High Winds Delay Solo Flight of Local Secretary

High winds yesterday afternoon kept Sally Adams from flying solo but if conditions are favorable today she's expected to be piloting her own airplane by this evening.

Sally, who lives at 12 Portland ave., is the 21-year-old Medford secretary who hoped to take enough flight training over the week end to be able to fly solo.

Jim Duncan of Rogue Flying Service said that he was confident Sally could have done it if it weren't for the winds. He said the plans had to be postponed in the interests of flying safety.

Rogue Flying furnished the plane, a Cessna 150, designed especially for beginners, to demonstrate their belief that an average student can learn to fly alone in a single week end.

May Make Solo

Duncan said that Sally hoped to make her solo flight today. She took four hours and 55 minutes of instruction Saturday and Sunday and her instructor, John Childers of Rogue Flying, said she was "an especially apt" student.

Sally was reported enthused by her progress but disappointed at not being able to solo yesterday.

The Cessna 150 cruises at 120 miles per hour and has a range of more than 500 miles.

Duncan said that there is no minimum instruction time required for solo flying. He said it depends upon the student's ability.

Profit Taking Cuts Edge Off Advance

New York–(UPI)–Stocks advanced today on more active trading.

However, the market at the close was not nearly as strong as earlier in the session as profit taking took its toll.

Some of the oils took a pounding, mainly reflecting refinery cutbacks to ease the inventory over-supply problem. Shell was one of the hardest hit, losing more than 2.

Polaroid, which at its high for the day was up more than 3 points, closed the session down around 2 points. The electronics has some wide gains and losses. Late demand helped selected rails.

DOW-JONES AVERAGES

New York–(UPI)–Dow-Jones final stock averages: 30 industrials 631.71 up 1.95; 20 rails 164.79 up 0.58; 15 utilities 85.90 up 0.12; 65 stocks 212.13 up 0.62. Today's sales totaled 2,630,000 shares compared to 2,260,000 shares Friday.

Local Man Arrested In New Mexico

Robert Iholts, 401 East 12th st., and Jack Chrans, of McMinnville, were arrested Saturday in Alamogordo, N.M., on a Lincoln county felony warrant in connection with the recent thefts of money, travelers checks and other items from a car in Fogarty Creek State park near Newport.

Iholt's wife, Della Louise Iholts, of the Medford address, received a one-year suspended sentence in Jackson county district court Friday on a misdemeanor charge of making a false statement in writing to procure benefit.

The Jackson county district attorney changed the original felony charge against Mrs. Iholts to a misdemeanor, stating that investigation indicated she had been coerced by her husband into passing the bad checks, which Medford police said were part of the Fogarty park loot. Iholts took the money she obtained and left her when she was arrested, police reported.
