

Indians Smash Yankee Bid, Sweep Sunday Doublebill; Braves Clip San Francisco

Win, lose or draw, you'll hear no "choke-up charge" against the Cleveland Indians this year.

It's a taunt the critics often leveled at the Indians in the past but they'll do it this year only over the dead bodies of Casey Stengel, his somewhat bewildered New York Yankees and 68,680 fans.

Because the Indians proved their ability to "win the big ones"—so-called mark of a champion—Sunday when they outlasted the world champions, 4-2 and 5-4, before the largest regular-day crowd of the season, Cal McLish pitched his way out of repeated trouble to win the opener and then the Indians went a grueling four hours and 18 minutes to win the nightcap on a 14th-inning homer by Vic Power.

The sweep enabled the Indians to split the four-game series in New York and prevent the Yankees from taking over first place. Had the Yankees won two, they would have led both the Indians and Chicago White Sox by a half game. Instead, they're in fifth place, 3½ games from the lead.

The White Sox went into second place with a 3-2 decision over the Boston Red Sox, the Washington Senators whipped the Detroit Tigers 4-3 and 7-5, before a crowd that included Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Baltimore Orioles, 7-0, in other AL games.

Hank Aaron's three homers and six runs batted in led the Milwaukee Braves to a 13-3 rout of the San Francisco Giants. Stan Musial broke Honus Wagner's record for doubles as the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-1, and then lost, 10-9, rookie John Buzhardt pitched a one-hitter to give the Chicago Cubs a 4-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and the Cincinnati Reds routed the Los Angeles Dodgers in National League games.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant, a 24-year-old right-hander, went the full 14 innings for the Indians in the nightcap to win his fifth game when Power connected for his homer off Jim Coates.

Billy Pierce pitched a six-hitter for his eighth win and Harry Simpson and Sam Esposito hit homers to lead the White Sox to their victory at Boston.

on an easy tap let in Julio Becquer with a ninth-inning run. The Bob Allison and Roy Sievers hit homers to lead the Senators' seven-hit attack that brought Pedro Ramos his seventh victory in the nightcap.

Ned Garver pitched a three-hitter and had three hits including a homer as he won his sixth game for Kansas City. Bob Cerv and Hal Smith also had three hits each for the Athletics.

Aaron's slugging paced a 15-hit Milwaukee bombardment that was good for 33 bases and enabled the Braves to reopen a 1½-game lead on the Giants. Johnny Logan and Del Crandall also homered for the Braves as Warren Spahn, although touched for 11 hits, breezed to his ninth win.

Musial hit two doubles, setting a new National League career mark of 653, in the first game won for the Cardinals by Larry Jackson. Danny Kravitz had three doubles and two singles and Bob Skinner drove in four runs in the nightcap as Benny Daniels won his fourth game for Pittsburgh.

Buzhardt, a 22-year-old right-hander from Prosperity, S.C., faced only 28 batters, striking out two and walking one. Carl Sawatski singled cleanly in the fourth inning for the only Philadelphia hit.

Don Newcombe staged a "one man riot" against his ex-Dodger teammates as he won his seventh straight game and eighth of the season. Big Newk scattered 10 hits and drove in four runs himself with four straight singles.

A homer by Dave Melton and a string of singles gave Portland a 5-3 Pacific Coast league nightcap win Sunday over San Diego after the Padres snatched the opener from the Beavers 4-3.

They split a four-game series at two each.

Melton's blow, his seventh home run of the season, came in the first inning with Milt Graff aboard.

Singles by Jack Littrell scored Jim Greengrass in the fourth and Clarence Moore in the sixth. Len Neal sent Moore home in the fourth on a single for the other Beaver run.

Ken Johnson gave up seven hits, recording his eighth victory against five defeats. The loser was Bill Werle, 1-4.

In the first game the Padres got away fast with three runs in the first inning and the Beavers were never able to catch up.

Portland rallied in the eighth for three runs but couldn't match the last San Diego tally, which came in the sixth.

Not so long ago, Salt Lake City was mired in the cellar of the Pacific Coast league. But Sunday, the Bees stung Seattle twice for their 14th win in their last 20 starts. The sweep earned them a spot on the already overcrowded list of pennant contenders.

It's true that the Bees are only tied for fifth, but in a year of tight pennant chases, the PCL can hold its own with any league since only five games separate the top six clubs.

