Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brian Schauble (Classic photo)

Eagle Point Church Scene Of Schauble-Farlow Rites

Among June brides was Miss Sandra Jean Farlow, whose wedding to Richard Brian Schauble took place June 23 at Eagle Point Community church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Fred Farlow, 1013 West Ninth street, Medford, and the late Mr. Farlow, and Mr. Schauble is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schauble, Shady Cove.

The Rev. William Piper of First Christian church, Medford, officiated. About 175 guests attended.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown over white tulle, and a matching cap of lace held the finger tip veil. She carried rosebuds on a white Bible, the latter being a gift from her grandmother. The pearls she wore had been a gift from her father to her mother.

Sister Attends - Miss Lois Farlow, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Suzanne Schauble, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Both wore pink figured nylon over taffeta; one a lighter shade than the other. Each carried a bouquet of painted daisies.

Carl Weisbrod of Shady Cove was best man, and the ushers were Neil Dusenberry and Dean Weitman, also Shady Cove.

Candlelighters were Carmen Farlow, cousin of the bride, and Linda Robins, cousin of the bridegroom. Both wore white figured nylon over pink taffeta and matching bonnets.

Karen Farlow, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was white figured nylon over white taffeta, with a pink sash and white bonnet. Michael Miles, also cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Larry Dodehoff sang and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain was at the organ.

The church was decorated with pink gladioli and white Ester Reed daisies. White and pink ribbon bows with wedding bells attached were at the end of the pews in the center aisle. Mrs. Otto Nagel of Eagle Point did the flower arrangements.

Miss Linda Niece, Eagle Point, was in charge of the guest book, while Miss Doris Corliss looked after the wedding gifts.

Wear Roses - The bride's mother chose a figured pink, blue and grey silk dress and a matching pink hat for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue figured dress with a white hat. Each had a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception in the church parlor was given by the mother of the bride. The wedding cake was the centerpiece for the lace covered table, and on each side were pink candles and baskets of Queen Bees, pink roses, white snapdragons, pink carnations and white Ester Reed daisies.

Mrs. Edward Chamberlain, Eagle Point, and Mrs. Claude Miles, Medford, served. Pouring punch were Mrs. Clancy Rankin, Portland, and Mrs. Clifford Rouch of Eagle Point.

The bride wore a blue figured taffeta dress with a linen jacket and matching accessories for her going away ensemble.

After a brief honeymoon, the young couple will be at home in Shady Cove. Mr. Schauble is employed by Steve Wilson Logging company and the bride was formerly employed at Woolworth company in Medford.

The bride has spent her entire life in the Rogue River valley. Her paternal grandparents, the Farlows, came here in 1855, and the Downings in 1877. Her maternal grandparents, the Woodrighs, homesteaded on the Applegate, and her great, great grandfather, Alpheus Woodrigh, was one of the first Baptist ministers in this area, coming here in 1850.

The Schauble family came from Burbank, Calif., and have lived in Shady Cove since 1947.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coon, Las Vegas, Mrs. John Walker, Fort Bragg, Calif., Mrs. Bertha Robins, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harrison, Prospect, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robins, Trail; Judge Raymond Lathrop and Mrs. Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitterman and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Force, all Grants Pass.

Elder Reads Ceremony For Couple

Miss Karen Linda Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Houston, 1014 Maple Park drive, and Donald Ronald Kezer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Kezer Sr., 2344 Thorn Oak road, were married Friday, June 5.

Elder Floyd Breese of the Seventh Day Adventist church read the double-ring service at 6.30 o'clock in the Louis A. Corwin residence on Carter lane.

Miss Shirley Annette Kezer, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. Miss Dianne Corwin was flower girl and Randy Corwin, Ashland, was ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon lace and net over white satin of ballerina length. She carried spuria iris with perle d'or roses. Miss Kezer wore a gown of pink embossed nylon and also carried spuria iris.

Best man was Steven L. Houston, brother of the bride, who was home on leave from Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento.

Baskets of iris, peonies and roses decorated the home and sprays of Paul Scarlet roses accented the archway and fireplace.

Mrs. Lloyd Thornton and daughter, Myrna Kay, provided special wedding music and sang.

Reception Given - The bride's mother wore an apple green dress with a Cecil Brunner rose corsage and Mrs. Kezer wore a green suit with Cecil Brunner roses.

Mrs. Corwin gave the reception for the 65 guests at the wedding.

Mrs. Don Christie, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Kezer, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served punch. Mrs. W. F. Biddle Jr., and Mrs. L. A. Corwin cut the cake.

Mrs. John Kezer was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Harold Kezer and Mrs. Gene Kezer had charge of the gifts.

The couple traveled to the Oregon coast for their wedding trip and will reside in Prospect, where he is employed. The bride's travel suit was of black tweed.

The bride attended Rogue River academy and the bridegroom attended Medford schools.
