

Vacation Visitors

When it is vacation time, Amy Lynn Henderson has come to Medford from her home in The Dalles, Ore., to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Smith, 423 South Newtown street. Amy, who will be 8 in August, has a large family of dolls but is pictured here with one of her favorites, Kathy. Amy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Henderson of The Dalles, her mother being the former Jeanne Smith.

← Miss Ora Cox, known to hundreds of valley residents because of school days, comes from Bushnell, Ill., each summer to spend a short time in Medford. When she retired in 1948, Miss Cox had been principal of Lincoln school for 28 years and before that had been on the faculty of Washington school, including two years as principal. Miss Cox is pictured in the home of Mrs. George B. Canode, Crown avenue, also a retired teacher, with whom she lived before leaving Medford.

Miss Beverly Aus-Der-Au, Melrose Park, Ill. (at right) is in Medford as a guest of Miss Marjorie Blind in the home of Miss Blind's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt J. Blind, 127 Valley View drive. The two young women were roommates at Valparaiso university in Indiana as freshmen; Miss Blind was graduated from the University of Oregon in business science earlier this month and Miss Aus-Der-Au received her degree from the Indiana university in home economics. Miss Blind is on the staff of the Jackson County Juvenile department for the summer and will go to San Francisco in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Sax, who left for their home in Manhattan Beach, Calif., Wednesday were honored at a number of dinners during a stay here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Tennant, 325½ East Jackson street. Mrs. Sax, the former Mrs. Marjorie Skeeters Hopkins, was Girl Scout executive for this area for many years and is widely known. Her marriage to Mr. Sax took place this spring. Mrs. Sax teaches at Madrona school in Torrance, Calif., and this spring was honored by the parent-teacher association with presentation of a life membership.

Photographer met photographer when Jack Borjes of Canon City, Colo., had his picture taken last week by The Mail Tribune's Robert Wroman. Mr. Borjes is a photographer-reporter for the Canon City Record. With Mrs. Borjes and their two sons, Rickey, 10, and Jack Jr., 14, the newspaperman is making a motor trip through the Pacific coast states and last week the four were guests of Mr. Borjes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Fraysher, Sunset drive. Mr. Borjes works in various groups, Kiwanis club, Elks and Masonic lodges, and is a vestryman of the Episcopal church. Mrs. Borjes is a Beta Sigma Phi and also is active in the Episcopal church.
