Associate Minister At 1st Methodist

The Rev. Robert F. Dowrey is new associate minister at First Methodist church. He recently came to the Oregon conference from the Indiana conference.

Mr. Dowrey was born in Lowell, Mass., and was graduated from Tufts college in Medford, Mass. He did graduate work at Boston univercity prior to spending two years as a medical laboratory technician with the U. S. Army at Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D. C. He also served part of his military service in Germany.

He attended the University of Chicago seminary from which he was graduated June 12.

While at seminary Mr. Dowrey served as assistant pastor in the Hyde Park Baptist church, Chicago, and during the summer he served in a Congregational church in Challis, Idaho, and Sheridan, Wyo.

The past year he was an associate minister at Embury Methodist church, Chicago, and one summer was student chaplain at Topeka State hospital, Topeka, Kansas.

The second sermon in the series of three sermons on God at First Methodist church will be given Sunday entitled "In His Love" by Dr. George Roseberry.

The chancel choir will sing "The Sanctus" at the 11 a.m. service. The youth choir will sing "Mindful of His Own".

Board of trustees meet Monday at a breakfast meeting. Methodist men meet Thursnoon at the church with the Rev. Robert Dowrey as speaker. The Ladies Bible class meets Thursday noon at the church.

Dr. Roseberry and Mr. Dowrey will attend the Eugene District Minister's Annual retreat to be held at Dead Indian-Soda Springs Youth camp. The camp will be held from Monday noon through Wednesday noon. Dr. Edward Ashenbrenner will be the featured speaker. The ministers will hear a review of the year's work reviewed by the secretaries of the conference.

Religious Drama Scheduled Sunday

The Rev. J. M. McCraw of the First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane, has announced that in place of the regular service Sunday there will be a religious drama, "The Challenge of the Cross," by the Volunteer Mission Band of Wayland Baptist church, Plainview, Texas.

The cast includes eight young college students and is under the direction of Martin Landers, professor of speech and drama at the college. The service will begin at 11 a.m.

Following the service the entire congregation will have a picnic dinner at a local park.

For the past week the church has been conducting a religious survey in adjacent communities in view of establishing a mission Sunday school. Assisting the pastor in this work are Miss Lynda Farley and Miss Murlene Seright.

Miss Farley is from Kennewick, Wash., and is a sophomore at Columbia Basin college. She is sponsored by the Baptist Student Union. Miss Seright is from Elk City, Okla., and is a graduate of Wayland Baptist college, Plainview, Texas. She is sponsored by the Home Mission Board of The Southern Baptist convention.

The girls, as well as other young people, work during the school vacation in various activities among the churches of the convention, helping conduct Bible schools, survey work, serving as church camp instructors. The work here will continue through next week.

SERMON SUBJECT

"Christian Science" will be the sermon subject Sunday at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, at 11 a.m. at the church, 100 Windsor ave. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Majority of Local Congregation to Eugene Assembly

The Medford Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses announced today that nearly 100 per cent of the congregation members have formulated plans to travel to Eugene, to join 4,000 to 6,000 delegates in their "Awake Ministers" convention there, July 9 through 12.

"Knowing the number of members who are planning to attend, the Eugene members have been working for weeks to obtain rooming accommodations for us," said T. R. Thompson, presiding minister of the local congregation.

The Medford man said that speakers from the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society's headquarters in New York will be featured, including Max Harry Larson, director of the New York corporation and manager of the printing plant. He will, in addition, serve as convention chairman, and be assisted by Russell V. Mock, minister of a Brooklyn congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, who also works in the Bible printing plant as an engineer.

Principal Speaker

"The principal speaker will be E. D. Rosam Jr.," Thompson said.

The Eugene convention is one of 29 to be held in the United States, Canada and Iceland this summer. Six are scheduled for the West coast.

"Assemblies are as important to Jehovah's Witnesses as their regular meetings, which number five each week," the Medford minister said.

"Is the Bible a Man Made Book?" will be the title of the public talk Sunday at 6 p.m. at the Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 2402 Jacksonville highway. The Watchtower study will be held at 7:30 p.m. with the subject "Christians Need Accurate Knowledge."

Minister Starts Sixth Year At Nazarene Church

Sunday will mark the beginning of the sixth year the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn has been pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, Medford. Members of the congregation will welcome him home from a three week vacation to begin his sixth year here.

During the five-year term extensive remodeling of the activity building and additions to the church plant have been made. Membership in the church and Sunday school have all-times highs.

Ground work was laid for the opening of a second church in Medford, with First church donating the major portion of money. Nucleus of members for the initial organization of the Mt. Pitt Avenue Church of the Nazarene were First Church members.

Under present leadership, the Church recently engaged in a financial canvass, pledging $500,000 for current remodeling and future expansion. Last year church giving reached the all-time high of $48,458.

