

Patterson-Johansson Encounter Tops This Week's Boxing List

The Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson world heavyweight title boxing bout on Thursday, June 25, will be presented by closed circuit television at the Craterian theatre in Medford. Only 150 seats were left this morning.

New York - (UP) - Three international fights, topped by the Big Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title match, feature this week's boxing.

In his fifth defense of the heavy crown, Patterson is favored at 16-5 to beat all-time champion Johansson, the question mark from Sweden, at Yankee Stadium Thursday night in a 15-rounder that will be televised only to theaters and arenas. However, it will be broadcast to homes by ABC.

Wednesday night's home-TV 10-rounder brings together lightweight contender Bobby Scanlon of San Francisco and Mario Vecchiato, champion of Italy, at the Chicago Stadium. Ranked seventh among contenders by the National Boxing Association, Scanlon is favored at 8-5 over unranked Vecchiato.

Jones Meets Argentine

Its "even money" for middleweights Ralph "Tiger" Jones of St. Albans, N.Y., and Victor Zalazar of Argentina at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Their 10-rounder will be televised and broadcast nationally to homes by NBC. Jones is ranked 10th by the Ring Magazine. Zalazar, a knockout specialist, is unrated.

For Thursday's Patterson-Johansson fight, bringing together the hardest punchers in the division, the betting is 2-1 that the bout doesn't last its 15 rounds, regardless of the winner. It's even money that Johansson doesn't go the route, and it's 6-1 that Patterson D-O-E-S finish.

Promoter Bill Rosenzohn expects at least 40,000 fans and a gate of at least $600,000. The Teleprompter Corporation, sending the fight on closed-circuit TV to 170 "locations" in 135 American and Canadian cities, has 550,000 seats available.

Handsome Ingemar, seeking his 22nd straight victory and 14th knockout, finished his sparring sessions Saturday and predicted victory - "by knockout or by decision."

Camp Seeks 23rd Straight

Patterson of Rockville Center, N.Y., sparred on Sunday. He seeks his 23rd straight win and his 36th victory in 37 bouts, also his 27th kayo. He knocked out 16 of his last 17 opponents.

Patterson expects to weigh about 182 pounds, probably 16 less than the challenger, who stands six feet and one-half inch.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Monday - Burlington, Vt. - Steve Ward vs. George Ross.

Tuesday - Hartford, Conn. - Tombstone Smith vs. Billy Lynch.

Wednesday - Chicago Stadium - Bobby Scanlon vs. Mario Vecchiato, TV.

Thursday - New York Yankee Stadium - Floyd Patterson vs. Ingemar Johansson, world heavyweight title on radio to homes.

Friday - New York Garden - Ralph "Tiger" Jones vs. Victor Zalazar, TV-radio.

Saturday - West Yarmouth, Mass. - Willie Rice vs. Johnny Otto.

Challenger Brain Gets Conditioned

Grossinger, N. Y. - (UP) - Dr. Goetz Karlsson has taken charge of Ingemar Johansson's brain in order to make a "killer" of the genial Swede for Thursday night's fight with Floyd Patterson.

Primed physically by 192 rounds of sparring, the handsome challenger needs only brain conditioning now to fit him for the 15-rounder at Yankee Stadium, according to his long-time physician and mental super-charger.

This is not a new procedure with Dr. Karlsson of Göteborg, Sweden, and the Göteborg heavyweight.

"The doctor has been with me since I was 17 years old," Ingo explained today. "I go to him with all my troubles, and he helps me get into a fighting frame of mind. By ring time, I'll have great mental energy. And that makes my physical energy so strong, no one can stand up to my right hand."

Last Four Hours

Karlsson, a husky youngish-looking man, said the home-stretch speed-up of the mental conditioning would occur during the last four hours before the fight, when he and Ingemar "will be closeted for a final review of his attitudes."

"There is a great deal of difference between the Johansson who doesn't like to hurt his sparring partners," Karlsson concluded, "and the man with the tough, mean mental pitch who will face Patterson."

Ingo finished his sparring Saturday. Until fight time, he will relax on the golf course, at the swimming pool and in long walks with Karlsson, who will be in his corner Thursday night.

Salemites Roll Along

United Press International Those Salem Senators must be kinsmen of Old Man River for they sure keep rolling along toward the first-half championship of the Northwest league.

