Forest Grove, will conduct a morning Bible hour using the theme "The Idea of God as Revealed in the Scriptures." Delegates to this school will return to Oregon to teach in the school of missions at Camp Magruder July 19-24, and the Guild week end July 24-26.

Other Oregon women attending include Mrs. L. A. Walworth, Salem, president of the Oregon conference Woman's Society of Christian Service; Mrs. Russell Watson and Mrs. George Fallis, Portland; Mrs. L. S. Uppinghouse and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Beaverton; Miss Geneva McDonald, Forest Grove; Mrs. Charles Scott, Newberg; Miss Laura Heist, Portland; and Guild delegates Mrs. Glen Wyatt, Salem; Mrs. Elva Leisure, Coquille.

Guest Here
Miss Ora Cox has arrived from her home in Bushnell, Ill., and is guest of Mrs. George B. Canode, Crown avenue.

Miss Cox lived in Medford many years and is a former principal of Lincoln school here. She plans to spend the remainder of the month in Medford.

The first passenger elevator was believed installed in New York in 1857.

Ashland Church is Scene Of Williams-Crowley Rites

Ashland - Miss Carolyn Lee Crowley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett L. Crowley, Riddle, became the bride of Kenneth Marlin Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Williams, Ashland, at a ceremony held June 7.

Ashland Congregational church was the scene of the double-ring service, which was performed by the Rev. Fred Plocher, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Lee Anne Williams, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Crowley, Riddle, sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Westover, Eagle Point. Miss Dalia Kisis, Klamath Falls, was candlelighter.

Best man was Harry Nicholson, and ushers were Michael Crowley, Riddle, brother of the bride, Jack Hillberry and Richard McNeerney.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white organza over net, fashioned with long sleeves and a pointed bodice. Her illusion veil was held in place with a cap of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white baby roses.

The maid of honor wore a shirtwaist dress of white organza with yellow cummerbund and a white picture hat.

The bridesmaids wore matching shirtwaist frocks of yellow organza over taffeta with white cummerbunds and picture hats. They carried nosegays of yellow roses.

Yellow iris and roses and yellow tapers decorated the church. Mrs. Margaret Ramsey provided music.

Mrs. Harold Wallace, Manteca, Calif., and Mrs. George Brill, Los Angeles, guests of the bridegroom, assisted at the reception which followed in the church parlors.

For traveling, the bride chose a brown linen sheath dress with embroidered jacket and white accessories. Her family resided in Ashland until a year ago and she attended Ashland High school and Southern Oregon college.

The bridegroom attended Ashland High school and Moller Barber college. He is employed at the Elks barber shop. They are residing at 1620 Siskiyou boulevard.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included George E. Thompson, Kiona, Wash., grandfather of the bride; Harold Wallace, Manteca, Calif.; and George Brill, Los Angeles.

Thirty-two Players Attend Bridge Session

Thirty-two players competed in Wednesday's duplicate game at the Riverside Bridge club.

Mrs. George B. Dean and Mrs. Mary Trout tied with Mrs. John Dougherty and Mrs. Sam Van Dyke for first and second place in north-south scores, and Mrs. Fred Rehling and Mrs. Van Gilbert placed third.

East-west winners were Mrs. Frank R. Baker and Mrs. William Knoppe, first; Fred Burich and Mrs. J. J. Finegan, second; and Mrs. Alto Pruitt and Mrs. Richard Milestone, third.

Learn and Earn

Miss Pullen; George Bell Married

Cave Junction - Miss Gloria Mae Pullen, daughter of Mrs. Edna Mae Clegg, Portland, and Willis A. Pullen, Cave Junction, became the bride of George Charles Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bell, Sunday afternoon at the Cave Junction Community church. The Rev. Gene Denning officiated.

The sanctuary was arranged with pink and blue daisies flanked by tall white tapers. The soloist, Mrs. David Looper, was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Martin Brown, Mrs. Walter Eichler, organist, played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white orange blossom embroidered ballerina length gown, with finger tip illusion veil held in place by a band of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and white roses.

As matron of honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. Howard Yarbrough, wore a lace gown of dusty rose with white accessories. Other attendants were Miss Vanita Tresham, who wore a gown of two tones of pink, and Miss Mary Collman wearing a yellow gown. All the attendants carried cascades of white gladioli with rose buds.

