Rites Held At Chapel For Couple

Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman Barnes are making their home in Eureka, Calif., following their marriage Sunday, June 21, in Meeker Memorial chapel at First Methodist church. Mrs. Barnes is the former Jeanne Billson Niebel, daughter of Marcus K. Billson, Honolulu, Hawaii. Mr. Barnes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Barnes, 5790 Table Rock road, Central Point.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double-ring rites held at four o'clock in the afternoon. Baskets of flowers and pink picture roses and Ester Reed daisies decorated the chapel for the event, attended by 30 relatives and friends.

Miss Naida Smith, Portland, niece of the bridegroom, was soloist. The bride wore a pink-beige lace frock with tulle and beige chiffon cummerbund. She wore a beige tulle cloche with velvet accents and carried a nosegay of baby pink roses. Robert Blach, Belvedere, Calif., gave his niece in marriage.

Mrs. Wayne Smith, Winchester, Ore., sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride. She wore a pale blue organdy eyelet frock with blue chiffon cummerbund and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of blue delphinium.

Theodore L. Barnes, Roseburg, served as best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Rogue room at the Medford hotel.

The couple traveled to Lake Creek Lodge in the Cascades on their wedding trip. The bride is a graduate of Puna-hou school, Honolulu, and the University of Washington. Mr. Barnes is a graduate of Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi social fraternity. He is employed by Georgia-Pacific corporation in log and timber procurement.

He made his home in Olympia, Wash. prior to his recent transfer by the company to Eureka.

National Officer Visitor in City

Mrs. Edward Murphy, Springfield, Mass., president of National Women's Association of Allied Beverage Industries, visited the Medford chapter June 23.

Mrs. Murphy was elected at the national convention held in San Diego, Calif., earlier this month. Attending the event from the Rogue valley were Mrs. Ada Horsely and Mrs. Betti Boyle.

Site of the 1960 national convention will be Minneapolis, Minn., it was announced. Among the national officers appointed by the new president at the convention was Mrs. Alyce McCroskey, Portland, who was appointed parliamentary. She is a lawyer with Fleischman Distillers.

Announce Display Of "Psychic Art"

A public exhibition of "psychic art" is being held today and Monday at the Girls Community club by Mrs. Grace Glene.

The exhibition may be viewed today from 2 until 5 p.m. and 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. Talks will be given at 3 and 8 p.m. telling the background of the drawings.

Monday the exhibit will be displayed from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. with talks scheduled at 11:15 a.m. and 3 p.m. The drawings were done by Elsie Jane Graham and is said to represent the art of the ancient Moors, Persians, Chinese, Egyptians and Aztec produced by spirit artists of thousands of years ago.

Pictures Taken By Flanagans To Be Shown

Mrs. George Flanagan will take the Arm Chair Travel group on a Volkswagen tour of Germany at 1 p.m. Monday, June 29, at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Main street.

Colored slides to be shown are of a unique travel plan carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan and their three sons who visited all the European families with whom they have been corresponding for several years.

The exchange of letters began with Care packages which the Flanagans sent regularly to the families.

One of the recipients accompanied the Flanagans as a guide and interpreter and entire towns turned out to welcome the American family who had shown such personal interest in their welfare.

Last week Dr. and Mrs. Bert R. Elliott took the group to Canada and Alaska via picture.

Classes at the center have increased 25 per cent. The pastel and oil painting class and the wood-carving class have been asked to bring pictures and carvings to the center for the next class meeting for selection of an exhibit.

Items selected are to be taken by Mrs. Fred Rankin to the state capital for the quarterly meeting of the Oregon Council on Aging, July 11.

Fourteen men and women are studying conversational Spanish each Thursday at 9 a.m. under direction of Michael Dillon, Camp White.

Edwin Root, orchestra director, who has been ill, has returned to the orchestra class which meets at 1 p.m. each Thursday. More wind and string instruments are needed for the group.

The ten-piece orchestra gave a surprise performance for a meeting of the 50-plus club Friday.