The Senators ran their latest winning streak to five straight Sunday when they swept a twin-bill from Wenatchee, 7-3 and 5-2, by putting together a big inning in each game.

Salem started things off in the opener with a four-run rally in the first inning. The Senators added single tallies in the second and third frames and scored again in the fourth when Bob Folker homered with none aboard. Don Schaefer went the route for the winners to gain his fourth victory of the year against no losses.

Fourth Inning Burst

The Senators had another big outburst in the fourth inning of the nightcap when they scored all five of their runs. Ron Fahnestock won his sixth game of the season as against four defeats.

The double victory left Salem 7½ games in front of runnerup Eugene, which split a doubleheader with Lewiston.

The Emeralds came back to beat Lewiston, 5-2 in the second game after dropping the opener, 9-2.

Cellar-Swelling Yakima climbed to within a half game of fifth place Tri-City by taking two from the Braves, 2-0 and 9-5.

Portland - (UP) - Mel Renfro, Jefferson High school, dominated the all-comers track and field meet prep division here Saturday at the Jefferson track by winning three events, the broad jump, pole vault and 100-yard dash. Former Cove flash Jim Puckett and now a University of Oregon freshman took the open division 100-yard dash, his specialty, and also the 220 and broad jump.

The news dispatches of United Press International are translated into 48 languages and appear in 1,184 newspapers published in foreign countries.

Floyd Sharp For Tangle With Inge

By JACK CUDDY
Chatham, N.J. - (UP) - A matured and apparently improved Floyd Patterson will finish pre-fight training today in "sharp" condition for the first time since he won the heavyweight title.

"He'll be exactly right for Ingemar Johansson Thursday night," said trainer Dan Florio.

Whether he wins or loses, there can be no excuses that he was rusty or over-trained. There were explanations after each of his four previous defenses, none of which was impressive.

Experts, including Rocky Marciano Sunday, marveled at the speedy coordination and power displayed by 24-year-old Floyd while delivering his salvos of hooking combinations in preparation for unbeaten Johansson, champion of Europe.

Come Remarkably

"I'd say he's improved in every department," admitted the usually conservative Florio. He's come on remarkably since his May 1 defense against Brian London at Indianapolis. He needed that fight under his belt."

Floyd cut loss only four times Sunday with his hooking combinations because of the heat in the jam-packed gymnasium, here at Ehsan Karadag's hillside camp.

When Floyd finished Sunday, he weighed only 180 pounds. He plans to fight at about 182½. Johansson will scale about 197, an advantage of nearly 15 pounds.

The champion claims he has not battle plan. "I never make any plans before a fight," he said. "If you make plans, and the other fellow doesn't do what you expect, it throws you off. I just wait and map my fight in the ring, depending on what he does."

Doug Ford Winner in Canadian

By DICK BACON
Ste. Dorothee, Que. - (UP) - Doug (Gangbusters) Ford, who thought he "forgot how to win," today reigned as the 50th Canadian Open Golf champion.

Ford, golf's most consistent money winner who wanted "to win so bad I could taste it," finally came home a winner Sunday when he shot a pressure two-under par 70 to beat out three other U.S. pros by two shots - PGA champion Dow Finsterwald, Masters champion Art Wall, and Bo Winginger, Odessa, Tex., pro who came from way back to join the runnerups.

Ford, 36-year-old native of New Haven, Conn., now playing out of Paradise, Fla., started the final day with pounds of 68-69-69, one shot back of the leaders, Finsterwald and the young Aussie, 23-year-old Bruce Crampton.

The victory was worth $3,500 to Ford, and increased his earnings to $19,335.57, moving him from sixth to third place behind Wall and Billy Casper, Jr. Apple Valley, Calif., the U.S. Open winner who finished this tourney 74-69-74-68-283.

Wall came home with an even par 72, three shots behind Ford for a three-way tie for second place with Winginger, and Finsterwald.

Four shots back of the new Canadian Open champion were Don Fairfield, 63-hole leader Crampton and Rosburg. Tied at 281 were Paul Harney, a winner on this same course two years ago in the Labatt Open; Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Jay Hebert, Sanford, Fla.

Stan Leonard the 50-year-old shotmaker from Vancouver, was the top Canadian for the eighth time as he shot a six-under 282 to tie with Ken Venturi, Daly City, Calif., and Tommy Bolt, Crystal River, Fla.