Candlelighters were Craig and Richard Yarbrough. Debbie Robinson in blue nylon was the flower girl.

Gary Bell, brother of the bridegroom, pulled as best man. Marvin Pullen and Ray James Gray were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a frock of navy chiffon over taffeta accented by a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Bell, mother of the bridegroom, also chose a navy blue frock with white, and a white corsage.

The reception followed immediately in the church recreational rooms which were decorated in arrangements of roses.

Assisting at the buffet table were Mrs. Ronald Tresham, Mrs. Harold Haslock, Mrs. Roy Robinson and Mrs. Gene Robinson. Misses Bonita and Sue Robinson were at the gift table and Miss Christine Looper was in charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip to the coast, the new Mrs. Bell wore for traveling a red dress with white accessories, and the white rose corsage from her bride bouquet.

The bride attended high school in Seattle and was a princess in the 1958 Illinois Valley Jubilee court. The bridegroom was graduated from Illinois Valley High school and attended Shasta college in Redding, Calif.

Election Planned By Sojourners

Election of officers will be held during a meeting of Sojourners at the Girls Community club, Thursday, June 25 at 12:30 p.m.

Following the business meeting, bridge, canasta and pinocle will be played.

All women who have lived in Medford or vicinity less than two years are invited to attend and become members. The purpose of the club is to give newcomers an opportunity to become acquainted. For more information interested women may call Mrs. Dee Wood, hospitality chairman, SP 3-5649.

For most students who work, a job means more than dollars earned, according to the Institute of Life Insurance. It means a sense of independence, too.

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, priest at Sacred Heart Catholic church, leaves this afternoon to visit his aged mother, who is ill. The priest will also make trips to Rome and other cities in Europe before returning to Medford.

Father Mai To Visit Germany

The Very Rev. Carl Mai, priest at Sacred Heart Catholic church, will leave on a United flight at 5:40 o'clock this afternoon for San Francisco en route to Eisingen, Germany.

Father Mai, who has been at the local church for the past two years, will visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Mai, who is ill.

The trip, including several side trips on the continent, was a gift of the parish. The tickets were presented to Father Mai at a tea and reception June 14. At the event members of a St. Mary's Girl Scout troop presented him a gift for his mother.

In charge of the Sunday reception was Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti.

It was explained that Father Mai had previously planned to return to his home next year, but due to the illness of his mother it was recommended that the trip be made this year. The project to raise the ticket costs was suggested by Mrs. R. A. Naumes.

Father Mai will fly from Medford to San Francisco where he will leave for London, Zurich, Switzerland, and Stuttgart, Germany which is north of Eisingen. At Stuttgart he will be met by his sister, Mrs. Albert Duerler.

He will also visit a brother, Albert Mai, and several nieces and nephews while there.

The local priest plans to return to the valley prior to the opening of school in September. Although the majority of his stay will be spent with his mother and other relatives, he will take trips to Rome where he will spend a week, Switzerland, Lourdes in France, and other shrines. He will travel with a group of friends including former classmates and will attend a celebration of the 25th anniversary of another priest who is a friend.

Among the persons he expects to meet while in Europe include the Rev. Cornelius Linehan, former assistant pastor at Sacred Heart church, who is currently spiritual director for Maryhurst and is conducting a European tour for college students this summer, and Michael and Bernard Fless, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fless, Medford.

Society to Hear Review of Book

Walter Higgins will present the program for the Woman's Society of Christian Service at First Methodist Church on Tuesday, June 23. Mr. Higgins will give a book review on the "Ugly American."

Mrs. Charles Thompson will be in charge of the program and devotions for the afternoon meeting beginning at 1:15 p.m.

Morning devotions in the Meeker Memorial chapel will be held at 10:30 a.m. followed by the business meeting at 11 a.m. The new president, Mrs. Milton Snow, will preside.

Luncheon is set for 12:15 p.m. with the executive group serving.

Child care will be provided until adjournment at 2:30 p.m.

A Tribute . . . To Fathers!

