Baltimore Just Half Game From First Spot; Castoffs Have Part in Tipping Tribe

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Paul Richards is making Oscar of the Waldorf look like small potatoes, considering the fantastic results he's getting by mixing a pinch of chicken salad with some old left-overs.

And if you think that dish is for the birds, better have a look at the American League standings.

They show Baltimore's onrushing Orioles only a half-game out of first place and with more victories than any other team in the league.

Not bad for a ball club that is last in the league in hitting, next-to-last in fielding and loaded down with such castoffs as Skinny Brown, Walt Dropo, Billy Loes and Jim Finigan.

Castoffs in Important Roles

All of them played important roles in Baltimore's 7-4 victory over Cleveland Wednesday night and today another discard, Hoyt Wilhelm, gets a chance to boost the Orioles into first place when he goes against the Indians.

The Orioles broke a 4-4 tie when they came up with three runs in the ninth.

Gus Triandos, Dropo—playing his first game after coming from Cincinnati—and Gardner and Bob Nieman each homered.

Brown, who posted his fifth victory, held the Tribe to five hits.

The Athletics downed the Yankees, 4-3; the Senators whipped the White Sox, 4-2, and the Red Sox beat the Tigers, 6-2, in other AL games.

Milwaukee retained its two-game lead in the National league with a 4-0 win over St. Louis in a game cut to seven innings because of rain; San Francisco nipped Pittsburgh, 4-3; Los Angeles made it three in a row over Philadelphia, 9-6, and Cincinnati blanked Chicago, 5-0.

Daley Checks Yanks

Knuckleballer Bud Daley of the A's checked the Yankees on seven hits as he racked up his seventh victory with the aid of a two-run homer by Dick Williams. Roger Maris singled home the decisive run in the seventh.

Mike Fornieles' fine relief job saved Jack Harshman's second victory as Boston beat Detroit. Harshman held the Tigers to five hits in 6 1/3 innings, then Fornieles came on and didn't give up a hit the rest of the way.

Washington capitalized on three singles and two errors to score three runs in the ninth and defeat Dick Donovan of Chicago.

Hank Aaron smashed his 20th homer with two on in the first inning for the Braves and it was that's all, brother, as far as the Cardinals were concerned.

The Giants won their game from the Pirates when Leon Wagner's ninth inning pop fly with the bases full fell safely. Center fielder Bill Virdon, charged with an error, and second baseman Bill Mazeroski collided on the play.

Wally Moon's two-run homer in the sixth inning broke a 6-6 tie between the Dodgers and the Phillies. Don Demeter then provided Los Angeles with an insurance run when he homered.

Jim Brosnan of the Reds held the Cubs to four hits in gaining his second victory. Cincinnati knocked out loser Dick Drott with four runs in the first inning, the key blow being Ed Bailey's homer.

Alex Olmedo Takes On Indian Netter

By ROBERT MUSEL

Wimbledon, England – (UPI) – Alex Olmedo had to prove his right to be top-seeded in the Wimbledon tennis championships today against the man who handed him a surprising defeat less than a week ago—Ramanathan Krishman of India.

Krishman whipped Olmedo, 8-6, 6-1, last Friday in the semi-final round of the London Grass Courts tournament and their clash in the third round of men's singles here was expected to highlight a program today that includes matches in almost every section.

Seven American still were "alive" in men's singles—five, including Olmedo, in the third round and two in the second.

And seven Americans still were in competition in women's singles—five in the third round and two in the second.

Not all were scheduled to see action today, however, as tourney officials put together a mixed program including both singles and doubles play in the men's and women's divisions, with matches from different rounds complicating the picture.

Harry MacRay of Dayton, Ohio, Olmedo's running-mate on the U. S. Davis Cup team, also was listed for third-round atcion but was expected to have a much easier time against Jan Leschly of Denmark. In a pair of men's second-round singles matches originally scheduled Wednesday but postponed when rain delayed the program, Malcolm Bo of Baltimore, Md., faced Jean Molinari of France and Jacques Grigry of Alhambra, Calif., met Manuel Santana of Spain.