Carroll Shelby Le Mans Victor

Le Mans, France - (UP) - Jacques Loste, Le Mans race director, hailed the victory of Texan Carroll Shelby today and hoped to see more Americans competing in the famed European auto classic next year.

Shelby, a 36-year-old Dallas contractor, partnered Great Britain's Roy Salvadori to victory yesterday in the gruelling 24-hour race that covered 2,691.698 miles over a winding course.

Loste also had praise for two other Americans who added a Yankee luster to what hitherto had been a European auto-racing party. George Arentz of Coconut Grove, Fla., teamed with Belgian Georges Billet for fourth place in a Ferrari and Bob Crossman of West Nyack, N.Y., came in fifth with Fernando Tavano, a Frenchman, in a Ferrari.

Maurice Trintignant and Pierre Frere of France were second and the noted Belgian National team of Jacques Swaters and Leon Dernier third.

Pfaff Homer Gives Dairy Maids Edge

Vancouver, B.C. - Fourteen-year-old second baseman Janet Pfaff drilled a home run in the third inning for the only run here yesterday afternoon as the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids of southern Oregon nipped the South Hill Queens of Vancouver 1 to 0 in a Northwest Women's Major Softball league tussle.

The win gave the Maids a series split. Vancouver won 6 to 1 on Saturday. Sunday's loss was the first in the first half of the league's split season for the Queens, who, however, dropped a pair of ad-

Odell Ties Leaders in Qualifying

Dr. Ralph Odell has joined the leaders in qualifying play for the men's match play golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

He medaled a one-under-par 71 in his qualifying round. Eddie Simmons and Alan Holmes previously qualified with 71s.

Next among the 55 who have played their 18-hole rounds is Jim Sheldon with a 72. Dr. Dave Boals and Dr. Robert Buck have 75s.

Qualifying will continue through June 28. Senior club championship qualifying has opened and goes through July 4.

In another tourney being completed C. A. (Dutch) Meyer and Paul Moore are to play Virgil Swanson and Jack Featherston some time this week for the men's two-ball partnership toga. Gain Robinson and Clayton Lewis won the first flight title, defeating Frank Perl and Dr. Russell Barnes 7 and 5.

Dr. Boals paced a ball sweepstakes over the week end with a low gross 71 while Dr. Odell took the top net prize with a 68.

Other gross scores included Sheldon 72, John Nutch 73 and D. Buck 74. Lee Flink and Houston Pitts had 69 nets and Walt Shaylor with 67. Nets 71s were posted by Charles Mickelson, E. W. Peterson, Dick Knight, Dick Rementeria and Lloyd Pope.

LA's Dodgers Try to Forget

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles - (UP) - The Dodgers today tried to forget the 17-3 debacle of the Cincinnati Reds and instead looked ahead to four games with the cellar-dwelling Philadelphia Phillies starting tonight.

Sandy Koufax, one of four pitchers on the Dodger roster who did not get into Sunday's game, starts tonight against the Phillies. The lefthander is 3-1 for the season and appeared to be back in top condition again. Philly manager Eddie Sawyer sent word ahead that Jim Owens, 4-4, would be his starter.

Bik Newk Stars

Former Dodger star Don Newcombe was the Cincinnati hurler who pitched the win against his former teammates and inflicted the worst defeat Los Angeles has suffered this year. Newk not only scored his seventh complete game but he was 4-4 at the plate. He drove in four runs.

"I haven't seen this club look so bad since I've been with it," manager Walt Alston commented.

"The fielders couldn't catch the ball and there was no excuse for some of the sloppy play."

The Dodgers committed three errors, had two wild pitches and a balk, a hit batsman and several plays that were not called errors only because the outfielders did not touch the ball.

Cincinnati combed six pitchers for 17 hits and received 10 walks to make the win an easy one.

Prineville - (UP) - John Hedlund, Oswego, Sunday carded a 69 to go with Saturday's 66 to win the Oregon Jaycee Golf tournament at Prineville Golf club. Lynn Yturri, defending champion from Ontario, was next with 137. Chuck Allen, Roseburg, had 140 and Beaverton's Kermit Kelling was fourth with 143. All four won bids to the National Jaycee tourney in Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 22.

Thomas J. Dent, who has been coaching Dartmouth's varsity lacrosse team since 1927, was a soccer star in England before that.
