Koufax Pitches Dodgers To 6-2 Win Over Phillies

United Press International
They always said it couldn't be done—but Sandy Koufax can make rival batsmen look like worse hitters than he is. It's no mean trick, too, when you consider that the 23-year-old southpaw speedballer thinks nothing of striking out 10 times in a row or going a full season with one or two hits.

$20,000-bonus baby who once sprained an ankle when he "tripped over the foul line" at Ebbets Field, looked like he finally is coming of age as a major league pitcher Monday night when he struck out 16 batters while pitching the Dodgers to a 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Shy of Dean's Mark
Koufax' performance fell one strikeout shy of the National league mark set by Dizzy Dean in 1933 but he did earn a couple of lines in the record book.

Winning his fourth game in seven decisions was Art Houtteman. He was relieved by Howie Reed in the ninth inning when the Bees scored one run and had the tying runs on base with only one out.

The loser was Hugh Penner who now is 5-5.
Salt Lake opened the scoring in the fourth frame when Carlos Bernier singled to score Ken Toothman from second base. The Salt Lake lead was short-lived, however, as the Beavers came back in the fifth to put the game on ice with the six tallies.

STIFF LAW TO STAY

Sydney, Australia—UPI—Australia has refused to relax the stiff quarantine laws prohibiting importation of horses from overseas. At present, only horses from New Zealand or the United Kingdom may enter Australia without a six-months prior residence in the United Kingdom.

the major league record of 14 for a night game previously held by Johnny Vander Meer, Bob Feller, Bob Turley and Sam Jones.

—The total of 16 strikeouts in one game also equalled the all-time mark by a left-hander—shared by Rube Waddell, Nap Rucker, Jack Harshman and Herb Score.

—At the same time the total equalled the club single-game strikeout record held by any Dodger pitcher—in this case, Rucker, July 24, 1909.

Koufax struck out at least one batter in every inning up to the ninth. Three strikeouts in the final frame would have set a new major league mark, two would have tied Feller's existing record and one would have tied Dean's N.L. mark. But he couldn't get them.

The Dodgers clinched the victory when they scored three runs in the fifth inning, the key blows being a two-run single by Gil Hodges and a run-producing single by John Roseboro. The Dodgers made only nine hits compared to 10 for the Phillies but they got seven walks. Eight Dodgers struck out, the game total of 24 for both clubs equalling a major league record.

Mickey Mantle drove in six runs with two homers and a triple to lead the New York Yankees to an 11-6 victory over the Kansas City Athletics and rookie Eddie Fisher won his major league debut as the San Francisco Giants downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, in the only other big league action.

Mantle sent the Yankees off winging with a two-run homer in the first inning, tripled with two aboard in the fifth and connected for his second two-run homer in the seventh. Bill Skowron also homered for the Yankees to help relief pitcher Bobby Shantz win his second game. Fisher yielded only three hits in seven innings and Al Worthington cleaned up in the eighth and ninth for the Giants, who handed Ron Kline his fourth loss by scoring four runs in the seventh inning.

Beavers Win 6-4, And Seattle 2-1

United Press International
A six-run outburst in the fifth inning powered the Portland Beavers to a 6-4 victory over the Salt Lake City Bees Monday night in the opening game of a Pacific Coast league series. The win was Portland's second in 10 contests with the Bees and left the Beavers in fourth place.

Winning his fourth game in seven decisions was Art Houtteman. He was relieved by Howie Reed in the ninth inning when the Bees scored one run and had the tying runs on base with only one out.

The loser was Hugh Penner who now is 5-5.
Salt Lake opened the scoring in the fourth frame when Carlos Bernier singled to score Ken Toothman from second base. The Salt Lake lead was short-lived, however, as the Beavers came back in the fifth to put the game on ice with the six tallies.

The fireworks started when Len Neal and Houtteman singled and Milt Graff walked to load the bases. Consecutive singles followed by Charlie Secrest, Russ Snyder and Jim Greengrass. At this point Salt Lake manager Larry Shepherd took Penner out and brought in reliever Dave Wickersham who was greeted with a triple by Clarence Moore.

Bernier's single in the sixth drove in two Salt Lake runs and narrowed the score to 6-3 and R. C. Stevens narrowed the gap to 6-4 in the top of the ninth when he hit his second round tripper of the season for Salt Lake.

Darrell Martin turned in a perfect ninth inning relief stint to choke off a San Diego threat and give the last place Seattle Rainiers a 2-1 victory over the Padres.

Howie Reed came on to relieve Art Houtteman in the ninth inning to save a 6-4 decision for Portland over Salt Lake. Connie Johnson saved Fred Besana's win as he worked three-plus innings as Vancouver beat Phoenix, 5-2. Martin Spectacular.

Martin, appearing in his 22nd game this season, was credited with his seventh win against six defeats.

Seattle pushed across the eight innings of good baseball, was credited with his seventh win against six defeats.

Jay Hook, who pitched eight innings of good baseball, was credited with his seventh win against six defeats.

Nine Football Frays Scheduled At Multnomah

Portland—Multnomah Stadium will be the scene of nine football games during the 1959 season with the most attractive schedule ever arranged here, it was announced today by Manager Harry Glickman.

The schedule includes the 12th annual Shriners' Hospital all-star game, a professional game, four major college contests, the second annual ViPi game, the Frosh-Rook battle and the state high school championship.

The University of Oregon will host three college games and two of last year's participants, the Air Force in the Cotton Bowl and California in the Rose Bowl, are among the opponents.

Oregon State's lone appearance will be in the collegiate opener against USC. The stadium will offer at least 1500 additional choice seats in the vicinity of the 50-yard line for this year's games because of the removal of the light poles on the east side of the field.

The complete schedule is as follows:
Aug. 15—12th Annual Shriners' hospital all-star game; Aug. 28—Philadelphia Eagles vs. Green Bay Packers; Sept. 18—Vi-Pi-Lewis and Clark vs. Portland State; Sept. 19—Oregon State vs. USC; Oct. 17—Oregon vs. Air Force Academy; Oct. 24—Oregon vs. Washington; Oct. 29—Oregon Frosh vs. OSC Rooks; Nov. 7—Oregon vs. California; Nov. 27 or 28—State High School Championship.

Pitcher Narrowly Misses Record

Los Angeles—UPI—Sandy Koufax was a happy young man today despite missing the National league record for strikeouts by one man last night when he fanned 16 Philadelphia while the Dodgers were scoring a 6-2 victory.

"Of course I would have liked to have had the record or equalled it," the dark-haired young pitcher said afterwards. "But I was very glad to have won the game. The way I started out this year, I'm surprised I didn't end up in the minors."

Koufax bettered the previous high of 12 strikeouts this season set by Don Drysdale of the Dodgers and Sam Jones of the Giants.

It also was the most strikeouts for a night game, breaking the mark of Johnny Vander Meer, set July 29, 1943 and it equalled the best strikeout mark ever set by a left-hander, held by four hurlers including Nap Rucker, who fanned 16 in 1909 to set the Dodger record.

"I think my best game was my first complete game against Cincinnati in 1955 when I struck out 14."

Ashburn and Gene Freese were only Phillies Koufax failed to strike out and Wally Post fanned the most times, going down four times in four at bats.

It was Koufax's fourth straight win of the season after six unsuccessful starts and it left his record 4-1.

Losing Phillie pitcher Jim Owens struck out seven and Humberto Robinson fanned one. The total of 24 strikeouts equalled a major league record for a nine-inning game held by Cleveland and Washington and set May 19, 1956.
