HORN BROOK Crop of Hay Being Cut

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — Cutting and baling of the first crop of hay is practically completed in this area, and, contrary to most years, none of it got wet in the process.
Growth of alfalfa in the county has been stunted this spring by lack of rain and sun, according to Siskiyou County Farm Advisor M. V. Maxwell of Yreka, but even in areas such as this where water is available and alfalfa is irrigated, the continuing cold weather held back its growth considerably.
In spite of the prevalence of weeds, the hay crop was heavy, and has appeared to move well, and at a fairly good price. It is hoped that the warm weather and an occasional good rain such as this area enjoyed last Thursday evening will bring about a cleaner and better second crop. Water available for irrigating is diminishing rapidly with the onset of hot weather.

Several visitors from the east coast are in Hornbrook at present. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Marlow are her sister, Mrs. Eleanor Cataldi and children, Frankie and Vicki Lyn, of Pasadena, Md., and Miss Annie Hittel and John Davis, both of Baltimore, Md. The group arrived last Wednesday on a three weeks' trip. They plan to take in some of the beauty spots of the west coast including Crater Lake, Mt. Shasta, and the redwoods. On Thursday, friends from Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, spent the day at the Marlow home.

Another visitor from the east is Mrs. Dorothy Brautlachs who is here for a visit with her husband's parents, the George Brautlachs. She came by plane from her home in Groton, Mass., to San Francisco, then by train to Dunsmuir, where the senior Brautlachs met her and brought her north.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hubbard and daughter, Janette, of Klamath Falls were overnight guests June 12 at the home of Mrs. Hubbard's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Sanders. Hubbard is a student at OTL. On Sunday, Mrs. Sanders accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders, and children, Guy, Lois, and Eddie, to Ashland where they had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dailey, parents of Mrs. William Sanders. She and Lois and Eddie remained with the Daileys for a few weeks' visit.

The Henley Bridge club met June 17 at the home of Mrs. Henley Clawson with Mrs. George Brautlachs as a guest player replacing Mrs. Grace Quigley. Mrs. John Griffin held high score for the afternoon, with Mrs. Brautlachs second high. Other players were Mrs. Frank Ohlund, Mrs. Ivon Howard, Mrs. Marshall Horn, Mrs. Lester Nye and Mrs. Bertha Bradley. This marked the last meeting of the club until September.

Overnight guests of the Henley Clawsons June 15 were Mr. and Mrs. Tony De Soza of McCloud, who were en route to Canada on vacation. On Friday a luncheon guest of Mrs. Clawson and her grandson, Ray Seaman, was Tom Fine.

Fine was a neighbor of the Clawsons when they lived in Tennant, Calif., and has just returned from Germany, and has been released by the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCann and Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenberg drove to Grants Pass on Sunday on a pleasure trip. Mrs. Rosenberg was the former Mrs. Gladys Jones before her marriage to Mr. Rosenberg on June 6 in Reno.

Mrs. James Liskey and daughter, Jimmy Lynn, drove to Fresno last week end to attend her brother's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spearin and three children of Rumsey, Calif., and their nephew, Gary Murphy, of Salinas arrived last Thursday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spearin. Lunching with the Jim Spearins on Wednesday were Mrs. Merwyn Rickey and two daughters of Scott valley.

Their fourth child and third daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Shinar June 13 at the Siskiyou General hospital in Yreka. The baby weighed 7 pounds, and has been named Cleo Mae. The baby was given her name by a friend and neighbor of the Shinar's, Mrs. Grace (Grandma) Doolittle.

"Drop-in" visitors of the Frank Bear's last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis and daughter, Marlene, of Medford. The Davises were on a vacation trip.

Alvin Tyrrell of Willow Creek, Calif., visited his sister, Mrs. Zela Elmore, for a few days last week.

Ben Phillips was in Redding on business last week.

Mrs. James Clyburn went to Chico, Calif., Saturday to spend Father's day with her father, W. E. Eskridge. She planned to return home on Wednesday.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Ella Rose on June 14 were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pausen of Ashland. Both are students at SOC. Mrs. Rose left on Friday to spend a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Rose and children in Ashland.

Mrs. Ardon Burns and Miss Mary Lee Rutledge attended a bridal shower honoring Miss Myrna Cummins Friday evening. The party was given by Miss Sandy Hanlon at her home in Yreka. Miss Cummins, the daughter of Carl Cummins of Hornbrook, and Mrs. Mac Windsor of Yreka, is to be married on July 5 at the First Methodist church in Yreka to William Edman Montgomery. Both young people are students at Chico State college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sylva gave a birthday party June 14 honoring their daughter, Miss Vivian Sylva, of Yreka. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dutcher and David and Jamie, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sanders and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith and David, Mrs. Mabel Long and daughter Alice, Miss Aggie Wardinski, and Johnny Sylva, all from Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and son Jackie of Hornbrook.

While her husband is at National Guard Camp, Mrs. Roger Smith of Camp White, Ore., and small daughter, Renee, are spending the week with her parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McMasters and Steve, Gary, and Larry. Friday they spent with Mrs. McMasters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Clyburn, at their home down the Klamath river.

"Butch" Hegler, son of Mr. and Mrs. "Pug" Hegler, is in town for a few days, visiting friends, and also spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowe, and his aunt, Mrs. John Rosenberg. Butch has been in San Francisco for two weeks, and is stopping off here briefly before returning home.

While on vacation from their upholstery business in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lynsch and four children are visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon and daughter, Patty.

Filling the pulpit of the local Methodist church on Sunday was the Rev. Allan Brown of the Assembly of God church in Yreka. The regular pastor, Rev. W. C. Small, was attending conference at Stockton, Calif.

A family reunion took a number of local people to Sacramento last week end, including Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth, their daughter, Mrs. Ray Middleton and two children of Hiltz, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. "Pat" Killingsworth and two children, also of Hiltz, and another daughter, Mrs. William Thomas, and her husband and four children of Yreka. A total of 50 relatives attended the gathering which was held at the home of Mrs. Martha Russell, who is the mother of Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth. The family convenes each year as near as possible to the date of June 10, Mrs. Russell's birthday. She was 81 years old this year, and by coincidence, has 81 living descendants at the present time.

Sharon Louise Shinar, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Shinar is at Vallejo, Calif., for three weeks, visiting her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson. Sharon went down with her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Bailey, of Yreka, sister of Mrs. Shinar.

Mrs. Bertha Bradley has as houseguests her three sisters, Mrs. J. W. Terrell of Sacramento, Mrs. Archie Winters of Santa Rosa, and Mrs. E. T. Roeder of Oakland. Joining the group for a family reunion dinner on Sunday was Mrs. Bradley's brother-in-law, W. W. Rogers of Grenada, Calif.

Mrs. Tom Watt and sons, Tommy and Ronnie, returned Sunday from a two weeks' stay in Portland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rubisch. Ronnie had a tonsillectomy, and they remained in Portland until he had recovered.

Mrs. Grace Doolittle is visiting her son, "Spid" in Eureka for a few weeks.