Eastwood Baptists Announce Schedule

"A Time of Crisis" is the title of the sermon to be given by the Rev. Richard M. Jones at the 11 a.m. service at the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way dr. at Ridgeway ave., Sunday. The chancel choir will sing the anthem, "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own." Nursery care is provided.

There is no evening service during the summer months. The Baptist Youth Fellowship meets on Tuesday evening.

Eastwood Baptist church is located north of Hedrick Junior High school and is affiliated with the American Baptist Convention.

ARMY SERVICES

The Salvation Army will be holding its regular services Sunday with the holiness service starting at 11 a.m. Lt. David Petersen will speak on the subject "God's Great Love." The Salvation service at 7:30 p.m. will include Lt. David Petersen speaking on "God's Great Salvation." The public is welcome at services.

Mission Sunday Speaker Scheduled at St. Peter's

Miss Gertrude Simon of Hong Kong, nurse, teacher and deaconess, will be the featured speaker at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., Sunday at 11 a.m. It is the congregation's annual Mission Sunday.

Miss Simon joined the missionary force of The Lutheran church—Missouri synod in 1927; beginning her work among the Chinese on the China mainland where she served in Hupeh and Shasi provinces.

Work in Hong Kong

Arriving at Hong Kong she set to work teaching the Christian Gospel to the refugees from the mainland.

Miss Simon is the elder sister of the Rev. John E. Simon of St. Peter's Lutheran church. After her visit in Medford she plans to attend the Lutheran Deaconess convention at Ft. Wayne, Ind., and then to proceed to Wisconsin to be present for the 60th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Simon, Bonduel, Wis.

Mr. Simon also plans to attend the anniversary. It is hoped that all nine of the Simon children will be able to attend.

During the mission service St. Peter's choir, directed by Al Huntemann, will sing "We Give Thee But Thine Own" and the "Seven-fold Amen." The children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Emil Taws, will sing "I Am Jesus' Little Lamb."

A mission offering will be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon and Miss Simon are currently attending The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod convention in San Francisco. At the meeting Dr. John W. Behnken was re-elected to the ninth three-year term as president.

Methodists Set School Dates

Vacation Church school will begin Monday, July 6, at First Methodist church and will continue through July 17, the hours being 9 to 11 a.m., according to the Rev. Robert Dowrey, who will be general superintendent of the school.

Ages of those who will attend include those who will begin school in the fall of 1960 through those who will be in the seventh grade this fall. Pre-registration forms will be available Sunday, Friday, July 3, and Sunday, July 5, at the church office.

Mrs. Robert A. Forbes will be superintendent of the younger children's kindergarten and will use the text "Children Learn from Jesus." Mrs. Don Faber will be superintendent of the older children's kindergarten using the text "Stories About Jesus." Mrs. A. O. Walker will be superintendent of the primary department using the text "Outdoors in Palestine." Superintendent of the junior department will be Mrs. C. Gordon Morris and the text for this group will be "Praise Ye the Lord."

St. Luke's Church Plans Activities

Sunday school for the children's department and the worship service are both held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou blvd., across the street from Hoover Elementary school.

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, minister, will preach on the subject, "The Wideness of God's Mercy." Miss Susan Schoppert will sing. The public is invited to the services.

Monday, June 29 through Wednesday, July 1, Mr. Dixon will attend the Eugene District Ministers' Retreat at the Methodist Dead Indian camp.

SCHOOL PROGRAM

The Bethel Assembly of God, 1225 East McAndrews rd., will present its Vacation Bible school program tonight at 7:30 a'clock. The activities and accomplishments of the past two weeks will be portrayed. The three classes of the school have included children of the beginner, primary and junior ages. All classes will participate in the singing. The public is invited to attend. The program will be directed by Mrs. Roy H. Hageman.

Phoenix — John Bigham, Crescent City, Calif., will be guest speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service at Church of Christ, 501 First st., Phoenix.

Activities Told by Area Presbyterian Churches

"On God's Side or Man's" will be the title of the communion meditation by Dr. D. Kirkland West Sunday at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

James Baker will lead the Westminister choir in "Mighty Lord, Thy Faithfulness" at the 9:30 a.m. service and the chancel choir will sing "Heavenly Light" at the 11 a.m. service.

Miss Kathy Barr will sing, "I Will Praise Thee With My Whole Heart" at both of the morning services.

The Junior High Fellowship meets Sunday at 5:30 p.m. for a study of the Gospel of John and a discussion of the topic, "The Word Made Flesh". The meeting will be announced at church school Sunday morning.

At 4:30 p.m. Sunday the Westminister Fellowship will meet at the church in order to go to Jacksonville for a joint meeting with the WF group there. The combined groups plan to go up the Applegate river for swimming and a picnic, after which devotions and the meeting will be held.