Jacksonville Class Holds Reunion

Jacksonville - Forty-three persons attended the buffet dinner held by the 1949 graduation class of Jacksonville high school June 20 in the Jackson hotel Pioneer room. Special significance was attached to the reunion since the 1959 class was the last to graduate from Jacksonville high school. The district will become part of the Medford system next year.

Twenty-one class members, their wives or husbands, and John Harr, class adviser, and Mrs. Harr were present.

The room was decorated with spring flowers, and background music completed the informal setting.

After dinner Ellis Doty, Klamath Falls, read the class prophecy in the "Tomahawk", 1949 yearbook for which he was editor.

Mr. Doty introduced his wife, the former Phyllis Rydberg of Medford, and told of his years in the navy and his present career with an optical company. The Dotys have one son.

Each former student and the adviser related experiences since graduation.

Mr. Harr is now principal of Rogue River schools and lives near there.

Bruce Matheny and Mrs. LeRoy Offenbacher are teachers at Ruch and Applegate respectively.

From Brookings
Mrs. John Ray (Lura Robins) who traveled from Brookings with her two daughters, is manager of the Curry County Credit Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bray (Wilma McIntyre) are spending the month of June in the valley while he is on furlough from the air force in Anchorage, Alaska. Their three sons flew here with them and are visiting their grandparents in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McDaniels came from Alabama with their four children for a few days and are returning to

Vosika Family On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vosika, 2835 Elliott street, and their four children, Larry, Cheryl, Dennis, and Randy, spent three weeks visiting relatives and points of interest in several northern states.

The family traveled to Sioux Falls, S.D., where they formerly lived, and visited the Bad Lands of South Dakota, Glacier National park, Montana, and Grand Coulee dam, Wash.

They also visited relatives in Washington and Montana.

Reports Given On Girls State

Girls who attended Girls State in Salem last week were welcomed home Tuesday, June 23, at a meeting of the Medford unit American Legion auxiliary. The state auxiliary sponsors this annual state-wide event.

The young women and their mothers were guests of the auxiliary. They included Linda Lowry and Mrs. Barbara Lowry; Rosiland Randle and Mrs. A. L. Randle; Elaine Jennings and Mrs. Sam Jennings; Anne Haviland and Mrs. Paul Haviland; Alice Croxton and Mrs. V. H. Croxton.

Other guests were representatives of groups which held sponsor the girls. They were Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck, Zonta club; Mrs. John Stewart, Phoenix Thursday club; and Jay Elliott, president of St. Mary's High School Parents club.

The girls reported that they had "a wonderful time" at Girls State and had discovered many things about running the government. All held offices in the make-believe state. Refreshments were served to 36 persons following the program.

Californians Visiters Here

Mrs. Hazel Wood, Vallejo, Calif., and Mrs. Eva Gier, Huntington Park, Calif., past department presidents of California, United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, 803 Pine street, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Barneburg, 1297 Sunset avenue.

Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Gier, with Mrs. Anderson, will leave Sunday morning for Newport, Ore., to attend the convention of Department of Oregon, United Spanish War Veterans, June 28-July 1.

Mrs. Harry Barneburg, Veterans Administration Volunteer Service hospital representative of the USWA, took Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Gier through the Camp White Domiciliary center. They are the VA's representatives of California.

(Lita Wagner) from Rogue River.
From Ashland were Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Rolie (Pauline Hardy) and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wertz.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter Hibbs now reside in Phoenix. Several class members make their homes in the Applegate area including Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Offenbacher (Ann Killingsworth), Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Matheny and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Winningham (Valerie Tolman).

From Medford
Those from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Smith (Janet Tuttle), Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elrod (Ramona Guch), Mr. and Mrs. David Dow (Jean Pappas), Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tompkins (Helen Coffman) and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hinkle.

Among graduates unable to attend who live in this area are Roy Gibson, Mrs. Jack Ragsdale (Ina Belle West), Mrs. Karreen Maddox Brown and Wesley Offenbacher.

Some of the group danced following dinner, but most visited for several hours at their first reunion.

On the following day many of the group gathered with their children for a picnic at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Offenbacher on the Applegate river.

The class decided that those moving in the future should send their new addresses to LeRoy Offenbacher, route 1, Jacksville, to facilitate plans for the next reunion.