The U. S. girls, Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., and Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., were scheduled for third-round matches in women's singles. Two others, Karol Faberos of Miami, Fla., and Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif., were listed for second-rounders. All were expected to win.

Attention in doubles centered on a first-round match between the gray-haired U. S. combine of Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., and Budge Patty of Los Angeles and the crack Italian Davis Cup team of Nicola Pietrangeli and Orland Sirola. Mulloy and Patty astonished the tennis world by winning this title in 1957.

Bobby Scanlon Gets Decision

Chicago – (UPI) – Italy's Mario Vecchiato had no apologies for defeat today, but he said that Bobby Scanlon beat "only half a fighter" in racking up a 10 round decision Wednesday night.

It was the first loss after 18 straight wins for the Udine, Italy, battler, making his American debut, and he didn't quibble with the official's scoreboards, each holding him two points below his conqueror, who won his 33rd match in 37 pro fights.

"It was just a matter of climate and water and different styles," Vecchiato said through an interpreter.

Good Trout Catches in Upper River

Portland – (UPI) – The State Game Commission today issued its weekly fishing report:

Southwest: Trout angling in North Umpqua between Winchester and Soda Springs, good to excellent for stocked trout. Upper South Umpqua, Cow creek and Calapooya creek fair to good for trout. Shad fishing fair to good in Letherwood, Hutton Grove and Cleveland rapids areas.

Salmon angling at Winchester bay is fair. Striped bass fishing in the Gardiner area of the Umpqua is fair. Salmon fishing is only fair on the Coos Bay area. Striped bass and shad fishing was good to excellent on the lower Coos Bay.

Good catches of trout are being made in the upper Rogue above McLeod. Limit catches continue to be made at Fish lake. Fishing is fair to good on Floras and Garrison lakes and just fair on the Chetco river.

Central: Limit catches are reported on the upper east fork of Hood river. Ochoco reservoir remains good. Elk lake continues good on troll for kokanee. Angler success at Wickiup reservoir has been spotty. Metolius river has slowed, but experienced anglers continue to make good catches.

Crescent lake is excellent for kokanee and rainbow. Williamson river is fair.

Northwest: Upper Willamette and tributaries low and clear. Lakes in Willamette and McKenzie drainages are producing fair to good catches.

Northeast: Canyon creek is excellent for cutthroat and rainbow. Olive lake is fair for kokanee and rainbow. The John Day river and tributaries above John Day are fair to good for rainbow, cutthroat and dolly vardon trout. The Umatilla river is good for liberated rainbow. Sturgeon from 40 to 48 inches are being taken in the Columbia river near the power line at McNary. The south fork of the Walla Walla river is excellent for released rainbow. The Grand Ronde river is good for released rainbow. Catherine creek has been excellent for rainbow. The Wallowa and Minam rivers are high and muddy, but Wallowa lake is excellent for rainbow. The Imnaha river is high and muddy and angling poor. Horse creek and lightning creek are fair for small trout. West Eagle creek is good for rainbow. Grande Ronde and Anthony lakes are producing limit catches of rainbow. The north fork of Burnt river is fair to good for small trout. Unity and Murray reservoirs are producing excellent catches of rainbow.

Southeast: Owyhee reservoir is still producing crappies and bass in fair numbers. Beulah reservoir is producing limit catches of rainbow. Small streams in southern Malheur county are excellent for small trout. Fish lake in Harney county is only fair. In lake county, Dairy creek and the Chewaucan are fair. Blue lake is good, with trolling producing the best results.

SOTA Slates Drag Race This Sunday

Drag races, sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing association, will be held this Sunday, June 28, at the Camp White drag strip.

Gates will open at 9 a.m. for the time trials and the eliminations will be staged after lunch.