Geneva Fellowship for all post-high school young people will have its first meeting of the summer Sunday at 7 p.m. at the George Flanagan home, North Pacific highway. There will be swimming and games. The group will meet at the church Thursday at 7:30 p.m. for a time of prayer and Bible study. A party for all college and other post-high school young people is planned for Friday, July 3 at 6:30 p.m.

Ashland—"The Marks of His Presence" will be the sermon topic at both the 9:45 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday at First Presbyterian church, Ashland. The Rev. B. J. Holland, minister, will speak.

Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. the men's breakfast will be held at Omar's Dining room.

Central Point — The Rev. Bruce J. Weber, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, will preach Sunday on the subject, "My Messenger" at 11 a.m. This sermon will be a study of the book of Malachi.

Following the service a fellowship hour will be held.

Westminster Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Purdy, 3521 Oak Pine Way, and the topic for discussion will be "The Disadvantages of Being Christian."

Jacksonville—The monthly church fellowship night dinner at the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, will be held Saturday at the church at 6:30 p.m.

The minister, the Rev. King K. Jones, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on "Can the 'Saved' Be Lost?", another in the series on "Perplexing Portions of Presbyterian Belief."

The adult choir will sing "Consider and Hear Me" which will be their final selection for the summer. Miss Jane Anders will be soloist. The junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ross Crowley, will sing during the worship services this summer.

The Jacksonville Westminster fellowship will meet at the church at 4:30 p.m. and will be hosts to the Medford Westminster Fellowship. The groups will travel to a spot on the Applegate river for recreation, picnic supper and program. This will be the final fellowship program for the summer. The group will reconvene in September.

The church will hold a Vacation Bible school from Monday, July 6, through July 17 for children from age 5 through the sixth grade. The daily classes are scheduled from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Children who plan to attend are asked to fill out a reigstration card at the manse if they have not already done so. Although it is not necessary to preregister to attend the school, church officials will have a better idea of the enrollment if the majority fill out these cards.

Wednesday, July 1, a meeting for Bible school workers will be held at 7:15 p.m.

Rogue River—The Rev. Robert T. Bridge will complete his ministry as interim pastor of the Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River, Sunday. The monthly coffee hour will immediately follow the morning worship service.

There will be a family pot luck dinner tonight at 6:30 o'clock in Fellowship hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bridge. Everyone in the congregation and community is invited. Those attending are asked to take their food and table service. Coffee, rolls, and butter will be furnished.

Promotion Day Scheduled by First Christian

Promotion Day will be observed in the Bible school Sunday morning at the First Christian church.

At the exercises to be held in the sanctuary during the Bible school hour each department superintendent will present the class for promotion to the superintendent of the department the pupils will enter. Mrs. Ralph Cook, general superintendent of the Sunday school will preside during the program.

Mrs. Keith Templeman is superintendent of the nursery department; Mrs. M. R. North is the kindergarten superintendent; Mrs. Howard Gault heads the primary department; Earl Purdy is superintendent of the juniors; and Mrs. Gerald Johnson is in charge of the Junior High department.

Sermon Topic

The Rev. William C. Piper will preach at both services on the topic "The Faith to Live By." At the first service Mrs. Vera Selby will sing a solo. At the second service the chancel choir will sing the anthem "Heavenly Light."

Mrs. Wayne Wakefield and Mrs. W. I. House will be hostesses at the coffee hour. This will be the last coffee hour during the summer months.

The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. for their study. Bert Lindemann will be host for the youth fireside at 8 p.m.

Mr. Piper will be in Turner this week attending the state convention of Christian Churches. He is head of the Evangelistic commission for the state. Mrs. Ralph Cook, who is on the state worship committee will also attend the convention.

SummerCommunion Service Scheduled

The summer communion service will be held at the Congregational church Sunday at the usual 10 a.m. hour. Visitors are welcome as at all the services. The communion meditation by the Rev. Thomas McCamant will be "Our Weakness and Our Strength."

At the close of the service a congregational meeting will be held. Principal business will be a discussion of the Sunday school, following a report from the Christian Education committee. Co-chairman for the every member canvass committee will also be nominated and elected. There will also be discussion of a Centennial service.

The date for the annual vesper services at Crater Lake has been set for July 12 at 4 p.m.

Missionary Film Set At Pilgrim Holiness

The missionary film, "A Cry in the Night," will be shown at the Medford Pilgrim Holiness church, East Jackson at Bessie sts., Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

An hour-long, full-color documentary, produced by World Vision, Inc., the film recently won first place in the documentary division of the Winona Lake Film Festival, an international competition for religious films.

Churches using it, rather than paying rental fees, are required to take an offering for their own foreign missionary program.