There's an old saying that "mother knows best". Well, it seems to us that Father, bless him, should come in for some compliments, too, once in a while. It is true, of course, that upon mother's patient shoulders rest the upbringing of the children. And that is as it should be. But let's not forget that Pa is generally the family breadwinner and it is up to him to pay the bills. When day is done and he comes home, make things as cheery and loving as you can. Have a nice dinner ready. Lay out his slippers and his beloved pipe. Show him how much you love him by being kind and considerate. He may not tell you how he appreciates these attentions. But he will . . . as all good fathers do!

Open House Planned at Low Echo

All interested persons are invited to visit Camp Low Echo Sunday, June 28, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Families may bring picnic lunches. Coffee and punch will be served. Camp staff members will be on hand to show visitors around the camp site and answer questions about the program and facilities.

The camp is reached by driving up Dead Indian road from Ashland to the southeast end of Lake o' the Woods. Signs are on the left side of the road at the driveway into Camp Low Echo. The distance is about 50 miles from Medford.

The first session of camping for Girl Scouts will begin July 5. All campers are to leave from Hawthorne Park across from the Red Cross building on Hawthorne street, in Medford, at 12:30 p.m. on July 5. No girls are to travel to camp via private automobiles. Families who have campers returning the following Sunday should meet them promptly at 3 p.m. at the same place.

Some staff members who are returning this year include the Misses Alexa Hibbard, Joan Laurila and Mimi Jones, all of Medford. Miss Nancy Kadin will be a kitchen aide, and Miss Susan Harris, Yreka, will be one of the assistant waterfront directors.

Mrs. Ivas Murray, who has given her services to the Girl Scout organization for a good many years, will be nature counselor. Miss Irene Knox, director for the camp, will arrive in Medford Tuesday and will be available to see any of the staff who might have questions regarding camp.

There are still a few reservations left in the first session. However, any one interested in that particular session should register immediately before it is completely filled. An extensive water front program is being planned for the campers this season. Two new aluminum boats have been purchased and were taken up to camp last week to add to the waterfront facilities.

They are residing in Jacksonville following a wedding trip to Portland and the Oregon coast.

Entertain for Group

Members of Colleen Hope's dance classes and Alexander's dance band entertained the Royal Neighbors of America meeting Thursday, June 18, in the Pythian hall.

Miss Sandra Sanner performed a pantomime. A covered dish dinner was served.

Dressler-Falk Ceremony Held In Church Here

Miss Elizabeth Falk, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Klumph, 426 Benson street, and C. A. Falk, Denver, Colo., became the bride of Jesse Floyd Dressler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Dressler Sr., route 2, box 465, in a ceremony held Thursday, June 11.

The service was read at 7 o'clock in the evening in First Baptist church by the Rev. James W. Neely.

Miss Madeline Frazier was maid of honor and David Peterson was best man. The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white nylon-over-satin gown with three-quarter length veil. Her flowers were red and white rosebuds.

The maid of honor wore a beige suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Roses and sweet williams decorated the church.

A reception for the 45 guests was held at the Dressler home, Route 2. Miss Janet Myhre and Mrs. Tom Mulholland poured.

Both Mrs. Dressler and Mrs. Klumph wore brown and white cotton frocks and yellow carnation corsages for the wedding.

The bride attended Medford High school and the bridegroom attended Jacksonville High school. He is employed at Fir Ply, Inc.

They are residing in Jacksonville following a wedding trip to Portland and the Oregon coast.

Medford Family On Vacation Trip

Dr. and Mrs. Lee Mellish, Lee Jr. and Sharon, of 117 Black Oak drive, left Medford Wednesday afternoon for a three-week vacation. Their first stay was a four-day visit to the Oregon Lions' convention in Portland, which ends today, following which they will fly to Saginaw, Mich., for a visit with relatives.

From Saginaw the Mellishes will motor to Ontario to spend their anniversary June 25 at Niagara Falls. From there the family will go to New York City for a week. While in New York they will attend several stage plays and television broadcasts, among them the Ed Sullivan show and the Gary Moore show, and will also participate in the convention of Lions' International.

In Washington, D.C., the Mellish family will visit the White House and the capitol for interviews with Oregon's congressmen.

The trip was planned with special interests for Lee Jr., who graduated from Medford High school this month and will enter college in the fall.

The four plan to hear Gov. Nelson Rockefeller speak in New York and to visit the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington.

The Mellishes plan to return to Portland by plane July 8 and to motor home to Medford the same day.