A large group of racing enthusiasts from the Shasta Roadsters, a hot rod club, Redding, Calif., will attend, according to SOTA officials.

Dragster entries will be shooting at the $75 bond that now rests on the strip record of 144.46 mph. Should this record not fall this Sunday the amount will be increased to $100 for the July 12 affair. There is also a $25 bond, posted by White's Cycle shop of Medford, on the "B" cycle mark of 100.55 mph.

Safety Shields Required

Association officials again warned all contestants in classes other than stock and sports cars under 2,700 cubic centimeters that 360 degree safety shields of one-fourth inch steel are required to surround the bell housings of the vehicles. Specifications will be according to the National Hot Rod association rule book and anyone who does not have a safety shield will not be allowed to compete.

All class winners, top time, and little and top eliminator will receive trophies.

The SOTA strip is located in West Camp White seven miles north of Medford off the Crater Lake highway. Signs will be posted from the "Y" in north Medford. The public is invited to attend the races. A concessions stand will be operated by the Medford Lions.

Tennis Players Eye Opportunity in RV Invitational Meet

Players of this area are speculating on their chances of capturing hardware this Saturday and Sunday in the Rogue Valley Invitational Tennis tournament at Ashland.

Because of a strong entry from outside the valley, most of the local contenders face big tasks in their efforts to claim trophies.

The tournament will be on Southern Oregon college courts. Rogue Valley Tennis club is sponsor. This rivalry is the second of a circuit of tourneys this summer on southern Oregon and northern California courts.

Entries received to date indicate that Jerry Joy is the valley's most likely winner. He is the most experienced in the junior men's singles division. Another young player with a good chance is Jan Newman, Gold Hill, considered as strong a player in women's singles as any entered from outside this area.

Tod Tibbutt, Medford, has been king among Rogue valley singles players but his bid in this tournament will be challenged by five fine players from outside. Jerry Kalapus, state champ while at Medford High, is rated among men's singles contenders. He has played at Pacific university. Other locals in the event include Phil Holman and John Root, Medford, and Joy, Alex Petersen and Bob Gouley, Ashland.

Valley hopes in men's doubles are Dick and Jerry Joy, father and son, and Petersen and Root. They player in the Redding meet. The Joys have teamed for several years and were first round victors last year in the Oregon State tournament at Portland.

Mixed doubles is a category in which the locals may score with only one real tough crew entered from elsewhere.

Tourney play will start at 9 a.m. Saturday with men's and junior men's singles. Play on Sunday will get underway at 8 a.m.

Maids Bill Salem Nine This Week

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids will try to improve on their previous success against the Capitol City Shamrocks when they oppose the Salem aggregation this week end at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

The Northwest Women's Major Softball league scuffles are billed for 7:30 p.m. on Saturday and 1:30 p.m. on Sunday at the VA diamond.

In their last meeting, at Salem, the Dairy Maids and Shamrocks divided. Rogue Valley won the series opener 6 to 3 and Salem the second tangle 2 to 1 in 10 innings.

Ahead in Standings

The southern Oregon team finished ahead of the Shamrocks in the first half standings with a 5-7 record. Salem suffered its eighth loss last week end. Games this week end will be in the second half of play although Capitol City has not completed the first half.

Capitol City was to have met American Linen of Portland last night in a regular scheduled fracas. Two games postponed because of rain reportedly are yet to be made up.

The Maids and Salem met here last August in the second round of the state women's tournament. Rogue Valley won that fracas 7 to 1, getting all its runs in one inning.

Boys' Division Net Players to Report Friday

Rogue Valley Tennis club, prompted by a desire to encourage young players, has included two divisions for boys in its week end tennis tournament at Southern Oregon college.

There will be junior men's and boys' singles division.

Those interested in the boys division are instructed to report to the Ashland courts ready to play at 4 p.m. Friday, June 26. There is to be no entry fee in this one division which is for youths 15 years of age and under.