SCORES—Ted Kluszewski of the Pittsburgh Pirates slides into home plate safe despite Cubs' catcher Sammy Taylor's attempt to tag him, in 13th inning of Pittsburgh-Chicago game in Pittsburgh. Pirates won, 4 to 2.

Salt Lake hopped Seattle 8-3 and 3-1 Sunday. Meanwhile, second-place Vancouver thumped Sacramento 7-3, to move to within two games of the Sacs. San Diego and Portland split, with the Beavers usurping a 5-3 decision after dropping the opener, 4-3.

Spokane belted Phoenix 6-1 to round out the action.

The Bees' hitters took charge in the opener against Seattle and then it was the pitchers' turn.

Bee hitters on Rampage
The winners banged out 16 hits in the lid-fitter, with Ken Toolman and Chuck Harmon collecting three apiece. Dick Hall breezed to his sixth win while allowing nine hits. Seattle went all the way with John Urquhart, who receipted for his seventh loss without a win.

In the nightcap, the Bees were held to seven hits, but Ed Bauta and reliever Umbrecht teamed up to stifle the Rainiers on four blows.

John Burns Scores Double Triumph in Two Track Classes

John Burns, Oregon's No. 2 prep javelin thrower at Crater high this spring, was first in the spear toss and the high jump in both the high school and open divisions on Saturday in the Oregon Olympic Development program track and field meet at the Medford high stadium.

Double winners in their classes are Bill Dillree, Phoenix, in the high school high and low hurdles and Charles Swingle, Southern Oregon college, in the quarter and half-miles.

The meet was the first of five in Medford under the Oregon AAU development program and with the cooperation of Medford city recreation department. A total of 28 entrants were counted for the evening event with participants from as far away as Coquille.

A second all-comers meet is set for next Saturday at the local stadium. It will follow a similar competition Friday evening at the Southern Oregon college oval in Ashland.

Swingle had a 53.8 time in the 440-yard run and was 2:14.9 in the 800. Actually in the half-mile he was the only college entrant and in the combined race finished behind Ray Smith, Medford, who was clocked in 2:11.5 and Dick Evans, Medford, state B school mile champion.

Mike Hood, Medford, in both the prep and open classes. He was broad jump winner with 20-7½. Mike Murray, Medford, state shot put champ, won the open in the iron ball event with 45-8½. First place in the open pole vault with 12-3 was Mike Sparlin, Grants Pass, 1958 state high school titlist.

Dean Benson, city recreation supervisor, who with Don Spinas, OODP southern Oregon coordinator, conducted the meet, termed it a success. However, he expressed the hope for more entries next week end.

Fisher Making Big Loop Debut

San Francisco—UPI—Eddie Fisher, fresh from the minors, was to test his knuckleball in the major leagues for the first time today when he toed the mound for the San Francisco Giants against the slugging bats of the on-rushing Pittsburgh Pirates.

On the sturdy shoulder of the 22-year-old ex-University of Oklahoma hurler will go the burden of stopping the possible Giant tailspin.

The Giants, who led the National league for about 18 hours Friday night and Saturday, now are one and one-half games behind the Milwaukee Braves after a 13-3 shellacking Sunday.

WASHINGTON VICTOR
Clarkston—UPI—Dick Williams, the sweet-swinging defending champion from Seattle Sunday repeated as the Washington Amateur Golf Champion here with a 6 and 5 victory over Spokane's Howard Baker.

Cooper Looms In Tournament

Forest Hills, N.Y.—UPI—Aussie Ashley Cooper is a real title threat in the $15,000 tournament of champions pro tennis competition, according to rookie pro Sam Giammalva of Houston, Tex.

Cooper advanced to the second round Sunday by downing Giammalva, 6-1, 6-3, while fellow Aussie Mal Anderson defeated southpaw Mervyn Rose of Australia, 6-2, 6-4.

Tournament players take a day off today and resume competition Tuesday with Anderson opposing Lew Hoad of Australia and pro champion Pancho Gonzales meeting Ken Rosewall of Australia.

In the only doubles match Sunday, Anderson and Cooper defeated Giammalva and Pancho Segura, 6-4, 6-3.

The singles victories of Cooper and Anderson moved them up to the second round along with six other contestants who previously had earned their berths.