Junior Men Saturday

Junior men's singles, for those 18 and under, starts on Saturday at 9 a.m. along with the regular tournament and will have a nominal entry charge. The division is expected to attract a number of prep players in this area. Two Corvallis youths have filed entries.

Interest shown by the younger players was a factor in setting up play for the 15 and under boys. It is hoped that a good number of players will be in the junior divisions and the younger netters are particularly advised to attend the final matches on Sunday afternoon in order to watch and gain tips on the sport from the more seasoned contestants.

Copple Out After 2nd Links Tiff

Eugene—(UPI)—Only two players from the Pacific Northwest, Gary Hval of Oregon and Ed Pearsall of Seattle university, were left in the running for the NCAA individual golf title today.

A dozen others fell by the wayside as the field of 64 was trimmed to 16 in Wednesday's two 18-hole match play rounds.

Hval ousted Bob Snelling of Stanford 4 and 2 after beating John Liechty of Iowa 3 and 2.

Pearsall downed James Parker of Florida 1-up and Rex Wilsen of Arizona state by the same margain.

Hval met Warren Simmons of Syracuse and Pearsall plays Jack Luceti of San Jose State today in third-round matches.

Beat Royer

Two other Northwest golfers made it to the second round. Larry Copple of Oregon State ousted Ron Royer of Indiana on the 21st hole in the day's longest match. But he then lost to Harley Drake, Purdue, 5 and 3.

John Rosholt of Idaho defeated Ralph Baker of Tulsa 2 and 1 but lost to Simmons 5 and 4.

Other Northwest players lost first round matches.

Leighton Tuttle of Oregon State lost to Joel Goldstrand of Houston 4 and 2. Tom Jakobsen of Oregon dropped a 2 and 1 decision to Bob Ross of Rollins. Bryan Copp of Seattle lost 2 and 1 to Bob Moser of Georgia. Ray Kowallis of Idaho lost 5 and 4 to Ray Echols of Fresno State. Oregon State's John Dunkin was a 2 and 1 loser to Ward Wettlaufer of Hamilton. Tom Aaron of Florida ousted Chuck Hunter of Oregon 6 and 5.

Parry Overstreet of Washington State lost 5 and 3 to Tony Marimon of Houston. Keith Gubrud of Oregon dropped a 2 and 1 decision to Duke's Bob Zimmerman. Ted Weiss of Yale ousted Bill Warner of Seattle, 2 and 1.

Co-Medalists Upset In NCAA Golf Fray

Eugene—(UPI)—Ward Wettlaufer and Tommy Aaron, a pair of sweet swinging Walker Cup stars, vie today in the top match during the third round of the NCAA golf championships.

Wettlaufer, of Hamilton, and Aaron, of Florida, are among 16 players who survived Wednesday's action in which the field was pared from 64.

Upsets highlighted Wednesday's play. Both co-medalists from team champion Houston, Bob Pratt and Jack Cupit, were eliminated.

John Konsek, of Purdue, last year's runner-up, will meet Dick Crawford, Houston's only surviving player, in what is touted as another top match.

Konsek had to go 20 holes before beating Bill Eschesbrenner of North Texas State. In his second match he defeated Tony Marimon of Houston, 5 and 4.

Wettlaufer, a finalist two years ago, recorded 2 and 1 victories over John Dunkin of Oregon State and Jim Wright of Oklahoma State. Aaron edged Tom Garrity 1 up and trounced Chuck Hunter of Oregon, 6 and 5.

Today's lineup will send Del Beman, brother of Dean Beman who won the British Amateur this year, against Stanford's Ron Preston. Other matches pit Jack Luceti, San Jose State vs. Ed Pearsall, Seattle; Bob Moser, Georgia vs. Gene Francis, Purdue; Bob Zimmerman, Duke vs. Ted Weiss, Yale; Gary Hval, Oregon vs. Warren Simmons, Syracuse.
